The way we do it.

There are different ways of doing business. One way is to make as much out of customers while they are in the store as possible. Another is to give them the best value for their money. The first way is about as sensible as the man who killed the goose that laid the golden eggs. Try our business methods for a while and see if we can't please each other.

Campbell & Eickworth.

The Women of Woodcraft will give a grand Ghost dance at I. O. O. F. hall on Halloween night Oct. 31st. Particulars will be announced later. The ladies of this popular order never fail to give the finest times possible. Good music and an enjoyable evening is in store for those attending. Don't miss the hit of the season.

The Mandalay came in the bay Sunday with freight for Coquille, owing to low water on the Coquille bar. She came in here drawing 8 feet of water and Capt. Reed thought it was dangerous to try to cross the Coquille bar until the shoals had worked off some.

A Dental Surgery Case

W. F. Riley of Port Orford, was in the city this week, having come up to have a surgical operation performed. He was afflicted with an ulceration of an old tooth which was broken off in his jaw and had been grown over for several years. Dr. Toye extracted the root and has been treating it several days. Mr. Riley was advised to go to San Francisco by the local physicians at his home to have his jaw operated upon for a disease of the bone. He speaks very highly of Dr. Toye and is satisfied he has saved him an unnecessary expense and an unpleasant disfigurement, which would have resulted from a surgical operation on his jaw. He came up overland via Empire and will return via Myrtle Point on Saturday.

Wemon Of Woodcraft Entertain.

The ladies of Coos Bay Circle No. 164, W. of W. entertained a number of invited guests very pleasantly Monday evening after the regular meeting of the circle. Progressive whist was the order of the evening and those who did not play whist amused themselves with a table game of croquet. After the playing of ten hands of whist, the scores were reckoned up and prizes were awarded to Mrs. Nellie Owen and Mr. Ed. Cole, the former receiving an emerald hatpin and the latter a shaving glass. Mrs. Tibbetts and Wm. Richards took the booby prizes. Refreshments were served and then Miss Lizzie Hazelton gave a recitation in character, which was highly amusing. The evening was greatly enjoyed by all present.

Arm Broken

Dad Needham, of Salem, well known at Coquille, who painted the courthouse and danced with all the pretty girls at Coquille City while the housewarming was given, had the misfortune of having his arm broken the other day, while bringing unruly Jersey calf into the barn, when the critter concluded he would not stay in the same house with Dad and made a dive through the door. Some how the rope became entangled in his foot and threw him down breaking his arm. Dad is one of the huskiest men in Oregon for his age being close to 80. He frequently speaks of his old Coquille City acquaintances made during his stay there.

A Jolly Good Time.

A launch party of about 20 went to The Maze last Sunday, where a fine time was had, picnicking, singing, speechmaking and every imaginable thing for recreation and entertainment was had and all enjoyed a very pleasant time. Those who were there: Miss Snyder, Maude Balch, Mrs. Beal, Miss Ruby and Edna Weider, Miss Tollie Cordis, Miss Joe Cordes, Mrs. Alice Grimes, Mrs. W. A. Wooliever, Mr. Smyth, Mr. Rollinson, Mrs. Beal, Mr. Wilkinson, W. A. Wooliever, Tom Beal, Alton Grimes, Russel Berl,

A Distinct Triumph

Our medical batteries, for the application of electricity to any part of the body in need of it, have gained a distinct triumph in this branch of the healing science, give satisfaction where ever used and are endorsed by physicians. Batteries for home use $5.00 up; larger ones for office use, $25 up. The shock is in the electric current—not in the price.

Chatter of Accidents

Henry Johnson was severely bruised at Gage's logging camp last Saturday by being caught between the cars and the landing. He was brought to the hospital here and is improving.

On Wednesday, Wm. Richards, while playing a piece of machinery for the Crescent Coal & Navigation Co., at the Bay City mill caught the little finger of his left hand in the machinery and it was badly mashed. Dr. McCormac thinks he will save the member.

John Cowan seriously injured his right hand in Davis' logging camp by log hook accidentally catching his hand tearing it through the fleshy part of his hand. He will probably be laid up for a month.

Mrs. S. B. Cathcart, who has been laid up with an attack of muscular rheumatism, is getting better.

W. Mabee, second mate on the schooner Gem while at sea on the way up, fell and sprained his ankle and is now in the hospital.

Harry Brainard is still suffering a good deal from the wound in his arm. There are no symptoms of blood poisoning, but some foreign substance seems trying to work out.

Coos Bay Cranberries

If the people of the Bay do not know that some of the finest cranberries in the world are raised right here, it is time they were finding it out and appreciating it. The cranberries now being marketed by C. D. McFarlin are far superior to any that find their way into the valley markets from any source. They are richer in color, the skins are much tenderer and the flavor is far superior, and this in an ad for McFarlin, either.
