The Mutual Life of N. Y. give you the best investment and protection. Take a policy.

H. SENGSTACKEN, Local Agent.

When it comes to writing up catchy advertisements, the proprietors of the COAST MAIL are entitled to the bakery. Here is their latest production: "Notice the bread first, then see the brands in the stores, on the delivery wagons and clotheslines. Sperry's flour is all right." This may make business for the Sperry Flouring Company, but it is wrong to embarrass the good housewives of Marshfield by calling attention to their clotheslines on wash day.—Myrtle Point Enterprise.

THE DAILY MAIL

The DAILY MAIL seems to have struck the fancy of the people, from the way the subscriptions are rolling in from all over the county.

A complete sixteen page daily paper is somewhat of a novelty for Coos county. We hope to make it so good that people will want it made a permanent thing.

If you haven't subscribed yet rush your 25 cents, coin or stamps, in here by Monday and the paper will be mailed to you every morning during the fair.

When you want some extra nice cheese call on your grocer for Sumner creamery full cream cheese. 68 tf

Notice the bread first, then see the brands in the stores, on the delivery wagons, and clothes lines. Sperry's flour is all right, and the sacks speak louder than words.

After several weeks' outing at Bandon, the Wizard Oil company will play in I. O. O. F. hall throughout fair week. Remember they give no fake show, but a thoroughly clean and entertaining performance at remarkably low prices.

W. A. Wooliever, district deputy head consul of the Modern Woodmen of America has moved his family to this city and will reside here for a season. He will organize a camp of Modern Woodmen here. Mr. Wooliever is an artist and an expert penman and will have some of his work on exhibition at the fair.

The Wizard Oil Company, which occupies I. O. O. F. hall next week is here for the first time and it may be well to explain that this company is an organization traveling over the country and giving excellent entertainments at low prices. The primary object of the show is to advertise Wizard Oil, but the theatrical part of the program is strictly first-class, the advertising features simply enabling them to give a better performance for the admission fee charged.

You can't eat enough in a week to last you a year, and you can't advertise on that plan either.

Wm. Sherrard, of Sumner, was in town Tuesday for the first time in over a year.

The Flyer has been on Christensen & Johnson's ways this week for renovation and repair, while the Blanco has been taking her run.

Senator Hamlin with his Kentucky minstrels drew a good house at I. O. O. F. hall last Saturday night, and the show was perhaps as good as could be expected. We say perhaps.

People that advertise only once in three months forget that most folks cannot remember anything longer than seven days.

Our Tenmile correspondent wrote last week that J. H. Miller was out there, "trying to kill some game." From the looks of the carcass which hung in his store the first of this week, it would appear that he succeeded.

Alex Campbell, Anson Rogers, Jr., and Tobin Cox returned last week from a fortnights camping trip in the wilds of Coos and Curry counties. They traveled over 200 miles, had all the game and fish they could eat, and enjoyed their trip hugely. The night of the thunder storm they were camped on a small prairie on top of a mountain and the lightning struck several trees in the surrounding forest, giving the boys an electrical entertainment not down on the bills.

Every newspaper treasures up in its memory the names of its friends and likewise its enemies. It seldom overlooks an opportunity to assist the former, but it never goes out of its way to boost the latter. Human nature is pretty much the same elsewhere. People who show the newspaper man kindness never make a better investment or one that more surely pays them a hundred fold sooner or later. As it has been truly said, there comes a time in the life of every man when he needs his home paper and needs it badly.—Ex.
