

ASTHMA CURE FREE

Asthmalene Brings Instant Relief and Permanent Cure in all Cases.

SENT ABSOLUTELY FREE ON RECEIPT OF POSTAL. Write your name and address plainly.

There is nothing like Asthmalene. It brings instant relief, even in the worst cases. It cures when all else fails.

The Rev. C. F. WELLS, of Villa Ridge, Ill., says: "Your trial bottle of Asthmalene restored in good condition. I cannot tell you how thankful I feel for the good derived from it. I was a slave, chained with painful sore throat and Asthma for ten years. I despaired of ever being cured. I saw your advertisement for the cure of this dreadful and tormenting disease, Asthma, and thought you had over-spoken yourselves, but resolved to give it a trial. To my astonishment, the trial acted like a charm. Send me a full sized bottle."

Rev. Dr. Morris Wechsler, Rabbi of the Cong. Bnai Israel.

DR. TAFT BROS. MEDICINE CO.

Gentlemen: Your Asthmalene is an excellent remedy for Asthma and Hay Fever, and its composition alleviates all troubles which combine with Asthma. Its success is astonishing and wonderful.

REV. DR. MORRIS WECHSLER, AVON SPRING, N. Y., Feb. 2, 1901.

Gentlemen: I wrote this testimonial from a sense of duty, having tested the wonderful effect of your Asthmalene for the cure of Asthma. My wife has been afflicted with spasmodic asthma for the past 12 years. Having exhausted my own skill as well as many others, I changed to see your sign upon 130th street, New York. I at once ordered a bottle of Asthmalene. My wife commenced taking it about the 1st of November. I very soon noticed a radical improvement. After using one bottle her asthma has disappeared and she is entirely free from all symptoms. I feel that I can conscientiously recommend the medicine to all who are afflicted with this distressing disease.

Yours Respectfully, O. D. PHELPS, M. D.

Dr. Taft Bros. Medicine Co. Feb. 5, 1901.

Gentlemen: I was troubled with Asthma for 22 years. I have tried numerous remedies, but they have all failed. I ran across your advertisement and started with a trial bottle. I found relief at once. I have since purchased your full-sized bottle and I can ever grateful. I have family of four children, and for six years was unable to work. I am now in the best of health and am doing business every day. This testimonial you can make such use of as you see fit.

Home address, 235 Livingston street. S. RAHBAHL, 67 East 124th St. City.

Trial bottle sent absolutely free on receipt of postal. Do not delay. Write at once, addressing DR. TAFT BROS. MEDICINE CO., 70 East 130th St., N. Y. City.

OREGON'S NEWSPAPER LAW

In the laws of Oregon of 1885, appears the following on page 30, which protects every citizen from being imposed upon by publishers of newspapers or periodicals, either in the state or elsewhere. Everybody should save this copy of the law for protection against such attempts:

SECTION 1. That whenever any person, company or corporation owning or controlling any newspaper or periodical of any kind, or wherever any editor or proprietor of any such newspaper or periodical, shall mail or send any such newspaper or periodical to any person or persons in this State without first receiving an order for said newspaper or periodical from such person or persons to whom said newspaper or periodical is mailed or sent, shall be deemed to be a gift, and no debt or obligation shall accrue against such person or persons, whether said newspaper or periodical is received by the person or persons to whom it is sent or not.

When you wake up with a bad taste in your mouth, go at once to Red Cross drug store and get a free sample of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. One or two doses will make you well. They also cure biliousness, sick headache and constipation.

Piecing.

That's a word which may not be in the dictionary in this sense of its use, but which is in very common use in some sections of the country. "She's always piecing" they say of the woman who runs to the cupboard at irregular hours and eats a piece of pie, cake, or some other dainty. This irregular eating is one of the chief causes of dyspepsia and "weak" stomach.

Diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition are completely cured by the use of Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It increases the supply of rich, pure blood, and gives the body vitality and vigor.

"A year ago I was feeling very poorly," writes Mrs. Lizzie Adams, of 135 Belmont Avenue, Brooklyn, N. Y. "I had a very poor appetite and I did not sleep at night. I could not eat, but would have to eat without even feeling the food. Changing to lean from a friend who used your 'Golden Medical Discovery' for a disease similar to mine, I thought I would give the medicine a trial, and I can hardly express the benefit received from it. The first dose seemed to do me good. My appetite returned and I was able to eat heartily. I have improved so much since taking the 'Golden Medical Discovery' I do not look like the same person. Am today well and strong—the result of taking six bottles of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery."

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, paper covers, is sent free on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

At this writing it looks as though Admiral Schley need not call any of his witnesses to clear himself of the absurd charges which the court of inquiry is investigating at his request. The witnesses called against him seem to be all that he needs. While they are unable to testify to any facts to support the charges of cowardice and insubordination and inefficiency on Schley's part, they have been obliged to disclose many facts which show that Schley has never been treated half-way white by the Sampson clique. It has been shown that before Cervera's fleet was located much information that would have helped Schley to locate them was withheld from him, apparently for fear that he would take the glory of finding them away from Sampson. And more deplorable still, they have since tried to make it appear that all this information was given him and that he failed to act upon it. Again, they have tried to make it appear that cowardice prevented him from exposing his ships to the fire of the shore batteries—when he had positive orders from the navy department not to do so. In fact, the old man is coming out of the investigation with flying colors, as he came out of the battle of Santiago, where he gave and received more actual hard knocks than any other American ship, and he will leave the Sampson forces in much the same condition that he left Cervera's.

