

PERSONAL AND LOCAL.

Sunday Oregonian at Norton's. Miss Lulu Boone of Sumner is visiting Miss Leona Ryan.

Dr. Prentis, Dentist. All work guaranteed. Telephone No. 435. J. W. Bennett and family left Tuesday for Coos river for an outing.

Fine line of shirt waists at Sengstacken's.

Prepare for warm weather by getting a summer hat at Sengstacken's.

P. C. Levar of the MAIL is laid up with a severe case of Erysipelas.

Insure your property in the London and Lancashire Fire Insurance Co., John Preuss, Agt.

Use Hibbard's celebrated rheumatic cure to limber your joints. For sale at Sengstacken's.

The fire at Florence last week has set the citizens of that town to figuring on better fire protection.

When you want some extra nice cheese call on your grocer for Summer creamery full cream cheese. 68 ct.

Mrs. L. Wise and son Joe, of Portland, arrived on the last Alliance to visit her sister Mrs. Bradbury.

When your milk comes down sour from the river, ring up Main 171 Centerville Dairy. We have a cure.

The Invisibles of Marshfield were scooped to the tune of $1 to 13 in favor of the East Marshfield Club last Sunday on the Bay City diamond.

Two choice improved building lots opposite G. A. Bennett's residence. Also 1 lot at South Marshfield opposite the Park. Apply to H. Sengstacken.

The Mutual Life of N. Y. give you the best investment and protection. Take a policy.

H. SENGSTACKEN, Local Agent.

Julius Larsen, of Haynes slough took home a new engine to his dairy ranch Tuesday. It came up on the Empire. The engine is to be used for cutting feed for his silo.

Notice the bread first, then see the brands in the stores, on the delivery wagons, and clothes lines. Sperry's flour is all right, and the sacks speak louder than words.

The Sumner Cheese Factory is now turning out seven cheeses per day and the demand for the product is daily growing. To see the cleanly way this factory is conducted cannot but give one an appetite for Sumner cheese.

J. D. Sunderland, who was expected on the last Alliance from San Francisco, did not arrive, as he has just gone through another operation, and will not be able to leave his room for the next four weeks to come. So far he has not taken a step in five weeks, but has been able to sit up a few hours at a time.

Assortment of Kodaks and Kodak supplies at the Red Cross Drug Store is larger than ever.

Bargains in kid gloves at Sengstacken's.

Ten new cottages are under way in West Marshfield and at present that part of town is flourishing. More building is contemplated.

One of our merchants remarked this week that he never saw a time when there seemed to be so much gold among the laboring people.

For best values in boots and shoes go to Sengstacken's.

County Supt. Bunch passed through Marshfield Sunday, on his way to the schools on Haynes and North sloughs.

Dr. Prentis will return about Aug. 26th.

Carl Sealander, of Sumner, took home one of those new McCormick mowers from Milner's Tuesday.

H. Black brought down a fine Durham cow from his Sumner ranch for Anson Rogers, who will use her for beef.

Chains, castings and other iron came up on the Empire, for the new schooner being built in the Marshfield shipyard.

The Central Hotel is receiving a new coat of paint, and will be as bright as a new dollar when A. F. Cook's force of men get through with their work.

Dr. Prentis left yesterday for a month vacation. He will return about Aug. 26th.

F. T. Samuels, representing J. D. Spreckels & Bros. Co., is here on a business visit for his company.

All county warrants endorsed prior to July 5, 1899, are called in and interest is stopped from July 4th.

Application has been made to the proper authorities for a "look out" at the jetties in connection with the life-saving station.

Edward Ryan who has been at work on Dave Munsions ranch on Coos river, quit his job and will go with his parents to Roseburg.

The ball game between the Marshfield team and Myrtle Point was not played, our nine preferring to let the game go by default.

The Mandalay arrived at Bandon last week with both propellers injured, all the blades were broken off one, and one off the other.

C. E. Nicholson, of Marshfield, has been in town this week in the employ of the city council, figuring on the cost of the proposed water system for our town.

A good stream of water has been found on the Curt Andrews place on Sugar Loaf, which is only a distance of about three miles from Myrtle Point. The proposition of bonding the town for a water system will soon be submitted to the voters, and before many months we will have a good water system.—Enterprise.

Jap Yoakam Sr. came up from Eureka, overland this week, arriving on Monday to visit friends and on business.

The Siuslaw and San Francisco Lumber Co. are constantly putting in more and better machinery. A few days ago they received a new edger of the latest improved pattern, and they propose soon to put in an electric light plant for the mill.—Florence West.

