

The Coast Mail.

MARSHFIELD, OREGON.

Thursday, March 13, 1884

The steamer is expected Sunday next.

Miss Susan Lander is at Seattle, W. T.

H. P. Whitney started to Roseburg last Sunday.

The passenger train is again running on time on the Isthmus railway.

Miss Charlotte Vanderburgh is having good success with her school at Kentuck slough.

The Herald says A. L. Nozler is spoken of as a candidate for assessor on the republican ticket.

John Dixon of Douglas county recently had 60 head of fine merino sheep killed by panthers.

L. Hacker has sold the Lolure residence property to Mrs. John S. Smith. Consideration, $1,300.

Last week Geo. Woodruff of this place was visiting his daughter at Myrtle creek, Douglas county.

David Young has sold his rafting gear to Matt. Hiltrom, and the business is now carried on by Wolf & Hiltrom.

The next meeting of the ladies' sewing society of this place will be held at Eugene O'Connell's residence on the 24th inst.

We are indebted to Mrs. J. A. Egenhoff and Miss Annie Webster for a large sample of a nice luscious trout that they caught in North Coos river last Friday.

D. F. Gould of the Marshfield Golden drug store is going on a visit to San Francisco by next steamer. S. Watson will fill Gould's place at the store during his absence.

As Sunbeams diffuse light and warmth wherever they penetrate, so is the delicate beauty of the Empire City drug store "Sunbeam Tea" felt all over the house it is infused in.

The China Camp creek bridge was completed last week. If the Coquille comes up with their end there will be a good wagon road between this place and Coquille City this summer.

Trout fishing was never better at Green Farin's than it is now. Yesterday we received from Green a substantial notification of the fact in the form of a dozen as nice trout as ever snapped at a fly.

Smith Brothers received by the Emma Uter a new wagon that they propose to use in their milk business. If the patronage will justify it, they intend running the wagon to Newport and Empire.

P. Flanagan, superintendent of the Newport mine, arrived at Roseburg last week, where he tarried a few days, visiting his daughter, Mrs. T. R. Sheridan. He intended starting home Monday, and no doubt is at Newport now.

Capt. Baker of the schooner Truckee was brandishing a pistol at Bandon a few days ago, when Larry Dunn caught the weapon by the muzzle, at which moment the trigger was pulled and Dunn had one of his thumbs shot off.

At a meeting of the directors of this school district, held last week, S. A. Arrington tendered his resignation as principal of the public school, the resignation to take effect at the end of this term, which will close this month. Another principal will be employed and another term of public school will begin next month.

The last steamer brought word to North Bend to suspend operations on the tug that orders had been issued to build there. The keel had been hauled up and the molds prepared, but this was the extent to which the work had been carried. The other vessel remains under the shed and all the carpenters have been paid off and sent away.

Last Monday afternoon the little four-year-old son of C. E. Houser of Daniel's creek had a large portion of his right thumb cut off so completely that it hung by only a small part of the skin. At the time the accident occurred the boy and another child were chopping with a small ax, but as to which one inflicted the cut seems to be unknown. The thumb was at once bandaged and the boy was brought to town as quickly as possible and placed in charge of Drs. Golden & McCormac within three or four hours after the accident. They expect to save the thumb.

What is that which cures and sustains life when other things fail? Sunshine. But even on dark days, and when the mind feels despondent, there is an article which will take the place of sunshine, and that is "Sunbeam Tea." What is "Sunbeam Tea"? It is a brand of absolutely pure, natural leaf Japan Tea, of unexcelled bouquet and powerful stimulating virtues, now being imported direct from Japan by Henry Sengstacken for his Empire City drug store. The fact that it can only be bought in Perfection Tea Cans is proof positive that it is just as it left the sunny shores of the Orient.

Western Union telegraph rates have been reduced. A message of 10 words can be sent from the bay to the eastern states for $1, instead of $1.50 and $1.25, as heretofore. To Washington territory and some places in this state the rates have been reduced from $1 to 75 cents. Half of night rates have been abolished except as to this coast and Utah territory. To Portland they are 50 cents, instead of 75; to Roseburg, 25, instead of 40. To San Francisco rates remain $1, as heretofore, but 10 words can be sent to any place in the United States for $1, with 7 cents for each additional word.

