GRAY & HILL, Real Estate Brokers, MARSHFIELD, OR.

First News in Congress.

The first story of the day in the United States Senate is the report of the Appropriations Committee. This morning the Senate passed a resolution, the second of the day, which provides for an increase of $1,000,000 in the appropriations for the construction of the new United States Capitol. The president signed the bill into law while the Senate was in session. The president also signed the bill for the construction of the new United States Capitol.

The House of Representatives.

The House of Representatives has passed a resolution, the second of the day, which provides for an increase of $1,000,000 in the appropriations for the construction of the new United States Capitol. The president signed the bill into law while the House was in session. The president also signed the bill for the construction of the new United States Capitol.

Vanderbilt's Presentation.

One story in Congress, some of the best known men and women of the country are present at the White House. The president and Mrs. Taft have been entertained by the Vanderbilt family. Vanderbilt's presentation.

The House of Representatives.

The House of Representatives has passed a resolution, the second of the day, which provides for an increase of $1,000,000 in the appropriations for the construction of the new United States Capitol. The president signed the bill into law while the House was in session. The president also signed the bill for the construction of the new United States Capitol.

Vanderbilt's Presentation.

One story in Congress, some of the best known men and women of the country are present at the White House. The president and Mrs. Taft have been entertained by the Vanderbilt family. Vanderbilt's presentation.

The House of Representatives.

The House of Representatives has passed a resolution, the second of the day, which provides for an increase of $1,000,000 in the appropriations for the construction of the new United States Capitol. The president signed the bill into law while the House was in session. The president also signed the bill for the construction of the new United States Capitol.

Vanderbilt's Presentation.

One story in Congress, some of the best known men and women of the country are present at the White House. The president and Mrs. Taft have been entertained by the Vanderbilt family. Vanderbilt's presentation.

The House of Representatives.

The House of Representatives has passed a resolution, the second of the day, which provides for an increase of $1,000,000 in the appropriations for the construction of the new United States Capitol. The president signed the bill into law while the House was in session. The president also signed the bill for the construction of the new United States Capitol.

Vanderbilt's Presentation.

One story in Congress, some of the best known men and women of the country are present at the White House. The president and Mrs. Taft have been entertained by the Vanderbilt family. Vanderbilt's presentation.

The House of Representatives.

The House of Representatives has passed a resolution, the second of the day, which provides for an increase of $1,000,000 in the appropriations for the construction of the new United States Capitol. The president signed the bill into law while the House was in session. The president also signed the bill for the construction of the new United States Capitol.

Vanderbilt's Presentation.

One story in Congress, some of the best known men and women of the country are present at the White House. The president and Mrs. Taft have been entertained by the Vanderbilt family. Vanderbilt's presentation.

The House of Representatives.

The House of Representatives has passed a resolution, the second of the day, which provides for an increase of $1,000,000 in the appropriations for the construction of the new United States Capitol. The president signed the bill into law while the House was in session. The president also signed the bill for the construction of the new United States Capitol.

Vanderbilt's Presentation.

One story in Congress, some of the best known men and women of the country are present at the White House. The president and Mrs. Taft have been entertained by the Vanderbilt family. Vanderbilt's presentation.

The House of Representatives.

The House of Representatives has passed a resolution, the second of the day, which provides for an increase of $1,000,000 in the appropriations for the construction of the new United States Capitol. The president signed the bill into law while the House was in session. The president also signed the bill for the construction of the new United States Capitol.

Vanderbilt's Presentation.

One story in Congress, some of the best known men and women of the country are present at the White House. The president and Mrs. Taft have been entertained by the Vanderbilt family. Vanderbilt's presentation.

The House of Representatives.

The House of Representatives has passed a resolution, the second of the day, which provides for an increase of $1,000,000 in the appropriations for the construction of the new United States Capitol. The president signed the bill into law while the House was in session. The president also signed the bill for the construction of the new United States Capitol.

