THE FOUNT OF YOUTH.

- The fount of youth has of been sought
- Nince days of long age,
 And oft in fancy mon-hate sees
 Its liting nature the Through dearst.
- Through desert, swamp and wilderness Through desert, swamp and wilderness The scarch has been pureased. In hope that by the analic found
- Youth's charms might be renewed But now have turned from that sale quest,
- Their loops forever expliced.
 For though they searched through all the world.
 No magte feminian gradect.
 And men resigned thermelves to age.
 That robbad them of their graces.
 That support their strength and thickly spread.
 Time's wrinkles on the face.

- In later years men's thoughts have turned. To place for longer life,
 And in clinits they have sought. New energit for duly strile.
 And off 'tie heredded alread.
 That accented or maye.
 Hee finishly evolved a place.
 To stay the hight of age.

- But men grow old, and women, too,
- As in the days of yorr, For no citairs they have tried Their continue charms restore,
- And at they cun't descive themselves, And dye or bleach their hair and paint On cherks the hurs of youth.
- The fount of youth is in each heart,
- And these who keep it pure
 Will longer hold the charms of fouth
 And length of life secure,
 And when at last that founds in hile
- And old age on them steals
 hey'll bear it well because no man
 La sider than he feels.
