The Coast Mail.

MARSHFIELD, OREGON:

Thursday, : : : : : November 5, 1885

The bar was rough yesterday and the Arcata failed to get out.

Something new in the candy line; don't fail to try it; at New Variety store.

Last week Geo. W. Beale trapped two bears in the sand-hills adjacent to North slough.

The wires wouldn't work yesterday and we have nothing from the eastern elections.

David I. DeLannay and family departed for California last Saturday by the steamer Arago.

S. B. Cathcart has completed the bridge at Marlow creek. It is pronounced a good one.

Salt salmon were selling in San Francisco last week at $6.47 for barrels and $3.50 for half barrels.

John Lewis and family of Bandon arrived on the bay Monday, to take passage on the Arcata, en route for the east.

The Arago brought the new bell for the Baptist church. It is a great improvement on the old one, both in size and tone.

Postmaster Brown informs us that he will hereafter keep the postoffice in this place open on Sundays from 8 till 10 o'clock a. m.

The man who found that valuable fishing rod that Metcalf lost soon after he came here can now bring it out and use it; Metcalf's gone.

There will be Episcopal services at Empire next Sunday at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m., and at Newport at 3 p. m., Rev. W. Lund officiating.

In addition to her usual cargo of coal, the Arcata took to San Francisco this trip a quantity of staves from the mill here and 100 barrels of salt salmon from Schetter & Co's slaughter-house.

Jas. Harrington had the back of his right hand severely cut at the Henryville mine last Thursday by the falling of a sharp rock from the roof of the room in which he was mining coal.

Trial proves that honesty is the best policy in medicine as well as in other things. Ayer's Sarsaparilla is a genuine preparation, an unequalled blood purifier, decidedly superior to all others.

Crawford won the house that he and Levar built, and Percy gives it up without a grumble. When he makes an agreement of that kind his word is as good as his deed, when the other fellow gets married first.

Among the freight carried away by the steamer Coos Bay this week were 105 tons of coal from the Henryville mine, about 40 cords of firewood, 200 barrels of salt salmon, and some stove bolts from Empire.

Dr. R. C. Hunter's family left this place last Tuesday for Myrtle Creek, Douglas county, where it is probable the doctor will organize a lodge of United Workmen and a council of United Friends, if he meets with sufficient encouragement.

Hon. C. B. Watson left the bay last Friday, to take up his residence at Portland and practice law. Before proceeding to Portland he will visit his family at Ashland, to which place they went a few weeks ago. During Mr. Watson's residence here he made a host of friends, who wish him unbounded success in his new field.

The double wedding—Matt. Stora, jr., and Miss Henrietta Lackstrom, and Henry Keino and Miss Mary Viklund—took place at Sengstacken and Smith's hall last Saturday evening, in the presence of a large number of invited guests. After the ceremony had been performed wine and cake were freely passed, and the affair terminated with a grand dance.

Charley Zumwalt is to succeed F. A. Stewart as deputy collector of customs at Port Orford. Nearly all the democrats in Curry county wanted the place, and now there will be weeping, wailing and gnashing of teeth among those who got left. There is not as much harmony among the democracy of southern Oregon now as there was before they had any spoils to divide.

The old steamer Satellite, which Geo. Davis has on the ways at the ship-yard, has been put in order for her voyage to the Coquille and she is now ready to launch, but it is not probable that Capt. Parker will take her around to the river before spring. When the Satellite leaves the ways Davis will haul up the hull of the old tug Sol Thomas, which he lately bought of Simpson Bros., with a view of transforming it into a schooner.

The officers of the steamer Coos Bay say the coal from the Henryville mine is far superior for steam purposes to any other coal yet used on that vessel. The round trip between this place and San Francisco is now made with from 38 to 40 tons of Henryville coal, whereas from 55 to 60 tons of other coal was formerly consumed. The demand for Henryville coal at San Francisco is said to greatly exceed the supply. This should stimulate the opening of the mine to its full capacity as speedily as possible.

The donation party at the parsonage on South Coos river on the evening of the 24th ult. was a success, persons from all parts of the neighborhood coming in and bringing with them a little of almost everything in the way of edibles. After spending a few pleasant hours the party retired, well pleased with their evening's work. Rev. J. G. Mosher himself being absent, his family wish to tender their gratitude to the people of South Coos river for their various gifts, amounting in the aggregate to about $30.

The Accident at Henryville.

The explosion at the Henryville mine Wednesday morning of last week, and mentioned in our last issue, resulted in the serious burning of John Harwood and John Bowron, while John Wilson had his right hand severely burned.

Harwood is the greatest sufferer. His head, face, neck, hands and arms, below the elbows, are badly burned. All the hair of his head was burned off. For a time his recovery was considered very doubtful, but now Dr. McCormac, who has been unremitting in his attendance upon the unfortunate men, entertains strong hopes of saving Harwood.

John Bowron was burned in a similar manner to Harwood, but not so badly, and no fears as to his recovery have been at any time entertained. He is convalescing rapidly.

Eight other men were at work in the mine at the time, but they were on the other side of the gangway and escaped without injury.