The prominent disaffection at Newport now seems to be in regard to school matters. The married miners have been paying an assessment of $1 and single men an assessment of 50 cents per month for school purposes. The way in which this fund has been disbursed has not been made plain to them and they now insist upon an accounting that they can consist of, and also upon having a voice in the matter concerning with the money they pay. Some think the affairs of the district have not been conducted according to the rules and regulations of the amended school law, and if the law has been and is to be ignored, trouble is ahead for the violators.

A deplorable accident occurred at the residence of Wm. McKnight in this place Wednesday afternoon of last week, which resulted in the death of D. J. McLaughlin's little girl about 17 months old. A small can of hot lard had been placed upon a table in the pantry adjoining the kitchen, when the child, unobserved, went and pulled the can over in such a way that the grease flowed upon the right side of the child's head, face, neck, breast and arm, burning it in a shocking manner. Dr. Tower was immediately called in and rendered all possible relief to the little sufferer, but brain fever soon supervened and Sunday morning the child died. Little Stella was a sprightly, charming child, the idol of her parents and relatives and dearly beloved by all who had ever listened to her innocent prattle. In her little basket, surrounded by wreaths and bouquets of beautiful flowers, the child was the very image of a pretty wax doll of large size. She was buried at this place Tuesday afternoon. Rev. A. R. Bickenback officiating at the services. In their irreparable loss the family have the heartfelt sympathy of the whole community.

Alexander Committed for Fifteen Days.

Last Thursday Justice Hyde committed Robert Alexander to the county jail for 15 days, to await the arrival of an officer or the settlement of the question as to whether he be Cicero Grime or not.

The last steamer brought a letter from J. B. Hume, Wells, Fargo & Co's special officer, to Henry Sengstacken, their agent here, giving an accurate description of Grime. Alexander answers this description so completely that the opinion generally prevails that he is Grime, but we are not of those who so believe. If he were Grime, it seems to us he would have employed an attorney and made an effort for liberty as soon as possible after his arrest, for if he be the man wanted, the longer he remains in custody and the more the matter is canvassed the worse it becomes for him.

October 11, 1882, says Hume, Grime was placed in the Arizona penitentiary at Yuma, to serve 18 years. Soon after this he showed signs of insanity, and July 9, 1883, he was sent to the insane asylum at Stockton, Cal. On the night of September 6, 1883, he escaped from the asylum. Wells, Fargo & Co. offered a reward of $100 for his arrest and delivery to Hume at any jail in the country. It is now known that his insanity was feigned for the purpose of escaping. His wife and children are near Willits', or Little Lake, Mendocino county, Cal. He has a sister, Mrs. Matilda Skelton, at or near Letona, Linn county, Or., and another sister, Mrs. Lapp, on Coos bay. Hume says he has reason to believe that Mrs. Lapp was recently confined, that Mrs. Skelton was present at her confinement, and that Cicero Grime was there on the 5th of February.

An officer from Arizona, who can identify Grime, is expected to put in an appearance by next steamer and settle the question.

Alexander worked a few days for Henry Huden at the soda works. After his incarceration at Empire, Alexander sent a note to Huden asking him to telegraph to Lucy Alexander, his sister, at Seattle, W. T., to assist in establishing the identity and innocence of the prisoner. Huden's dispatch elicited the following answer:

SEATTLE, W. T., March 7.—H. Huden: Robert Alexander has dark complexion; slight mustache; dark complexion; eyes gray; age about 23; about 5 feet 7 inches tall; compact build; ask 7 questions wired you yesterday; father, Wm. Alexander; mother dead; two brothers—Frank and John; of course he is Robert Alexander or he would not telegraph to Lucy. JAS. ALEXANDER, his uncle.

Huden answered this dispatch, asked for a better description of Alexander, and afterwards received the following:

SEATTLE, W. T., March 9.—H. Huden: Broad, flat face; nose thin and long; mouth not large; lips thin; open slightly when talking; slight mustache; dark complexion; eyes gray; age about 23; about 5 feet 7 inches tall; compact build; ask 7 questions wired you yesterday; father, Wm. Alexander; mother dead; two brothers—Frank and John; of course he is Robert Alexander or he would not telegraph to Lucy. JAS. ALEXANDER, his uncle.

The above description is applicable to the man in jail, and if he be Cicero Grime, we are mistaken; but we believe, as Hume says, that Grime has been here, and he may be here yet.

