For the best cigar in the market—the Delomo—go to Blanco Drug Store.

Choice Sicily Oranges, by the dozen or box, at Sengstacken's Drug Store.

Last Saturday W. B. Curtis of this place sold to A. McNair, for $2000, the

Wm. Hirst farm, near Myrtle Point.

The base-ballists of Coaledo are organizing to challenge, play and beat the Coquille City club on the 4th of July.

Note paper, letter paper, foolscap and legal-cap, and everything in the stationery and blank book line at greatly reduced prices at Golden's.

Dr. McCormac gives notice this week that there will be an examination of teachers at this place and Coquille City on the fourth Saturday of this month.

Phillips Bros. of the South Coquille

drove out over the Coos bay wagon road

this week about 100 head of fine beef cattle, destined, we believe, for various markets in the valley.

Subscriptions for "Happy Hours" taken at Blanco Drug Store. A 16-page monthly magazine, four large chromos and two valuable prizes—your choice out of 12—for $1 per year.

Charley Rogers' little boy received a fall on some steps at Southport last Tuesday and had a large gash cut in his forehead, which rendered it advisable to bring the child to town and have the wound sewed up by Dr. Golden.

R. Millidge had an ox killed at his camp on North Coos river last Saturday. A log ran into the team when it was on a down grade and one of the swing oxen was crowded into a treetop and killed by having its back broken.

By far the largest and most varied stock of cigars on the bay is to be found at Golden's Drug Store. Among his latest additions are the "Flora" and "Good Companion," both PURE HAVANA FILLERS, five-inch hand-made goods, and unequalled anywhere else, at 3 for 25c.

Elder F. D. Holman of Seattle, W. T., preached two able and interesting sermons at the Baptist church in this place last Sunday, morning and evening. Mr. Holman is a brother of the late Mrs. J. L. Clinckbeard, and he arrived here last week, on a visit to relatives. He left Monday, on his way back to Seattle, intending to go by way of the Coquille and thence to Ashland.

Last week Capt. C. E. Edwards purchased the old boiler and engine of the steamer Myrtle and took them to Myrtle Point, for use in his furniture factory. In transshipping the boiler at Uter City, Edwards had his foot caught in such a way that his ankle was badly sprained, and he started home with one boot in his hand, a cane in the other, and a limp and a look to bade with old boilers.

Upon the advent of the new steamer Arago at Gardiner Wednesday of last week the people of the place gave a grand ball in honor of Capt. Holt and his vessel and all hands had a royal time that night. The Arago, with her guests, returned to the bay Thursday, after which she went to the bunker for her cargo of coal, but did not get away from there until Friday and did not sail for San Francisco until Saturday.

Among the express freight that went down by the steamer Coos Bay this week was a young bear, six or eight weeks old. It came from Coquille City, and was consigned by J. P. Easter to John B. Easter at Burlingame, Osage county, Kansas. The value placed upon the cub was $25, but by the time Wells, Fargo & Co. got through with it and it reaches Easter it will cost him its weight in gold, or thereabouts.

K. K. Caldwell, deputy grand chief templar for the district of Coos and Curry counties, reports the temperance cause as in a very prosperous condition at Coquille City, and he has authorized us to say that he would be pleased to visit this place and organize a lodge of Good Templars here, provided some good people will take the matter in hand and extend to him an invitation to do so. Mr. Caldwell is very enthusiastic in the good work and hits the key-note when he says that it only needs the right kind of people to take hold of it to make it a success.

Mrs. H. Hammersley and Miss Grace Hammersley, who arrived by the last Coos Bay, are from Cleveland, Ohio, and Mrs. Hammersley is a sister-in-law of our esteemed fellow-citizens Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Cook, whom she is visiting. Hammersley is a prominent railroad official at Cleveland, who has a desire to locate on this coast, and before returning to the east Mrs. Hammersley expects to make an extended tour of this state, Washington territory and California, to satisfy herself and be able to make a definite report to her husband as to the advisability of coming west to tide-water.

E. A. Elfrandt, a former resident of this place, was a passenger up by the last Coos Bay, and spent Sunday afternoon, Monday and a part of Tuesday on the bay, in shaking hands with a multitude of friends, all of whom were delighted to meet him in the enjoyment of robust health and evident prosperity. About two years and a half ago Elfrandt went from this place to Washington territory and located on the Chehalis river, above Gray's harbor, and he is now a resident of Montesano, where he owns a half interest in a prosperous tannery, in connection with the business of which he went to San Francisco about three weeks ago. He is now on his way home and went to Gardiner on the tug Fearless last Tuesday, expecting to spend a few days with friends there and at Scottsburg and Elktion, after which he will return to Montesano, via Portland.