INDICTMENT OF SCHLEY

An exchange suggests that the prospect of Secretary Long which practically amounts to an indictment of Admiral Schley, should have been amended to state the real offense of Admiral Schley, which it summarizes as follows and which makes mightily interesting reading for the American people.

He destroyed all the Spanish ships so completely that not one of them could be saved even for scrap iron.

He failed to wait for the return of Admiral Sampson, who was off on a picnic.

He did not relinquish the command to "Fighting Bob" Evans, who had sought refuge in the conning tower of the Iowa.

He did not send any braggart message to the American people.

He did not let any Spanish ships or any Spanish sailor get away. He bagged them all.

He did not leave anything for anybody else to do.

He did not lose his own ship or any other ship belonging to the United States navy.

He did not fail to do his full duty, even though it was plain to him as it was to every body else, that he was not in favor with the navy department.

He made the remark, contrary to the known wishes of the ad-

Blood.

We live by our blood, and on it. We thrive or starve, as our blood is rich or poor.

There is nothing else to live on or by.

When strength is full and spirits high, we are being refreshed, bone muscle and brain, in body and mind, with continual flow of rich blood.

This is health. When weak, in low spirits, no cheer, no spring, when rest is not rest and sleep is not sleep, we are starved; our blood is poor; there is little nutriment in it.

Back of the blood, is food, to keep the blood rich. When it fails, take Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil. It sets the whole body going again—man woman and child.

With a long time allowance Sampson was still too late for the fun at Santiago and never even had an opportunity of seeing Schley make that memorable loop which he is now completing. Servera saw it.

DR. DRIVER'S PLAN

Rev. I. D. Driver, the well-known Politico-Methodist war-horse, suggests the following method of dealing with anarchists. There is too much common sense in it to allow of its ever being put in practice.

Separate anarchists from all governments to which they are opposed. Infinite decrees give to every free being the right of choice and compel him to accept the result. Then give them their desire, under conditions that confine the result of their choice to themselves alone, and where others who do not share their opinions and practice will not be compelled to suffer for results of teachings to which they were opposed.

The October Outing

The October number begins a New Mechanical Life for the magazine. In paper, printing and in general make-up, it becomes the equal of any high-class magazine on the market. In contents this month's number is peculiarly seasonable. There are entertaining papers for sportsmen on the Ruffed Grouse, Woodcock, Prairie chicken and Wild Turkey shooting, and a very practical article on how to make duck decoys and how to set them out.

There is, too, a particularly interesting animal Character Study of the Black Bear, and a reproduction in Colors of the Okapi, a newly discovered beast of the African forests. A very important paper of The Making of a Strong Man, with some startling photographic illustrations, will interest every man who seeks to improve his physique. Not the least valuable feature of this number is a Digest of the Game Laws of the United States and Canada, in which at a glance may be learned the open and closed season of all game birds and animals.

Stricken With Paralysis

Henderson Grimett, of this place, was stricken with partial paralysis and completely lost the use of one arm and side. After being treated by an eminent physician for quite a while without relief, my wife recommended Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and after using two bottles of it he is almost entirely cured.—GEO. R. McDONALD, Man, Logan county, W. Va. Several other very remarkable cures of partial paralysis have been effected by the use of this liniment. It is most widely known, however, as a cure for rheumatism, sprains and bruises. For sale by John Preuss.

No More Use For The Bull

A catch from bayonne to the Paris Figaro describes a bull fight that occurred there Sunday, in which an automobile replaced the picador. The novelty drew in enormous crowd, but seven bulls in succession turned tail and fled at the sight of the automobile.

The President's Dog.

It was a rainy, dreary day, soon after Mr. Roosevelt's return to Washington, and after a busy morning the president and his secretary started out for a walk. Just outside the door lay a homeless, friendless dog, as close to the wall as he could get, his body curled up into the smallest possible bunch to avoid the rain and possible observation. As the two men emerged from the door he looked up apprehensively to see if a kick or a "Be off with you, now!" would compel him to beat a rapid retreat. But nothing of the sort occurred. Mr. Roosevelt's expressive face took on a pitying and kindly look, and bending down, he stroked the animal's head and pulled him gently by the ears. "Poor doggie, haven't you any master?" he inquired. Then he went back into the house, and the dog, with instinctive understanding of the situation, trotted close at his heels. The President ordered that the wail should be taken to the kitchen and given a good meal; and it is said that that the dog will be the dog of the White House during this administration.

The Inter-Ocean Aptly says that the enemies of Admiral Schley started in to prove that, as "Historian" Maclay put it, the victor Santiago was a crafty and a coward. They had to abandon this line of attack at once. Then they were quite sure they could prove that he lacked decision and would not obey orders. Confession by their own tools established the fact that whatever indecision he may have shown was due to the fact that orders and information sent to other commanders never were delivered to him. Now they are resting their case wholly on the last desperate hope that they can show that he was at least "confused" during the battle of Santiago. Perhaps he was, but where is the Spanish fleet now?