Following is the description taken of Grime at his commitment to the Yuma prison October 11, 1882; Reads and writes; native of Arkansas; convicted of robbery; sentenced to 18 years; aged 34 years; photographer by occupation; 5 feet 5 inches high; light complexion; blue eyes; light-brown hair; small, round ears; very small feet; wears a No. 3 or 4 boot; moles all over the small of his back; wart on left side of stomach; very hairy breast; three moles on same; vaccine scar on left arm; scar on left knee, about an inch long; moles all over back of right arm; broad across the hips; pleasant features and quiet and active in his movements.

Experts claim that the foregoing description is that of Alexander, and it was on this that Justice Hyde held him.

Democratic County Convention.

The democratic voters of Coos county are hereby requested to meet at the usual places of voting in the various precincts on Saturday, the 5th day of April, 1884, at 1 o'clock p. m., and select delegates to attend a county convention, which is hereby called to meet at Coquille City on Friday, the 11th day of April, 1884, at 10 o'clock a. m., for the purpose of nominating one candidate for the state senate, one representative, candidates for all the county offices excepting county judge, four delegates to the democratic state convention, and for the transaction of such other business as may come before the convention. The convention will consist of 47 members, apportioned among the various precincts on the ratio of one delegate for every 20 votes, and one delegate for every fractional part thereof over one-half, cast for J. S. Smith for governor in 1882, and one delegate for each precinct at large, which will give the several precincts the following representation:

Bandon.....2
Beaver Slough.....2
Brewster Valley.....1
Burton Prairie.....1
Coos River.....1
Coos City.....2
Coquille City.....3
Coquille.....3
Empire City.....3
Enchantment Prairie.....2
Democracy are urgently requested to attend the primaries April 5, 1884, and, if possible, select delegates who will attend the county convention in person. By order of the democratic county committee, dated March 5, 1884.

WM. HALL, Chairman.

Charles A. Winchester died at his residence in this place last Sunday morning. His death was not unexpected, as he had been a victim of consumption for several years and his physician had abandoned all hope of his rallying several days before death relieved him of the severe pains of his last hours. Charley came to the bay in 1857, when a lad 12 years of age, and grew to manhood among this people, where he leaves a host of warm friends to mourn his untimely end. His widow and four orphan children, in their affliction, have the sympathy of all who know the kind and affectionate husband and father that has been taken from them by the inexorable hand of Death. The remains were interred at Empire City last Monday. A vast concourse of friends and relatives participated in the obsequies, conducted by Rev. A. R. Bickenback.

Henry Huden's soda business in this place has assumed such vast proportions that he has deemed it expedient to take in a partner, and David Young has purchased a half interest. The business here will run right along, just as if nothing had happened, but Huden contemplates branching out and making things pop in another locality as soon as he has educated Young to the perfection point in manufacturing the effervescent fluid for which Huden is celebrated far and near. What Huden does not understand about the soda business is hardly worth knowing, and wherever he puts a plant the people can depend upon receiving a better article than they ever tasted before, unless it was of his make.

If you want to hire or buy a small boat, apply to David F. Gould, the gentlemanly clerk at the Marshfield Golden drug store. He can fit you out in the boat business to perfection.

W. J. Butler, the accomplished clerk at the Coos Bay drug store, was made glad last week by the arrival of his wife and child by steamer.

South Coos River Items.

To the Editor of the COAST MAIL:

W. H. Noble was on the river a few days ago, engaging a large number of piles to raft to San Francisco.

O. H. Flook and Ren Smith lately came in over the Coos bay wagon road. They pronounce it in an almost impassable condition, and in their judgment the stage will not run before the 1st of July. Ren is feeling and looking much better than when he left seven weeks ago.

Mrs. Nathan Smith, who has been confined to her bed for several days with a severe attack of the prevalent influenza, is now convalescent.

Frank Rogers lately sheared his flock of Angora goats. He proposes to show the farmers on Coos river that there is money in something besides fat stock and cheese. The wool is very valuable, but the yield of Frank's flock is not enormous. He has not made any shipments yet, but soon will, as he has the fleeces of several years nicely stowed away in a shot sack in the top of the barn.

As soon as the weather settles Harvey Smith will start for the Cour-d'Alene mines. His outfit, such as shovels, bars, pans, etc., will not cost him much, as he has a pick.

Trout are biting lively and good anglers are having rare sport.

Dr. Hodson has been quite ill for some time.

