An Epitaph.

Here lies all that is left of a man, Who was better than most of his kind...

The Gem of the Ocean.

Mr. W. H. Starbuck, agent of the Oregon Railway company at New York, telegraphed to Mr. Villard on the 9th that the new steamship Columbia sailed for Portland at noon...

A Race for Life.

A very exciting race for life occurred between a couple of prospectors out on a range the other evening. They had finished their work for the day, and were engaged eating their evening meal when a large wild-cat, being attracted by the smell of cooked meat...

Is Mars Inhabited?

There is no planet of the solar system, says Science for All, which offers so close an analogy to the earth as Mars. The telescope reveals to us the figure of broad tracts of land and expanses of sea upon its surface.

Strange Superstition.

Fannie Devanport is very superstitious, and especially so about birds. To touch or go near one on her way to the theater she regards as a sure forerunner of bad luck and a disastrous engagement.

HIGHEST HONORS AT THE Centennial World's Fair, 1876!

THE SHONINGER ORGANS

MANUFACTURED UNRIVALLED AS THE BEST INSTRUMENTS.

Their comparative excellence is recognized by the Judges in their reports, from which the following is an extract: "The SHONINGER ORGAN CO'S exhibit as the best instruments at a price rendering them possible to a large class of purchasers, having a combination of beauty and durability, producing novel and pleasing effects, and being in every respect, well adapted to get out of order, all the boards being made of one piece of wood, so it is impossible for them to either warp, swell or split." THE ONLY ORGAN AWARDED THIS HONOR.

This Medal and Award was granted after the most severe competition of the last century, before one of the most distinguished juries ever assembled. New Styles and prices just issued, which are in accordance with our rules, the BEST ORGAN for the least money. We are prepared to appoint a few new Agents. Illustrated Catalogue mailed, post-paid, on application.