John C. Colgan arrived in Marshfield this week from Salem. Mr. Colgan started with Mr. Gibson and family overland, with stock and household effects. Mrs. Gibson became ill after starting and the party was compelled to return. Mr. Colgan came on to Roseburg and came in via stage. He stood the trip well for one who has weathered 91 summers. He is highly pleased with Coos bay. He is visiting with his son-in-law Mr. Abbott. Mr. Gibson will reach here in the near future and is one of Marion county's progressive stock men.

NEW SUMMER CORSETS.

Summer Comfort Every requirement of comfort, every requisit of healthful beauty is supplied in the corsets carried by

George & Tibbetts. PHONE 436 Odd Fellows'

The shirt-waist man has not made his appearance in Marshfield.

J. A. Lamb, the Coquille hardware merchant, spent Sunday in town.

American Headache Powders give immediate relief. Sengstacken's.

A large tank for the new schooner arrived Tuesday from San Francisco.

G. W. Canning has sold his interest in the restaurant at the Newport mine.

Dr. Prentis left yesterday for a month vacation. He will return about Aug. 26th.

F. T. Samuels, representing J. D. Spreckels & Bros. Co., is here on a business visit for his company.

All county warrants endorsed prior to July 5, 1899, are called in and interest is stopped from July 4th.

Application has been made to the proper authorities for a "look out" at the jetties in connection with the life-saving station.

Edward Ryan who has been at work on Dave Munsions ranch on Coos river, quit his job and will go with his parents to Roseburg.

The ball game between the Marshfield team and Myrtle Point was not played, our nine preferring to let the game go by default.

The Mandalay arrived at Bandon last week with both propellers injured, all the blades were broken off one, and one off the other.

C. E. Nicholson, of Marshfield, has been in town this week in the employ of the city council, figuring on the cost of the proposed water system for our town.

A good stream of water has been found on the Curt Andrews place on Sugar Loaf, which is only a distance of about three miles from Myrtle Point. The proposition of bonding the town for a water system will soon be submitted to the voters, and before many months we will have a good water system.—Enterprise.

Jap Yoakam Sr. came up from Eureka, overland this week, arriving on Monday to visit friends and on business.

The Siuslaw and San Francisco Lumber Co. are constantly putting in more and better machinery. A few days ago they received a new edger of the latest improved pattern, and they propose soon to put in an electric light plant for the mill.—Florence West.

John C. Colgan arrived in Marshfield this week from Salem. Mr. Colgan started with Mr. Gibson and family overland, with stock and household effects. Mrs. Gibson became ill after starting and the party was compelled to return. Mr. Colgan came on to Roseburg and came in via stage. He stood the trip well for one who has weathered 91 summers. He is highly pleased with Coos bay. He is visiting with his son-in-law Mr. Abbott. Mr. Gibson will reach here in the near future and is one of Marion county's progressive stock men.

We have them. Colgate's Oat Meal and Glycerine Soaps, delicately perfumed at 25c per box of three cakes. Red Cross Drug Store.

Deputy Sheriff Gallier was in town Sunday.

Sengstacken's for fresh garden and grass seed.

Seventh Day Adventists camping meeting will be held at Coquille, beginning on Aug. 8th to 18th inclusive.

The Copper Queen has had her gasoline engine taken out and steam put in, and she now is a far more seaworthy craft.

Schooner Western Home which left San Francisco on the 4th of July for Coos bay ran on Duxbury reef, on the 6th and did some damage to her rudder.

Let us quote you prices on blue stone, paris green, london purple, arsenic and insect powder. Sengstacken's Pharmacy.

Dr. Toye, Will Nasburg, A. Farley, Alton Sengstacken, and Hillis Short, returned from a trip to North slough bringing home plenty of venison.

J. Gamble has the contract for opening the air chutes and J. Cox and F. Steel have the contract to open the main gangway in the Lillian coal mine, now owned by Simpson & Co.

A subscription paper is being circulated in the Templeton neighborhood for the erection of a dance hall and the ones circulating the paper are meeting with good success.

Some of Marshfield's sports enjoyed venison on the 16th though the season only opened on the 15th. Marshfield sports are not so slow when it comes to getting there on time.

Dr. Prentis Dentist will be away on vacation during the month of August. Patients having dental work to do should make appointments at once.

Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Curson arrived on the Arcata from San Francisco. Mr. Curson has been afflicted with inflammatory rheumatism since leaving here last fall and is glad to be back here where he thinks he will be better.

Ladies you can buy a new shirt waist every month on what you save by buying your groceries at Flanagan's Pioneer Market.

Julius Larsen took a run out over the bar Saturday with his gasoline launch, going as far as the black buoy. He was met by the life saving crew on his return who thought the boat was adrift and they were on their way to rescue it.

