MATRON AND MAID.

Mrs. Nancy T. Gage, wife of the governor of California, married Mr. Gage while he was still a struggling and youthful member of the Los Angeles bar.

Elizabeth de Belle, an Atlanta young woman, is making a distinguished name in law practice in Chicago. She recently won a case involving real estate valued at $100,000.

"There is something always in my mind that needs improvement," says Miss Cutler, "something that I can learn." This is a whole lesson for young girls to self-sufficient slingers.

Mrs. Hendry B. Ives of New Haven has given $10,000 to the Young Men's Christian association of that city for a library and at her death will bequeath $20,000 more, amounting giving annually the income of that amount.

Empress Charlotte of Mexico, widow of the ill-fated Maximilian, has just passed her sixty-second birthday. To the new generation the surprising tragedy that deprived her of her husband and her reason seems more years away than her 62.

Mrs. Elvira Mason, widow of David Mason, a millionaire resident of Bristol, N. H., has given that town $10,000 toward endowing a home for the aged and adds that the gift will be increased from time to time as the work on the home proceeds.

One of the unique occupations for women is that now followed by Mrs. Page, who owns and directs a large kindling wood factory in a town in Maine. She employs nearly 40 men constantly and personally superintends the running of the plant.

The Sargent prize at Harvard, awarded for the best metrical translation of one of the odes of Horace, was won this year by Miss Norma Waterbury, the daughter of a missionary of the Baptist board in India. Miss Waterbury is in her first year in Radcliffe.

Miss Elizabeth Alden Curtis, who was married the other day to Rev. Clinton Brenton of Hartford, is a niece of Attorney General Griggs and has attracted considerable attention by her literary work, which includes a rendering of the "Rubaiyat" of Omar Khayyam.

THE END OF THE PLAY.

The latest play to be named after a state is called "Pennsylvania." Walker Whiteside will be starred next season in "Robert of Sicily." "Francesca da Rimini" will be revived on an elaborate scale by Otis Skinner next season.

David Bispham writes from abroad that he is to create the title role in "Cyrano de Bergerac."
Mudge Lessing has gone into vaudeville. She is the headliner at the Alhambra theater, London.

Elly West, as he is familiarly known, of the well-known minstrels, is ill, the result of too much smoking.
It is said that Rose Coghlan is soon to ask for a divorce from her husband, John T. Sullivan, a well-known actor.

A first folio edition of Shakespeare's works was sold at auction the other day for $1,750. This breaks the record.
The last performance at Koster & Bial's, the well-known New York music hall of that name, was given recently.

Kathie Schmitt, the actress, at one time said to be the morganatic wife of the emperor of Austria, has been engaged to appear in New York next season.

Some Georgia Nuggets.
There's always life in the old land. The trouble is you have to dig to find it.

The motto is, "Make hay while the sun shines." But you can't accomplish it with an umbrella in one hand and a palmetto fan in the other.
Folks who are always finding fault with this world are the first to send for the doctor to keep 'em from going to the other.

The man who hopes for the best may finally get to the worst, but as a rule he gets there whistling.—Atlanta Constitution.

Whalebones.
Whalebones, which are one of the expensive items on dressmakers' bills, can be used many times over. Those that are bent the worst will straighten after a few hours of soaking in cold water.

An Alibi.

"Has my Willie been in swimming here today?" asked Willie's angry father.

"No, sir!" replied the biggest boy in the water.
"Are you sure?"
"Sure. Why, it was as much as he could do to keep from drowning, but we got him out all right. He's resting over there in the bushes now."—Philadelphia Press.

His Advantage.
"I have played a desperate game, and I have lost," remarked the stage villain just before his final disappearance.

"But you are a darn sight better off than we are," murmured a tired looking man in the front row. "We paid money to get in."—Boston Transcript.

An Explanation.
Little Willie—Say, pa, why is it wrong to call a man a liar?

Pa—Because, my son, if he isn't it will hurt his feelings, and if he is the chances are he will hurt yours.—Boston Traveler.