The injury to Wilson's hand was such as to incapacitate him for work for a few days only, and it is probable that he has already returned to work.

At first it was thought the shaft of the mine had sustained serious damage, but such did not prove to be the case, and the delay in work at the mine was of short duration.

From the best information we have as to the cause of the explosion, it was largely due to carelessness on the part of Bowron. The men had only been in the mine a few minutes that morning and were preparing for work. Bowron had taken the Davy or safety lamp into his room, from which he had brushed the sulphur or gas, and our presumption is that he then lighted the open lamp that miners carry on their hats, after which he returned to that part of the mine where the explosion took place, for the purpose of hanging the Davy lamp in its accustomed location. The men there were at the time engaged in brushing the gas from that part of the mine, and it is said that one of them cautioned Bowron against going there with his open lamp, but the caution was not heeded, and consequently the explosion soon followed, with the results above stated.

We heard one man say that the accident was due to negligence on the part of Superintendent Phillips, but an old and experienced coal miner with whom we talked in regard to it says Phillips is not to blame at all, and that Bowron should have known better than to do as he did with the open lamp on his head.

Wilson is an experienced miner and has worked where such accidents are not so uncommon as they are here, and at the first flash of the gas he fell upon his face on the floor of the mine, putting one hand under his face and the other over the back of his neck. It was the hand that protected his neck that was burned, and it was his presence of mind that saved him from more serious injury.

The mail from Roseburg for this place does not arrive in the afternoon under the new schedule, as we were last week informed it would. The only difference between the summer and winter schedules seems to be that our eastern mails now come in about 4 a. m., instead of at about 10 p. m. under the summer schedule, and depart at 8 a. m., about an hour earlier than they did before. So far as this end of the route is concerned, the people here would have been just as well off and just as well satisfied, if the contractor had run on winter time all summer. The way the mail between this place and Roseburg ought to be carried would be for it to leave Roseburg in the evening, after the arrival of the train from Portland, and reach here the next evening. Then leave here in the morning and arrive at Roseburg the next morning in time for the Portland train. This would throw the night travel on the Roseburg end, where it ought to be, for it certainly cannot be as bad on that end as it is on this end, and thus we would be in communication with Portland in 36 hours each way, and business men at each end would have the night in which to look after correspondence that needed immediate attention. If Laird would bring about an arrangement of this kind it would improve the business of his line and be water on his wheel.

A club has been organized at Gravel Ford for the extermination of wild animals that prey upon the herds and flocks of settlers in that part of the county. Premiums will be paid for the scalps of destructive animals discovered within three miles of the premises of any member of the club, no matter if the man pursues the animal to the end of the world to get the scalp. Bears are rated at $2. None but members of the club will be permitted to participate in its premiums. At the close of the season a balance will be struck and the man who has the most valuable scalps will get the most money.

S. M. Dement is dangerously ill at Colton, Cal. He left here by steamer about a month ago, in feeble health, for the purpose of visiting southern California, with the hope of his health improving there. Last Tuesday a dispatch came to Empire directed to R. C. Dement, telling him to hasten to California if he wished to see his father alive. Eugene Schetter left immediately for Mr. Dement's residence above Myrtle Point, to deliver the dispatch and bring him down in time to take the steamer Arcata.

After the 15th inst. the schooner Parkersburg agrees to deliver freight from San Francisco at all points on the lower Coquille river at the following rates: Flour, $3; salt, nails, iron and coal, $2.50; other merchandise, $4 per ton. Work at Cape Blanco was suspended last Saturday for the season.

Coos County Immigration Society.

A mass meeting was held in Empire City on Saturday, the 31st ult., and a formal organization of the Coos County Immigration society was effected, with its office at Empire City. Following is a list of the officers elected: Dr. C. W. Tower, president; J. J. Lamb, treasurer, and Z. T. Siglin, secretary. Executive committee: O. Schetter, Marshfield; J. A. Dean, Coquille City; J. H. Roberts, Norway; Sol. Wise, Myrtle Point; Adam Pershaker, Bandon; I. Hacker, Empire City; J. B. Dully, Sumner; W. H. Holverstott, Fairview; J. S. Coke, Dora; Geo. Bennett, Bandon; S. C. Rogers, South Coos river; A. B. Camp, North Coos river, and Stephen Johnson, Ten-mile.

It is designed to publish a fine illustrated hand-book of information as to the resources and attractions of the county and to establish rooms at Empire City for the reception of immigrants, and to distribute circulars at San Francisco and points east.

It is expected that the executive committee will give any information, in its power to persons applying in the several localities represented and do all in its power to assist and welcome newcomers. Z. T. SIGLIN, Secretary. Coos County Immigration society, Empire City, Or., November 2, 1885.

A. M. Crawford, Esq., returned to the bay with his bride last Saturday afternoon and that evening they held a grand reception at Norman's hall, which was crowded with their many friends. The reception closed with an enjoyable dance to splendid music. When the boat brought Crawford and his wife reached this place in a rain-storm, and the young man inventoried the band-boxes, Saratoga trunks, etc., etc., that it became his duty to look for, he fully realized the fact that he is a married man. It was no longer as it used to be, when he could grab his grip-sack and go. Not much. A benedict can't do that, when his wife's with him on the honeymoon.