The annual meeting for school district No. 7 was held at Quinn college last Monday. S. C. Rogers was elected director, in opposition to J. W. Judd, the up-river candidate. The nominations for clerk were A. Smith, John Voiklam and Anson Rogers. The contest for the clerkship was the only thing that created much excitement. It was evident at the start that Smith would make a hot run, but Rogers was elected by a small majority. In a few well-aimed remarks, Rogers thanked the electors for the honor conferred. Harmony prevailed through out the proceedings.

MERCURY.

South Coos river, March 9, 1884.

J. G. Richards has concluded to not wait for the steamer and has engaged passage for himself and family on the schooner Emma Uter, which vessel is expected to sail about next Saturday. Mr. Richards has been one of the substantial and useful citizens of the bay since June 11, 1875, and when he and his family go away they will carry with them the good wishes of this entire community for their future happiness and prosperity, in whatever locality their lines may be cast. June 11, 1875, Mr. Richards arrived at this place on the steamer Empire. He entered the service of E. B. Dean & Co. that same day and worked for them until September of that year, when he accepted a situation at Henryville with the C. B. O. coal company, where he remained six months, after which he returned to this place, built his house, and again went to work for Dean & Co., as millwright and builder, continuing in their employ until last week, when he resigned the foremanship of their mill, which position he held for the three years preceding his resignation. Mr. Richards will accompany his family as far east as Cincinnati, from which place his wife and three of the children will proceed to Livonia, New York, while he and his son William will go into southern Kentucky and middle Tennessee, to inspect the coal, iron and timber resources there awaiting development. If Mr. Richards be favorably impressed with the outlook east, he will remain there and engage in business; but if he be not pleased with the appearance of things he will return to this coast.

Sue Quong is to be prosecuted in the circuit court for having capitulated and married a maiden under sweet 16, contrary to the statute. Lee Wing, Quong's father-in-law, has been collecting an assessment of 50 per cent from his gang. At first we thought this was to raise a fund to pay the highlanders for killing Quong, but now it seems it is for the purpose of feigning lawyers. There will be no cessation of hostilities as long as the Chinese can raise the sinews of war. This week Siglin & Gray received a document from Crescent City, Cal., signed by Jas. E. Murphy, superior judge; W. H. Otis, sheriff, and F. Burschell, merchant, certifying, partly on knowledge and partly on information obtained from white men, that Tie Tie is only 15 years old. This is considered a strong document in the prosecution of Quong. It is intimated that some white people, among them an attorney, may also be prosecuted for advising, aiding and abetting Quong and Tie Tie in violating the law. If the prosecutors have the case they claim to have, it might rebound to their credit, for it now looks altogether too much like a Chinese racket for spoils, and carrying it over the United States commissioner did not divert it of any of its taint.

At Floras creek, three or four weeks ago, J. P. Russell, while loading a Remington rifle, had the thumb of his left hand badly injured by the explosion of one of the cartridges, the charge of which entered the ball of the hand and plowed its way to the wrist. The physician who was called to dress the wound tied it up and trusted to providence for the consequences. After suffering a great deal of pain and becoming skillful that his case demanded the services of a skilled surgeon, Russell came to the bay and had Drs. Golden & McCormac examine his hand. The upper joint and bones of the thumb had been injured to an extent that rendered amputation necessary, and last Sunday the doctors took the thumb off. Russell is now as comfortable as could be expected and will in a few weeks have a well hand, minus the thumb.

At a meeting of the trustees of the First Baptist Church association of this place, held last week, J. G. Richards resigned as one of the trustees and as president of the building committee. E. F. Cook was chosen as Mr. Richards' successor in both places. Last week Mr. Richards received from the American Home Mission society $500 for the benefit of the church in this place. The money was paid over to E. B. Dean & Co., treasurers. To-day the church is free from debt; it has, bought and paid for, enough lumber to floor and eel the building, and the subscriptions due are more than sufficient to put in the seats and finish the structure in proper style.

Suits brought by H. H. Luse, in the United States court at Portland, against the following-named citizens of this place for possession of disputed property, have been dismissed by stipulation: A. Nasburg, A. Raine, Geo. Blood, H. R. Reed, Thos. Hirst, Geo. Guy, W. G. Webster, L. Martin, L. M. Noble, G. Webster, O. Ralston, O. E. Smith, Wm. Reichert, Frank Lingren, Geo. Raymond, R. Millage, J. J. Caulfield, D. Young, J. Osborne, John Kenyan, C. B. Golden, Wm. Lind, Geo. Stauff, Catherine Swigle, C. W. Lowe, I. Hacker and Nasburg & Webster. Cases against a number of other citizens have been set for trial at this term of court.