Vanderbilt's Presentation.

One story in Congress, some of the best known men and women of the country are present at the White House. The president and Mrs. Taft have been entertained by the Vanderbilt family. Vanderbilt's presentation.

The House of Representatives.

The House of Representatives has passed a resolution, the second of the day, which provides for an increase of $1,000,000 in the appropriations for the construction of the new United States Capitol. The president signed the bill into law while the House was in session. The president also signed the bill for the construction of the new United States Capitol.

Vanderbilt's Presentation.

One story in Congress, some of the best known men and women of the country are present at the White House. The president and Mrs. Taft have been entertained by the Vanderbilt family. Vanderbilt's presentation.

The House of Representatives.

The House of Representatives has passed a resolution, the second of the day, which provides for an increase of $1,000,000 in the appropriations for the construction of the new United States Capitol. The president signed the bill into law while the House was in session. The president also signed the bill for the construction of the new United States Capitol.

Vanderbilt's Presentation.

One story in Congress, some of the best known men and women of the country are present at the White House. The president and Mrs. Taft have been entertained by the Vanderbilt family. Vanderbilt's presentation.

The House of Representatives.

The House of Representatives has passed a resolution, the second of the day, which provides for an increase of $1,000,000 in the appropriations for the construction of the new United States Capitol. The president signed the bill into law while the House was in session. The president also signed the bill for the construction of the new United States Capitol.

Vanderbilt's Presentation.

One story in Congress, some of the best known men and women of the country are present at the White House. The president and Mrs. Taft have been entertained by the Vanderbilt family. Vanderbilt's presentation.

The House of Representatives.

The House of Representatives has passed a resolution, the second of the day, which provides for an increase of $1,000,000 in the appropriations for the construction of the new United States Capitol. The president signed the bill into law while the House was in session. The president also signed the bill for the construction of the new United States Capitol.

Vanderbilt's Presentation.

One story in Congress, some of the best known men and women of the country are present at the White House. The president and Mrs. Taft have been entertained by the Vanderbilt family. Vanderbilt's presentation.

The House of Representatives.

The House of Representatives has passed a resolution, the second of the day, which provides for an increase of $1,000,000 in the appropriations for the construction of the new United States Capitol. The president signed the bill into law while the House was in session. The president also signed the bill for the construction of the new United States Capitol.

Vanderbilt's Presentation.

One story in Congress, some of the best known men and women of the country are present at the White House. The president and Mrs. Taft have been entertained by the Vanderbilt family. Vanderbilt's presentation.

The House of Representatives.

The House of Representatives has passed a resolution, the second of the day, which provides for an increase of $1,000,000 in the appropriations for the construction of the new United States Capitol. The president signed the bill into law while the House was in session. The president also signed the bill for the construction of the new United States Capitol.

Vanderbilt's Presentation.

One story in Congress, some of the best known men and women of the country are present at the White House. The president and Mrs. Taft have been entertained by the Vanderbilt family. Vanderbilt's presentation.

The House of Representatives.

The House of Representatives has passed a resolution, the second of the day, which provides for an increase of $1,000,000 in the appropriations for the construction of the new United States Capitol. The president signed the bill into law while the House was in session. The president also signed the bill for the construction of the new United States Capitol.

Vanderbilt's Presentation.

One story in Congress, some of the best known men and women of the country are present at the White House. The president and Mrs. Taft have been entertained by the Vanderbilt family. Vanderbilt's presentation.

The House of Representatives.

The House of Representatives has passed a resolution, the second of the day, which provides for an increase of $1,000,000 in the appropriations for the construction of the new United States Capitol. The president signed the bill into law while the House was in session. The president also signed the bill for the construction of the new United States Capitol.

Vanderbilt's Presentation.

One story in Congress, some of the best known men and women of the country are present at the White House. The president and Mrs. Taft have been entertained by the Vanderbilt family. Vanderbilt's presentation.