On Monday afternoon George Yoakam, of Coos river was fataly gored by a bull, and was later found dead near the spot where it occurred.

About 2 o'clock in the afternoon he started out with his dog to drive out of his pasture a bull 9.00 Devotional, M. C. Mill- belonging to one of his neighbors. He took an axe and a hammer to 9.20 Address-The Bible and repair the tence, and said he would be back in an hour or so. As he did not return search was instituted and about five o'clock Teachers' Training and Normal the body was found by his son,

From the surroundings, it was Rev. J. M. Huater, evident that Mr. Koakam had tried to head the bull, to drive him out, when the animal had charged him. The bull was a two-yeur-old with sharp horns and he gored his victim once in Latest Designs of Wall Paper, the lower part of the abdomen. Mr. Yoak am then made his way into some brush near by and when found was in a kneeling posture with his back against a og, the body being not yet