A strong feeling in favor of making a race track at this place has taken possession of some of our enterprising citizens fond of such sport and they are now moving in the matter in a manner calculated to meet with success. At the time we went to press last night a meeting was in session to organize a jockey club and a ways and means committee to take charge of the business. If the proper men be placed at the head of the enterprise, we feel confident a location for a good track can be secured on Dean & Co's marsh south of town and that ample funds can be raised to make the course a perfect one. A good race track would be a good thing for this place, and every man in business would win by it, even if he should not be a cent; therefore they should encourage the formation of a jockey club and the making of a course close to town.

Fruit Jars at lowest prices at Golden's.

Gold Pens and Penholders at Blanco Drug Store.

For the genuine Henry Clay Cigars, go to Sengstacken's Drug Stores.

Miss Nellie Noble's return from the Sisters' school at Salem is expected daily.

Report says S. A. Arrington and wife will leave Roseburg for this place tomorrow.

For Fruit Jars and Jelly Glasses, at bed-rock prices, go to Sengstacken's Drug Store.

Window glass greatly reduced in price at Golden's Drug Store. Also points, oils and painters' materials.

Yesterday the Henryville mine had been freed of water and Superintendent Phillips expects to soon be hoisting coal for shipment.

The steamer Coos Bay cleaned the coal from the Caledonia bunker this trip, and in addition took 50 cords of wood from this place and Empire.

Golden has, at last, received that eastern tobacco, so much inquired after. Try it before the first lot is gone. It will prove equal to its representations.

When we went to press yesterday their had been no news received of the sailing the Arcata, and she was supposed to be on the dry-dock, undergoing repairs.

That Port and Sherry Wine at Golden's Drug Store are extra prime. His fine liquors and brandies are the best to be found for medicinal purposes. Low grades can be supplied, also, if desired.

Have you tried a bottle of El Dorado Mineral Water? If not, don't hesitate, as you will find it the cheapest and most effective general renovator of the system. Only 50 cents per quart bottle, at Blanco Drug Store.

Eugene O'Connell calls the attention of sportsmen to the new supply of rifles just received at his hardware store. The invoice includes the Remington, Ballard, Colt, Kennedy and Winchester, and they are selling at astonishingly low prices.

Mrs. Etta Pendergrass and Miss Hattie Dyer came in from the valley last Monday night. Mrs. Pendergrass is now a resident of Philomath, Benton county, and is here on a visit to her father and mother and other relatives, while Miss Hattie is home on her vacation from the Sisters' school at Salem.

Last Monday Dr. McCormac, county school superintendent, went to the Coquille to visit the schools in that locality. It now behooves teachers to put their houses in order, for the doctor is camping on their trails, and they knoweth not the day nor the hour at which he may swoop down upon them.

Last Monday Dr. Tower, Andrew Nasburg and Andrew Lockhart returned from their trip to Salem and Portland—Tower and Nasburg delighted with their experience at the Masonic grand lodge and Lockhart confident that DeLauny will be pardoned at a special meeting of the board called for next Monday.

Lando & Son, of the XLNT cash store, have just received an immense stock of boys' and youths' clothing, direct from the east, that they are selling cheaper than anything of the kind has ever before been sold on the bay. Now is the time to dress your boy at the XLNT for a song and ring it yourself.

The citizens of Coos county may rest assured that Golden, at the old Marshfield Drug Store—the oldest and best-known drug store in town—will not allow himself to be undersold by any one, on anything in his line. His stock is large and varied and the public may invariably rely on courteous treatment and every advantage that painstaking and a desire to please can suggest.

Geo. Gestrein, who was accidentally shot at this place several weeks ago and afterwards became a county charge, has been discharged. He gave to the county a note for about $38, the amount of his board bill at Mrs. Stora's while he was disabled. This is a precedent that should be followed hereafter, for every young man who becomes an expense to the county through his own foolishness has no right to refuse to reimburse it.

Speaking of the course of Cleveland, Senator Logan says: "The action of the president on civil service is both surprising and humiliating. If the president doesn't know, he should have somebody about him who does. A man who assumes to hew close to the line of civil service reform should try and find out before appointing a man to an important public office whether he had ever served a term in the penitentiary, or whether or not he was a common drunkard."

A strong feeling in favor of making a race track at this place has taken possession of some of our enterprising citizens fond of such sport and they are now moving in the matter in a manner calculated to meet with success. At the time we went to press last night a meeting was in session to organize a jockey club and a ways and means committee to take charge of the business.