BORN JOHNSON—At Marshfield, Or., July 15, 1901, to the wife of C. A. Johnson, a daughter.

FOUND—A black cape floating on Catching slough, near Coos river. Owner can have same by paying for this notice and proving property. MATT MATTON.

For Rent Suit of nice rooms over Jensen's tailor shop, suitable for offices, dressmaking or housekeeping. 2t A. E. SHAMAN, Agt.

REAL ESTATE FOR SALE. A fine business lot on A st., $1600. Dwelling house on 2nd st., 6 rooms $650.

A plot of land 218 ft. by 100 ft. facing on race track in South Marshfield, $750. Will sell in bulk or half.

Four lots next to Postoffice on Front st. $2500.

House and lot in West Marshfield $1000.

House and lot in South Marshfield $650.

Six lots in Blk 10, South Marshfield Block 70 in Nottley's addition to Coquille City. Enquire of W. U. DOUGLASS.

Harry Nasburg is at Eckley for an outing.

Sengstacken wants ten tons of Chittam bark.

Archie Kruse returned on the Alliance from San Francisco.

Dr. Annola of Tenmile was in town Thursday on professional business.

Chas. McKnight returned from a trip to Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. Parker B. Holland returned on the Alliance.

A new sidewalk is being laid to James H. Flanagan's residence.

John Kruse, we are pleased to learn is convalescing and will soon be able to be out.

Headache? get a box of American Headache Powders at Sengstacken's.

R. S. Sheridan, has resigned the chairmanship of the State Democratic Central Committee.

Christensen & Johnson have just received a large lot of Moulding and Hardwood of all varieties.

Mrs. J. N. Ryan and children expect to start for Roseburg Monday via team, where they will reside.

The steam schooner Acme is here loading with lumber at Dean & Co's mill.

W. J. Butler returned Thursday, from a lecture tour of the valley.

Mr. James H. Flanagan and wife will leave for Portland next week, accompanied by Miss Keane, of San Francisco. The party will go overland.

The Central hotel is being supplied with a refrigerator room for keeping perishable goods, etc, for that house.

Bob Pridgeon who has been confined to his room for several months with inflammatory rheumatism is now able to be about.

Mrs. John Colver of Catching slough, who has been in San Francisco at the hospital returned this week very much improved.

The total expense bills paid at this meeting of the board of supervisors was very nearly $7,000. The poor farm expenses alone were $490.72.

The Coos Bay Creamery shipped a large consignment of fat hops to San Francisco on the Empire. They are receiving 6 1/2 a pound for them at S. F.

J. N. Ryan left for Salem on the Alliance; where he will visit with his daughter, Mrs. A. H. Moore before going to Roseburg. Mr. Ryan not feeling able to make the trip overland.

Don't forget the 10 per cent cash discount sale at Flanagan's Pioneer Market.

Cream of Almonds with glycerine is an ideal preparation for tan, sunburn, chapped hands and face and all roughness of the skin, 25c at Sengstacken's.

Two new gasoline launches are now under way at Holland Bros. They are to be 25 feet long and 5 1/2 feet beam and will be supplied with 3 horse-power engines.

Miss Jottie Watson returned last week from Roseburg, where she had been visiting relatives. She was accompanied home by Miss Stella Hamilton, daughter of Judge Hamilton.

A fire alarm was turned in about 11 o'clock Saturday night from one of the houses on the bridge in South Marshfield. The department responded at once. It proved to be but a chimney blaze.

Phone to 171 when you want milk or cream brought to your door. Milk as good as the best cows can produce. Always fresh and sweet no matter how hot the weather. All orders given special attention, Barry & Flanagan proprietors, Centerville dairy.

A Pleasant Surprise A number of the young friends of Miss Leona Ryan arranged a very pleasant affair on that young lady and accordingly arranged for the simultaneous arrival of all. It was a complete surprise and very much enjoyed by all. The evening was spent in games and a social time after which ice cream and cake was served and all departed to their homes joyously thinking of the complete surprise.

Ice Cream and Strawberries Strawberries and Cream, Ice Cream, and Ice Cream Soda will be served at Scott's Gardens in South Marshfield every Sunday. Strawberries and Cream every day. Ice Cream by the pint, quart or gallon cheaper than you can make it yourself.

Mrs. Leonard Braden left for Myrtle Point Thursday to visit with friends.

Mrs. Dr. O. E. Smith returned from Southern California on the last Alliance.

Jay Tower who has been quite sick for several weeks with rheumatic fever is reported as improving.

Miss Edna Asplund returned from a visit at Oakland, Cal.

Steamer Mandalay is expected to bring the new locomotive ordered last spring for the Coos Bay railroad.