John Sherretts, of Smith river, Douglas county, has sent us a sample box of that excellent honey put up by himself and wife, and which finds a ready sale in this market. The honey is not only of the best quality, but the neat manner in which it is shipped in the comb commands it to every one who deals in the article. The box sent us could be sent around the world and return in as good condition as it started. When more of our apiarists prepare their honey for the market as Sherretts prepares his there will be less honey shipped from California, and when they all follow his example Oregon will export instead of import honey.

The second judicial district is to be constituted on its faithful and able judge, R. S. Beato. During the session of court, which is still proceeding, for this county, he has again proved himself a painstaking and eminently impartial officer. He will always have the best wishes of a host of friends in this county, upon whose acquaintance he has grown with a firm hold by his urban manners, gentlemanly qualities and loyal talents. —Roseburg Review, dem.

When Beato was a candidate the democrats urged his youth as an objection to his election. Before he was elected we said he would make a good judge. He has that metal in him, and any judge of human nature can see it cropping out.

C. Howe, the Dora nurseryman, is still in the field, soliciting orders. He has been in the business in this county for 16 years, and his reputation that he bears for uprightness and the superior fruit that his trees bear need no commendation from us. A card from him in another column tells what he has to sell and gives his prices.

At San Francisco extra choice California eggs are selling at 40¢41¢; choice, 37¢38¢; fair, 25¢30¢; Utah, 32¢34¢; eastern, 20¢25¢. per dozen. Oregon is not quoted, because we cannot keep the home market supplied, and import instead of exporting eggs, yet we have an excellent climate for poultry of all descriptions.

Hundreds of letters from those using Ayer's Hair Vigor attest its value as a restorer of gray hair to its natural color. As a stimulant and tonic, preventing and curing baldness, and cleansing the scalp, its use cannot be too strongly recommended.

W. P. Metcalf, late superintendent of the O. S. I. company at Empire, left by the Arago last Saturday, on his way to Boston. The business of the company is now in the hands of Jas. Webster.

The Coquille cannery has shut down for the season. On her next down trip the steamer Coos Bay will take along the remainder of this season's product of this cannery.

A fresh lot of Henry Clay cigars just received; try them; at New Variety store.

Win. Winsor is erecting a saloon building at Bandon for Robt. Walker.

The Old and Reliable Dora Nursery.

I have the finest orchard in Coos county, and would have taken it to the county fair if it could have run as fast as Clamdigger, and my nursery trees all came from my orchard. I will sell you your choice of apple trees, ranging in age from 3 to 7 years, at $15 per 100; also currants by the wagon load; all delivered at my grounds, near Dora. I am also soliciting orders for young apple trees and black walnut trees, in unlimited numbers, at $3 per dozen, and plum and prune trees, grafted on their own roots and as healthy as seedlings, at 50 cents each. Address C. Howe, Dora Nursery, Dora, Coos co., Or.

Opinion of a Leading Editor.

Almost all the diseases that afflict us from infancy to old age have their origin in a disordered liver, and here we must strike for their cure. Hence a really good liver medicine is the most important in the whole range of pharmacy. We believe Simmons Liver Regulator to be the best among them all. We pin our faith upon the Regulator, and if we could persuade every reader who is in ill health to buy it, we would willingly vouch for the benefit each would receive. —[Ed. Cincinnati Gazette.

Out of Sorts.

Many persons feel unwell, not absolutely sick, but in a state of discomfort. The liver is out of order. Take Simmons Liver Regulator. This unflinching specific for liver disease has restored more people to health and happiness than any other agency known on earth. No one can take the Regulator and remain long unwell. Rev. R. G. Wilder, Princeton, N. J., says: "I find nothing helps so much to keep me in working condition as Simmons Liver Regulator."

For further particulars, address W. D. L. F. Smith or W. A. Luse, Coos river.

Huden & Young's Notice.

J. B. GILBERT, Postmaster.

Senator Siglin informs us that he will favor the liquor bill written by him and introduced by Humphrey. * * * Such a bill will be introduced and pushed if Siglin can get a house member to introduce it. —Coos Bay News. Taffy—for the temperance people—especially on the Coquille. It means that the senator from Coos and Curry, who came within three votes of being elected United States senator, will make a show of advocating a temperance bill and then have a good laugh with the saloon boys, telling them how he knocked the stuffing out of that bill. You play that fine, Sig. Let's take something—soda.

The Recorder notes the arrival of Lieut. Sebrine, the new light-house inspector of this district, at Cape Blanco week before last, on official business. He is just from Annapolis and succeeds Capt. Davis, who has gone east to receive orders.

We admit that the News editor may now assume parental airs. We did not have quite as good data to fix the time as he; but it's all right. The democratic party will need increase of population in the coming years.

The residence of Geo. Forty, sr., says the Port Orford correspondent of the Gazette, was recently raided by a thief and robbed of $150 in money and valuable papers.

The light-house steamer Manzanita is at San Francisco, undergoing repairs. She will go on duty the 1st of next month, with headquarters at Portland.