Deputy United States Marshal Wetsell returned from Portland last Thursday. Sue Quong came with Wetsell as far as Gardiner, where Quong stopped to visit some of his countrymen. He came home Saturday. As we predicted would be the result, the case was at once dismissed after being carried to the United States court at Portland. On his way home Quong met Siglin at Drain's. Quong says Siglin invited him to take a walk in the woods. He respectfully declined the invitation and politely told Siglin to go to hades with his highlanders.

Arrivals and Departures by Steamer.

The Arcata arrived on the 5th with the following list of passengers: Mrs. W. J. Butler and child, Mrs. H. H. Tyrrell and children, F. M. Langley, A. Bancroft, Capt. Jas. Hill and wife, Capt. Larsen, wife and family and eight in the steerage.

The steamer sailed on Saturday, with the following-named passengers: A. Boyce, W. Nottley, M. Williams, Henry Barg, L. Liehman, H. L. Jurell, F. Cohn and Richard Venier.

The Plafunder now announces that Hon. J. C. Fullerton will not allow the use of his name before the republican state convention for congressional honors. Fullerton favors Hon. Bingger Hermann of Roseburg, whom he believes to possess the ability to represent the interests of this section of the state with justice to himself and advantage to his constituents. The Jacksonville Sentinel speaks highly of Hermann and says that he can have a solid support from southern Oregon in case he consents to the use of his name before the convention.

E. A. Anderson's son Herbert came near being killed by a bucking horse that he was riding from this place to Empire one evening last week. The horse fell upon the boy, but his father and Henry Rhodes extricated him unharmed, though the calf was entirely too close for comfort for the boy while it lasted.

Joseph Dame is preparing to devote his place at Hall's prairie exclusively to the dairying business. The Herald says V. N. Perry of Coquille City will soon move to Dame's place and take charge of his business.

One by one the county clerks follow Alex. Stauff's example and announce that they will this year issue licenses to lady applicants free of charge. The clerk of Douglas county fell into line last week.

The Plafunder says Al. McKenlie, late of Drain's station, died in Washington territory last week.

The democrats of Alabama have just begun to realize the danger that threatens their party from the growth of protective sentiments. The Industrial League of that state is circulating for signatures a paper which contains this declaration: "We believe it to be the first duty of every true Alabamian to lend his influence to the perpetuation of a policy (protection) which bears within it the germs of an enduring prosperity." The circular is indorsed by the Birmingham Age, a democratic paper, and the Selma Times, also democratic, treats the manifesto of the Industrial League as evidence that the protectionists propose to elect a protectionist governor, and right protectionist congressmen and a protectionist senator, within the democratic ranks, if possible, but outside of them if necessary.

Daniel W. Voorhes, who is pressing his bill to make it penal for office-holders to contribute to political purposes, is in favor of Payne, and on what does the Payne boom rest? Money, nothing but money. Payne has a fortune, his son has another, the Standard Oil company a store at their disposal. Tilden furnishes money at the New York end. William L. Scott, another Payne man, is not unfamiliar with the use of money in politics. William H. Barnum will be found not far from the front when it comes to carrying Connecticut for Payne by the free use of money. H. B. Payne, by the testimony of his own party, has already bought one office. The democratic party expects to aid him to buy another, through an expenditure whose like has not been seen in American politics.

Edison is getting into shape his electric locomotive and several other electric machines for a coming great international electrical exhibition to be held in Philadelphia next fall under the auspices of the Franklin institute. The key and kite string of Benjamin Franklin will be the starting point of an exhibition which will end with the Edison electric locomotive. Interesting will be the telephone, the phonograph, the telegraph key board, and every other known appliance in the electrical world—all of which sprang from Franklin's kite string and door key not so very many years ago. Franklin and Morse have passed away, but Edison and Bell are with us, and will be present at the exhibition as worthy representatives of the dead worthies.

Some "fresh" democratic organs outside of New York have been advising the party in that state to "ignore" Tammany this year. John Kelly's organ, the New York Star, strikes back with double leads. It says that "the time has arrived for blunt, frank talk." Without Tammany the democrats cannot carry New York, and without New York no democratic president can be elected. Tammany, the Star gives notice, will not be a suppliant for admission to the state convention, as it feels fully able to get along without the party as the party is to get along without it. And finally the democrats are invited to put whatever construction they please upon this language.

