REPUBLICAN TICKET. COOS COUNTY, OREGON. FOR JOINT SENATOR, B. B. JONES. FOR REPRESENTATIVE, WILLIAM MORRAS. FOR COUNTY CLERK, R. C. DEMENT. FOR COUNTY CLERK, ALEX. STAUFF. FOR CO. COMMISSIONERS, A. PERSHAKER, H. W. HOLVERSTOTT. FOR TREASURER, FRED. SCHETTER. FOR ASSESSOR, DANIEL GILES. FOR SCHOOL SUPERINTENDENT, A. B. CAMP. FOR COUNTY SHERIFF, S. B. CATHCART. FOR CORONER, LOUIS F. MUNROE.

The Tariff Question. The thirteenth article of the Democratic platform, adopted at the late Albany convention, reads thus: "That we are opposed to any and all protective tariffs, and are in favor of a tariff for revenue only, and we pledge the Democratic party to abolish all restrictions upon commerce as soon as practicable."

It is well for our people before deciding for whom to cast their ballots at the coming election, to consider the purport of that resolution. It is the avowed policy of that party, as laid down here, to do away with all duties upon imports as soon as practicable, which will be as soon as they have the power to do so.

We now have a duty of seventy-five cents per ton upon all bituminous coal that is imported. This affords a considerable revenue to the Government, besides preventing foreign coal being brought into our ports in quantities that would drive our American coal out of the market, and by this means our mines are barely able to run and pay living wages to workmen.

Mr. Siglin has lately been basing his hopes of election on the possibility of working up a little dissatisfaction in Curry county, because Coos did not give them the nomination of the Joint Senator, and it has been the leading feature of his conversation in the saloons and on the streets, as well as in the columns of his paper, ever since the convention.

In our County Convention held at Ellensburg on the 10th of this month we nominated Rawley Scott for Joint Senator, provided Coos county concedes to us that right. But it was not entirely satisfactory to the Republicans of Coos, that Mr. Scott was to run for Joint Representative.

Both this county and Curry have mines of coal of good quality which are likely to be developed in a few years, which will add much to the wealth and commerce of this portion of the coast; but the success of this Democratic doctrine would lay a perpetual embargo on all enterprises depending upon the coal trade for support.

THE Ellensburg correspondent (?) who is trying to get up a "boom" on behalf of the Democratic ticket, says Mr. Scott, who is nominated for Representative by the Republicans, was expecting to leave for California or Arizona. That was exactly the condition of the Democratic candidate for Joint Senator, and he doesn't think it hurts him any as a candidate.

A Transparent Hobby.

It is common for a class of politicians to resort to any species of humbugging and false representation to secure the votes of men of little intelligence, but it was a surprise to see in the columns of the News of last week, an article in favor of the enactment of a law forbidding the payment of anything but money for wages, and providing that an existing debt cannot be pleaded as an effect to a claim for wages. Under the proposed new system which Siglin thinks of inaugurating for the benefit of his constituents, a laboring man, a lawyer, doctor "or any other man" can run an account for goods at one of our business establishments while he is at work for wages, and when he gets through, collect pay for his work in cash, the store bill not being allowed to be deducted. It appears to be a hobby that Mr. Siglin has mounted with the hope of imposing upon a few voters and getting support enough to elect him.

But he goes further and asserts that such a law is in force in several of the states. It is not true that such a law is in force in any state, nor in any civilized country of the world. If such a law is in force, Mr. Siglin can produce it. Bring out that law Mr. Siglin, publish it, and pledge yourself to urge the passage of such a law, and you will be triumphantly elected.

Mr. Siglin has lately been basing his hopes of election on the possibility of working up a little dissatisfaction in Curry county, because Coos did not give them the nomination of the Joint Senator, and it has been the leading feature of his conversation in the saloons and on the streets, as well as in the columns of his paper, ever since the convention.

Land Grants -- Democratic Consistency.

The Republican party has given lands to corporations, sufficient to make nine States as large as Indiana. Is it any wonder that capital is Republican and that labor is Democratic? Each sees its own interest. -- News.

It has only been a few years since Oregon's Democratic Congressman was trying to give away to bleated capitalists 125,000 acres more of the public land, in the shape of scrip that could have been located in any part of the State, and from which the country could have derived no possible benefit.
