THE REPUBLICAN RECORD.

The Republican party have every reason to be proud of the record which has been made by the Republican Congress that ended its first session last week.

Since the Republican policy in respect to the tariff and Federal control of Congressional elections began to take shape five states have chosen their delegations to the House of Representatives of the Fifty-second Congress.

Table with 2 columns: States and Majorities. Oregon: 8,500; Vermont: 15,000; Maine: 18,000; Wyoming: 2,000; Idaho: 2,000.

This is an average of over 5000 majority for each of the nine Congressmen elected. The total majority would have been several thousand larger if it had not been for the dissatisfaction with the States ticket in Vermont, which kept many voters at home, and so reduced the majority on Congressmen also.

The most important achievement of the session is unquestionably the preliminary work performed in the House, giving to the majority of that body the control of its business. The struggle over this issue extended into the middle of February, and was continued in various forms all through the sessions whenever the minority saw its opportunity; but it is worth all the time and trouble it cost, and even the bad blood and outrageous abuse of which it was the occasion.

The Victory secured by the Republicans under the inspiration and leadership of Speaker Reed, and followed up so vigorously and successfully in its administration, is a victory for all time, and makes the House of Representatives once more a business body with power united to responsibility.

If we can judge by the amount of work that the Coos Bay Photo & Crayon Co. are doing, we would say the people are appreciating their reduction in cabinet photos, the quality is certainly first-class. Improve your opportunity during the remainder of this month.

It is a noble record, and the Republican party can easily afford to go before the people on the strength of it, in the full confidence that it will receive, as it has already in the states mentioned, from the verdict of "well done."

The Census.

Accurate reports have been received from the census bureau and the figures are given below. The Oregonian of Tuesday claims that the figures are fifty thousand short of what is due the state.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—The census bureau to-day completed the tabulation of returns for the first district of Oregon. This completes the work on the population of that state. The population, as the bureau claims it, is, 312,440. In 1880 it was 174,768, or 78.8 per cent. The population of counties announced to-day is:

Table with 3 columns: County, 1890, Increase. Benton: 8,629, 2,226; Clackamas: 15,192, 5,982; Clatsop: 9,952, 2,730; Columbia: 5,161, 3,119; Coos: 8,896, 4,002; Curry: 1,648, 440; Douglas: 11,788, 2,192; Jackson: 11,390, 3,206; Josephine: 4,844, 2,350; Lane: 15,093, 5,682; Linn: 16,139, 3,463; Polk: 7,736, 1,130; Tillamook: 2,888, 1,918; Washington: 11,874, 4,792; Yamhill: 10,608, 2,694; Multnomah: 75,057, 50,454; Marion: 22,456, 7,878.

Total: 229,559, 104,191. This is an increase of 76.01 per cent for this district. The bureau announces the population and gain of cities as follows:

Table with 3 columns: City, 1890, Increase. Astoria: 7,071, 4,288; Albina: 5,104, 4,961; Eugene: 3,458, 2,841; Portland: 47,294, 629,717; East Portland: 10,481, 7,547; Salem: 10,422, 5,626.

A Deadly Weapon.

Carelessness in purifying the blood leaves room to the mercy of that insidious enemy BLOOD POISON, which sooner or later will strike its fatal blow. Hibbard's Rheumatic Syrup has no equal as a blood remedy, and should be taken by every person in the spring. Its efficacy has been proven by thousands of testimonials like the following:

Gentlemen: I have been a great sufferer for over ten years. My whole system became deranged from diseased blood, and I was attacked with the worst forms of kidney and liver trouble, dyspepsia, neuralgia and rheumatism. My sufferings cannot be described. The salowness of my skin disfigured me, and the neuralgia pain was so severe that it contracted the muscles of my face, partially closing my right eye. The ablest doctors gave no relief, but I am now entirely cured by Hibbard's Rheumatic Syrup, and wish to recommend it to all as a blood medicine.