S. Lipman & Co., Portland merchants, have dispensed with the old style of marking goods at even figures and have introduced the system of selling at odd figures, according to cost, and of making change to a cent. This is a sensible and just move in behalf of buyers. Copper should be in circulation all over this coast. The prejudice against them, especially by the working people, is fallacious. A fair profit is all that the merchant should expect, and the correct way of doing business is to mark goods as Lipman & Co. do and make change accordingly. The sooner that system becomes general the better it will be for the public.

Dakota wants to be a state, but Dakota is going to lose its large colony of Menomones, who went there from Russia. After a comparison of notes with their brethren who settled in Kansas, they find that the latter have far surpassed in progress the Dakotas colonists. The Menomones are agriculturists of great skill. They have had ample time and opportunity to take an accurate measurement of the agricultural resources of Dakota, and the fact that they will forsake that territory in a body is full of significance.

No man has ever occupied the presidential chair with more dignity than Arthur. His constant care for the rights of all, and a strict adherence to the laws, swerving neither to the right nor left, executing vigorously every statute, have won him the good will and friendship of every member of congress, as well as of the whole people.

Coal and Lumber on the Free List.

WASHINGTON, March 6.—The house committee on ways and means has acted favorably upon the Morrison tariff bill. As agreed upon, it places salt, coal and lumber on the free list. The proviso with respect to coal is to the effect that it shall not apply to California until that country places our coal on the free list. The agreement to report the amended bill favorably was reached by a strict party vote, 7 to 5. Morrison, Mills, Mount, Blackburn, Herbert, Hurd and Jones voted in the affirmative, and Kelly, Knison, McKinley, Hissock and Russell in the negative. Hewitt was not present when the vote was taken, but it is known that he agrees with the majority and would have voted in favor of the report had he been present. Morrison will make a majority report upon the bill Monday.

It is very common in China for an official who thinks that he has offended "the powers that be" to beg that his head may be cut off. Now if some American politicians could be disposed of in the same manner, what a boom business would be!

The democrats do not want a long presidential campaign. The shorter the canvass, they think, the less time for blunders by their candidates.

SUMNER EXPRESS.

From and after this date the undersigned will run a regular express boat between Marshfield and Sumner. All business and orders entrusted to me will receive prompt attention.
JOHN RUTH,
Marshfield, Or., January 16, 1884.

NOTICE TO DEBTORS.

Persons indebted to the undersigned are requested to call at the Star saloon and settle their accounts before the 1st of March, as about that time I will retire from business, and it is absolutely necessary that persons indebted to me should square their accounts by that date.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.

Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with pain of cutting teeth? If so, send at once and get a bottle of Mrs. Winslow's SOOTHING SYRUP FOR CHILDREN TEETHING. Its value is incalculable. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Depend upon it, mothers, there is no mistake about it. It cures dysentery and diarrhoea, regulates the stomach and bowels, cures wind colic, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. Mrs. Winslow's SOOTHING SYRUP FOR CHILDREN TEETHING is pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female physicians and nurses in the United States, and is for sale by all druggists throughout the world. Price 25 cents a bottle.

BORN.

At Sumner, March —, to the wife of J. B. Dully, a son.
At Drain's station, March 1, to the wife of Frank Smith, a daughter.

MARRIED.

Near Coquille City, February 29, Levi C. Gibson to Miss Carrie Barrows.
At Roseburg, February 26, Simon McCallister to Mrs. Emma Gunn.
At Drain's station, February 25, W. E. Morris to Miss P. E. Thompson.

DIED.

At Marshfield, March 9, Charles A. Winchester, aged 39 years.
In Marshfield, March 9, Stella Catherine, only child of D. J. and Amanda McLaughlin, aged 16 months and 19 days.

I looked at her there,
So sweet and so fair,
Suffering and in bed,
With the flowers at her head,
Herself a tiny flower,
Asleep in Death's great bowler.

The scalding tears are shed,
For their Stella dead,
What a life's great battle
To miss her baby prattle
And to see the vacant place,
All for want of baby face!

Then I thought of the toil you see
Front which those hands were free—
Those little hands so white—
I see them as I write—
The little bouquet and all,
O, it was a Savior's call,
For He loves just such as die,
And her kindest friend will be. E. A. H.
