

The Next President.
The Portland "Bee" contains the following short sketch of General Garfield, the Republican nominee for President of the United States:

The tradition that the child of the humblest citizen may hope to be President of the United States is not dead at all.
General Garfield was the son of very poor parents, and at a very early age was compelled to follow the vocation of driver on the Ohio and Erie Canal. Having the metal in him for better things he left the canal and sought and obtained opportunities to do chores and odd jobs to pay for his living, while securing the rudiments of an education in the common schools. After awhile he was able to secure a scholarship in the academy at Hiram, Portage county, Ohio. The industry and energy displayed by him in pursuit of the object of his ambition—an education— attracted attention and raised up friends who furnished him means to pursue his studies at Harvard College, from whence he graduated with the highest honors. Returning to his native State he was elected President of the Academy at Hiram, where his earlier struggles had been hardest. Rising rapidly in public estimation, the breaking out of the war of 1860 found him a member of the State Senate. The firing upon Sumner roused the nation, and Garfield immediately raised the 42d Ohio Infantry, of which he was made Colonel. His command fought one of the first actions of the war in Eastern Kentucky, in which he defeated the rebel general Humphrey. His record at Corinth, Vicksburg, Chattanooga and other hotly contested fields in the West was brilliant. In 1864 he had earned the rank of major general when he was called by the State of Ohio to represent her in the National House of Representatives. He has held his seat continually through all changes since, and has made the impression of his own personal integrity literally upon the constitution and the laws of the land which now calls him to its Chief Magistracy.

New Land Ruling.
To DISTRICT LAND OFFICERS:
GENTLEMEN:—Appended is a copy of the act approved May 14th, 1880, which changes existing laws and regulations relative to the entry of certain class of lands. The first section provides "That when a pre-emption, homestead or timber culture claimant shall file a written relinquishment of his claim in the local land office, the land covered by such claim shall be held as open to settlement and entry without further action on the part of the commissioner of the General Land Office."
This will be held to apply only to relinquishments which are filed subsequent to date of said act, viz., May 14th, 1880.
You are instructed to accept or act in any relinquishment, unless made before you, which has not been duly subscribed by its claimant on the back of his duplicate receipt, acknowledged, witnessed and executed in a manner which, under the laws of the State or Territory in which land is situated, would be sufficient as a valid transfer of real estate. In cases of the loss of a duplicate receipt or declaratory statement, an affidavit of such loss must accompany the written relinquishment.

Whereabouts of Actors.
James Barrows is playing at the Baldwin.
Miss Dargon is giving readings in Australia.
Lawrence P. Barrett will spend his summer at Cohasset, Mass.
Adelaide Neilson, the "divine Adelaide," is now in San Francisco.
Harry Gates and Miss Hattie Moore are singing at the Tivoli in San Francisco.
Geo. D. Chaplin, the well known actor, is rapidly convalescing at St. Vincent Hospital.
Wilhelm, the violinist, has made $16,000 this season under the skillful management of Henry Wolfson.
Miss Agnes Proctor and Miss Octavia Allen have been engaged to support Thos. W. Keene next season.
Miss Jeffreys-Lewis took a farewell benefit at the Baldwin Theater last Friday night. She appeared in "Camille."
Mr. Theodore Thomas has engaged passage for Europe. He proposes to pay a long visit to Wagner, the great German composer.
Thomas Whiffen is playing at Madison Square Theater, New York. Blanche Galton, his wife, is engaged in the same company.
Mr. Sothorn's new play, by W. S. Gilber, is completed, and will probably be produced at the Park Theater, New York, early next season.
Burton Hill took a benefit last Wednesday evening at the California Theater. Among those who volunteered were Sam Pierce and Miss Josie Cameron.
E. A. Southern, W. J. Florence, John McCullough and Mary Anderson are the principal artists who have volunteered to act for the approaching benefit to John T. Raymond in Booth's Theater, but there will be a host of lesser lights.
Miss Ada Cavendish has arrived in London, after her absence of twenty months in this country, during which time she acted in all the principal cities in the United States and Canada—from New York to Portland, Oregon, and from Montreal to San Francisco. Her career was attained by some annoying vicissitudes, but also by many brilliant successes.

Two shepherd boys of Hungary, aged ten and twelve respectively, committed suicide by jumping hand in hand off the bridge of the Maros river. They had been warned and reproved and finally threatened punishment by the watchman for repeatedly allowing their sheep to stray on the line of the railway, which seemed to terrify them so that they deliberately planned and executed suicide.

Their comparative excellence is recognized by the fact that they are the only organs which have been awarded the highest prize ever assembled.
"The B. SHONINGER ORGAN CO.'s exhibit at the Centennial Exhibition in Philadelphia, is the best instrument ever assembled, containing many desirable improvements, which will stand longer in dry or damp climates, less liable to get out of order, all the boards being made three-ply, put together so it is impossible for them to either curl, swell or split." THE ONLY ORGANS AWARDED THIS HONOR.
This Medal and Award was granted after the most severe competition of the best makers, before one of the most competent Jurors ever assembled.
New Styles and prices just issued, which are in accordance with our rule, the BEST ORGAN FOR THE LEAST MONEY.
