FIREWORKS GET THERE AT ALLEGANY

House and Contents go up in Smoke With Loss of About $700

A house at Allegany belonging to Capt. C. E. Edwards and occupied by his brother Harm Edwards was burned to the ground Thursday night with nearly all of its contents. It is supposed that the evening fireworks were responsible for the fire, which was discovered about midnight by the occupants of the house, when it was too far advanced to allow of saving more than a trunk and a few clothes. A rough estimate places the loss at about $400 on the house and $300 on the contents, Miss Georgia Gould being one of the losers.

The Old Road

The Coos Bay Wagon Road is now sufficiently dried up to permit the stages to run clear through to Marshfield, beginning Monday July 8. The wagons have all been refitted and the stock is in excellent condition for the summer's work. The road between Dora and McKinley has been widened and smoothed down and the brush cleared away so it is now in much better condition than it has been at this season in many years. The long hill between Sumner and Fairview is yet quite rough but in a week's traveling with wagons will be in fair condition, much good road work having been done on that mountain also. Travel has already begun and an old-time business is expected. The stage company will make a strong pull for a large share of travel this summer.

FINE WEATHER FOR THE GORGEOUS FOURTH

Marshfield Quiet, and her Citizens Scattered to Other Points to Celebrate

The glorious Fourth passed off quietly in Marshfield. There being no celebration here, nearly every one who could get away went out on some kind of a jaunt. A great many went to the Coquille, a large number went up Coos river on Capt. Rogers' excursion and others scattered to various points. In the evening many private displays of fireworks were made and the heavens were bombardment with rockets from all parts of town. The ball game at Myrtle Point between the Marshfield and home teams resulted in a score of 31 to 19 in favor of Marshfield. It would have been a good deal worse if our boys had cared to make it so. The game at Coquille between the Oakland, Or., and home teams was about equally divided, the Coquille beating the visitors 25 to 7. About 400 people went over from here to Coquille and Myrtle Point, getting back about 9 o'clock, reporting a good time. The weather was as fine as could be asked all day, and no one can now say that it always rains on the Fourth. Gun Exploded An old cannon used for firing a Fourth of July salute at North Bend exploded about 5 o'clock on the morning of the Fourth and scared several parties out of a year's growth. It is said that the gun had been bored out and that it was loaded with rifle powder, which was a little too much for its weakened constitution.

A Close Call

M. Doyle and wife, of Wedderburn had a narrow escape last week. While driving toward Port Orford they were stopped by a tree which had burned down and fallen across the road. They alighted to examine the situation, and another tree came crashing down across the empty vehicle.

A Picnic Party

A merry party went down from here Wednesday to Rocky point and camped over night, coming back on the Fourth after a very enjoyable time. The party consisted of the following gentlemen and their wives: G. T. Coleman, L. H. Heisner, F. M. German, and Rev. Thos. Irvine also Mrs. Wilson, Mrs. Macoun and the Misses Pearl Heisner, May Greengard, Connie Irvine, Arthur Hodgins and Jack Macoun.

Our Wide-Awake Reporters

NORTH BEND

Mrs. W. S. Cursons is suffering from an attack of acute pleurisy. Lawyer Seaman of Marshfield came down on Monday morning's boat. We understand Emil Erickson had something to do with his speed departure from here which however, was not by boat but alioot. Our people took themselves to many different points to spend the Fourth. E. M. Mettler, wife and family, J. Peterson, wife and son and Emil Nelson are among those who went to Ten Mile Tuesday. Mrs. Erickson and children, Miss Edna Robinson, Mrs. J. M. Thomas and children and Mrs. Pendergrass and daughter left Wednesday morning for Coquille. They will also visit Bendon. The band and quite a large crowd left Thursday for Coquille where the band was engaged to play. The mill shut down Saturday night to make repairs and give those who desired, a vacation till after the Fourth. The Web-foot came into port from San Pedro, Cal. and is now loading here. Arthur Mattson returned to his home on Catching slough last Saturday. The following list containing the names of addresses of letters advertised at North Bend P. O. July 1, 1901: Mr. Jacob Mattson 1, J. R. Sutton, Esq. 1. John Fredrickson, brother of Victor and Andrew Fredrickson arrived on the Alliance Wednesday evening from Finland.

GEORGE WULFF HAS DISAGREEABLE EXPERIENCE

Geo. Wulff had a disagreeable experience last Sunday which he would not care to repeat. He went out over the bar in a small boat on a fishing trip and in attempting to hoist sail near the fairway buoy, a sea came aboard and filled his boat, leaving him helplessly adrift. Fortunately the incoming tide carried him in over the bar again and into the bay. Near Rocky point he was picked up by Geo. Gotty, after being in the water nearly four hours. He was in the last stages of chill and exhaustion, and had he not lashed himself to the boat at the first would undoubtedly have found a watery grave. He was taken to the residence of Ben Barker, near by, where he was cared for, and was able to come home the same day. Mr. Wulff is advanced in years, but his powerful constitution enables him to come through an adventure which would have been too much for many a younger man.

IN MEMORY OF MRS. ADA PAINTER.

'Tis sweet to think hereafter, When the spirit leaves this sphere, Love on deathless wings shall wait for thee, To those who long hath mourned for thee; Hearts from which 'twas death to sever, Eyes this earth can ne'er restore, Shall meet us, and to part no more, Only waiting till the Angels Open wide the mystic gate At whose feet I long have lingered; Wear, poor and desolate, And their voices far away. If they call me I am waiting, Only waiting to obey. BY A FRIEND.
