Daisy Edwards Laid to Rest

The remains of Miss Daisy Edwards arrived on the Arcata, accompanied by her father, Capt. C. E. Edwards. The funeral took place at 1:30 p. m. Friday from the Methodist church, Rev. R. C. Lee officiating. The attendance was very large, evincing the high esteem in which the young lady was held. The floral offerings were many and beautiful, there being several very elaborate and lovely set pieces, including one from the graduating class of 1900, of which Miss Edwards was a member.

Summer Cheese

Captain Harris has presented this office with the promised chunk of cheese from his Sumner creamery, and it is strictly "all right." The factory has been in operation less than two months, so that none of the product has attained age, but it shows itself to be a firstclass article. Capt. Harris has employed William Blackmore, a graduate of the Washington Agricultural college and an expert cheesemaker, who is turning out about 100 pounds a day. The product has been placed on sale at the grocery stores, and it is hoped that all may be disposed of here at home.

GRADUATING EXERCISES OF MARSHFIELD SCHOOL.

Six Girls and Five Boys Receive Their Diplomas from Prof. Golden

The graduating exercises of the Marshfield public school deserve a more extended notice than the MAIL was able to give last week.

Following was the program, which was carried out without a hitch. Selection By Orchestra Invocation Rev. S. B. McClelland Salutatory—"Self Attributes" Cora Chapman

Theme—"Is Poverty a Curse?" Daniel B. Keating Euphonium Solo—"My Old Kentucky Home" Chas. S. Kaiser Presentation of Class Mantle—Eulalia Cordes

Acceptance for Class of '02—Virginia DeNeveu Clarinet Solo—Dr. W. A. Toye Valedictory—"Lessons from Other Lives"—Daisy E. Reedy Selection—By Orchestra Presentation of Diplomas—By Prin. F. A. Golden.

Chorus—"In The Wildwood" By The Graduates

The four young ladies acquitted themselves in a manner calling for the heartiest congratulations, and Daniel B. Keating delivered his address very creditably.

Professor Golden had the good judgement to consider the late hour and cut his presentation address to a few well chosen words.

The musical numbers of the program were very fine, and both Mr. Kaiser and Dr. Toye were obliged to respond to encores.

One of the pleasantest features of the evening was the excellent behavior of the small boys, who refrained from marring the enjoyment of the audience by any annoying disorder.

The stage was tastefully decorated with the class colors, blue and orange, and the class motto, "Only the Dawn" was suspended above.

Besides Professor Golden and the lady teachers, the following occupied seats on the platform: F. Haugestein, J. F. Hall and Chas. Johnson, of the school board, Rev. R. C. Lee and Rev. S. B. McClelland.

The names of the eleven graduates are as follows: English course: Daniel B. Keating, Claude Nasburg, Eulalia Cordes, Sidney B. Klahn and Frank Wickman Latin course: Daisy E. Reedy, Cora Chapman, Josephine Cordes, Elmer R. DeNeveu, Lora Mae Escott, and Jay Barrell Tower.

Card of Thanks

Captain C. E. Edwards and wife desire to express their heartfelt appreciation of the kindness and sympathy shown them in their late bereavement, by the people of Coos county and the Captain and crew of the Steamer Arcata; also for the financial assistance for freely and courteously extended. This kindness will never be forgotten.

Card of Thanks

Mr. S. A. Painter wishes to extend thanks to the many friends who sympathize with him in his bereavement in the loss of his wife, Ada V. Painter.

Card of Thanks

To the many friends of Sarah B. Dean, who, during her last sickness, and during the sad rites of burial, showed by their acts, their love and affection for her, we, her husband and family relatives, hereby express our gratitude and deep appreciation.

MARRIED

MAUZEY—LINGREN—At Marshfield, June 8, 1901, John E. Mauzey and Miss Minnie Lingren, Rev. Irwin officiating.

NOWLIN—PIPER—At North Bend, Or., June 12, 1901, Jas. Nowlin and Miss Florence Piper. (See North Bend correspondence.)

DIED.

PAINTER—At North Bend, Or., 7:35 p. m., Sunday, June 9, 1901, Ada, wife of S. A. Painter, aged 23 years, of consumption.

Deceased was the daughter of William and Malvina Newland, and was born in Lake county, Or., March 27, 1878. The father died about the time of her birth and her mother brought her family to Coos county about 3 years later, and they lived on Middle creek near the Coos Bay wagon road for several years, remaining to Marshfield in 1895. Last Summer Miss Newland suffered a severe attack of the grip, which developed into consumption. On Jan. 30, 1901, she was married to S. A. Painter and has since resided at North Bend but her wedded life was destined to be of short duration, as her disease made rapid progress, and for several months her case has been seen to be hopeless. Besides the bereaved husband and mother, she leaves two sisters, Mrs. H. S. Bonebrake of this city and Mrs. J. W. Moss, of Fairview. The funeral took place on Tuesday from the Methodist church in this city, Rev. R. C. Lee officiating.

IN MEMORY OF MISS DAISY EDWARDS
When we see a precious blossom,
That we watched with tender care,
Rudely taken from our bosom,
How our aching hearts dearssear,
Round her grave we do still linger,
Till the sun is setting low,
Feeling all our hopes have perished
With the one we cherished so.

And yet, dear heart, remember thee,
Am I not richer than of old?
Thy love hath left its trust with me
Safe in thy immortality.

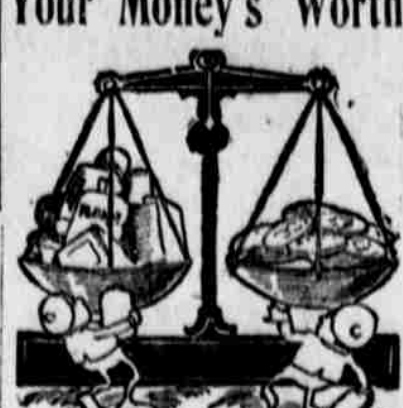

When cool and long the shadows grow,
And while in lites early walk,
We shall sleep, but not forever,
We shall meet to part no more.

I cannot feel that thou art far,
When near at hand the angels are,
And when the sunset's gates unbar,
I shall see you waiting there.

To meet the night that heaven allows
to flourish there,
And white against the evening star
To welcome thy beckoning hand,
On that resurrection morn.

A FRIEND,
June 6, 1901. Allgony, Oregon.

OUR SHOES

Are in demand because they merit that distinction. Quality is more appreciated in foot wear than, perhaps, in anything else. The wearer knows whether it's right or wrong.

We sell only what is right in fit, style, quality and price. You will have no trouble here in getting just what you want and when you want it. Come in and let us convince you.

Every lady that wears our shoes realizes that there is something about them that makes them a little better than others.

Our Mens' Shoes are a little later; a little more fashionable in appearance; easier fitting and a little lower in price than any others of the same grade.

Remember, we are showing the swellest line of Dry Goods, Fancy Goods, Clothing, Hats, Etc., that have ever been exhibited in Marshfield.
