The Militia South

Without attributing anything intimated to the Militia in the declaration in charge of a 'free labor' agitation, I am not unaware of the fact that the Militia has been and still is an instrumentality by which a labor agitation is conducted. It is quite true that there are some on the ground (as I have said) that the Militia is being used by the labor agitators, but there is not a single instance of that being the case. There is no evidence that the Militia is used for any purpose except the maintenance of order and for the protection of life and property. In the presence of a labor agitation, the Militia is not used for the purpose of intimidating the agitators, but for the purpose of maintaining order and for the protection of life and property.
