MISCELLANEOUS.

BES BUTLER is now at Salt Lake, entertained by the Mormons, on his way to San Francisco. The Saints regard him as their true friend. He goes to defend Kalloch.

The miners' strike at Leadville seems to be about over. Business men are organizing a committee of safety.

WORD from the Cascades is that the work goes steadily on at the locks. The water is in the canal already cut, but they have scows on which they place the machinery, and by that means carry on the work.

ONCE upon a time a certain man got mad at the editor and stopped his paper. The next week he sold his corn four cents below the market price.