Miss Annie Anderson returned on the Alliance Wednesday, from California, where she has been visiting.

Bennett Swanton is back from the Abernathy ranch where he has been for six weeks.

Reese Wright and Ray Penick who have been out camping at Rocky Point, returned Wednesday night.

Mrs. G. W. Baughnell of Coquille City, returned from San Francisco on the Alliance.

Miss Alice Beyers and Eva Wilson of Sumner, who were in San Francisco visiting friends returned on the Alliance.

The marriage announcement of Miss Rebecca Luse to Geo. Stump formerly residents of this city, but now of San Francisco. The marriage takes place on July 31st.

Another series of ball games has been arranged by the Coos county baseball fraternity. One game to be played at Coquille, one at Marshfield and the third one may be played at Bandon.

The Centerville Dairy is supplying its customers with milk that is of the best. Their milk is never sent out until it has been well aerated. Cream supplied on short notice. Milk delivered at your door, 5c a quart.

FLANAGAN & BARRY.

R. E. Shine went out over the Coos Bay Wagon Road to look at some S. O. Co. property in Canas valley this week.

There is quite a large run of Anchoyites in the bay, which is claimed by the old fishermen as a good omen that there will be a large run of Salmon this season.

L. J. Simpson has had parties out prospecting for coal and they have made some valuable discoveries on the west side of Coos river and one fine vein of coal on the Al Smith place. Mr. Smith has lost all interest in his gold mines now and is enthusiastic about coal.

A. F. Coarn, of Sand Beach, Cal., came up on the Alliance this week and went to McKinley by stage to visit with his brother-in-law, Capt. H. E. Wilcox.

Mrs. C. Rogers and family will move to San Francisco, where she will join her husband, who is engineer, on one of J. D. Spreckels tug boats.

Mr. and Mrs. E. O'Connell and daughters Estella and Mrs. Jones, have returned from a trip to Bandon, where they have been enjoying the sea breeze.

Dr. C. W. Roberts, eye specialist and refractionist, arrived on the Alliance. The doctor comes here highly recommended, and will remain in this city for two weeks or longer. He will make free examinations of the eyes at the parlor of the Blanco hotel.

See article by Dr. Roberts on "Refraction" in another column.

Martin Breen, an old resident of Coos county, who has been at Byron Hot Springs, Cal., returned home this week. Mr. Breen is still suffering from his old malady.

For Sale Household furniture, for sale cheap, good as new. Apply to Mrs. C. Rogers, corner Cedar and 5th street.

Nectar for the Gods' You do not have to "Rush the Can" when you buy your milk or cream from the Centerville Dairy, but you can get the best, pure milk, delivered at your door for 5c a quart morning or evening. Ring up phone 171. Try it.

Centerville Dairy. J. W. FLANAGAN, Prop's. T. H. BARRY. Order your milk from us, we guarantee it fresh, pure and sweet. Delivered at your door morning and evening. TERMS—5c per quart. PHONE 171

SUBSCRIPTIONS For all Papers and Magazines Received at F. P. Norton's.

KIMBALL, EMERSON MILTON, HINZE, Pianos $250.00 upward. Organs $75.00 upward. Delivered at Marshfield. Call on or address, MRS. G. MORRIS, Local Representative, Garfield Hotel, Marshfield, Oregon. (CHAS. GRISSON, Mgr.)

IT TAKES CARE. We cannot keep our restaurant up to the standard of popularity we desire unless we give it a great deal of care. We watch all the little points which add so much to the Comfort of Our Guests and helps so thoroughly in the satisfying of their appetites. Our service is clean, our substance most attractive and our waiters are attentive. You will enjoy your meals here. J. D. GABRIEL, Front Street, Opposite Bank.

Preserving Time. We keep the best supply of choice fruits of all kinds, fresh from the growers, and anyone wishing to can or preserve should be sure and call on us. We keep a full stock of all the necessary concomitants for fruit canning. Campbell & Eickworth.

SHOES OUR SHOES Are in demand because they merit that distinction. Quality is more appreciated in foot wear than, perhaps, in anything else. The wearer knows whether it's right or wrong. We sell only what is right in fit, style, quality and price. You will have no trouble here in getting just what you want and when you want it. Come in and let us convince you. Every lady that wears our shoes realizes that there is something about them that makes them a little better than others. Our Mens' Shoes are a little later; a little more fashionable in appearance; easier fitting and a little lower in price than any others of the same grade. Remember, we are showing the swellest line of Dry Goods, Fancy Goods, Clothing, Hats, Etc., that have ever been exhibited in Marshfield. Money Back if not Suited. NASBURG BROS. SHOE