

PERSONAL AND LOCAL.

Tide Tables at F. P. Norton's.

Christmas Kodaks at the Red Cross.

The steamers were all here together again this week.

New guns and fresh ammunition at Murphy's.

A new smoke stack has been put up at the ship yard.

The best stock of Holiday novelties at the Red Cross.

Mrs. B. M. Rook is visiting friends on Catching slough.

Don't forget the Fireman's Ball Xmas night.

Two papers for the price of one. See our clubbing list.

John Noah, one of the old settlers of Coos river, is seriously ill in this city.

Ladies' and Gents' watches, the finest stock in the country at the Red Cross.

There will be a two-weeks vacation of the Marshfield school, over the holidays.

An acceptable present is a nice rug for the floor. Christensen & Johnson have them.

August Eickworth of the Coquille Bulletin, was in town the first of the week.

When you want some extra nice cheese call on your grocer for Summer creamery full cream cheese. 68 tf

The new 120 horse power bulldonkey was taken to the Simpson logging camp on Daniels creek this week.

Any lady looking for an appropriate Christmas present for a gentleman will find a fine assortment of fine pipes at Schetters & Bradbury's.

Sol Wise, formerly of this place is very low with typhoid fever at Fresno, Cal., and is not expected to live.—Myrtle Point Enterprise.

Mrs. E. J. Masters is conducting dressmaking parlors in the Marks building, and solicits a call from ladies desiring good work at reasonable prices.

The Eckley correspondent of the Myrtle Point Enterprise tells about the tracks of a bare-footed giant being seen in that vicinity. That Curry county wild man ought to be abated.

There will be midnight mass at the Catholic church Christmas eve, third mass at 10:30, also special music for this occasion, Christmas crib and usual decorations. All are invited to attend.

H. T. McIntyre, St. Paul, Minn., who has been troubled with a disordered stomach, says, "Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets do me more good than anything I have ever taken." For sale by John Preuss.

Selected Italian and Petite prunes, thoroughly dry, wholesome and unductored fruit, at 5 cents per lb. I dry and recommend them. One order will convince you. Liberal discount to dealers and others who buy $10.00 worth.—R. D. Sanford, Coquille Oregon. 12-7-1f

You will find it at the Red Cross. The very book you want for Christmas; also a full line of Gibson's Sketch books.

Judging by the preparations being made, the Fireman's Ball Xmas night will be one of the best things of the season.

Smith Brothers have completed the ditch at their Salmon mountain mine and have been doing some ground sluicing.

Christensen & Johnson's new stock of furniture contains numerous articles suitable for Christmas presents.

The Eureka football team came up on the Alliance accompanied by quite a number of visitors from that city.

PUTNAM FADELESS DYES are the brightest, fastest and easiest to use. Sold by John Preuss, 10c. per package.

It is reported that a pauper carrying a pair of lamps the size of saucers visited the south Coos river hatchery one night last week.

New lines of heating stoves and cook stoves at Murphy's.

The Columbia went down Sunday and stretched another cable from the Baroda to the anchors.

G. W. Dimmick of Roseburg, clerk of Douglas county, made a flying trip to the Bay this week, and visited his brother, Hon. T. M. Dimmick.

Any one wanting pure A No. 1 Leaf Lard from strictly corn-fed hogs can find it on sale at the Marshfield Cash Meat Market.

Bargains in Toys at Sengstacken's.

T. Wyman, of Cape Arago, was in town several days this week.

For repairs to your boots and shoes go to Peter Clausen. First-class shoemaker employed. Prices reasonable.

Frank Wyman, who is now in the government service at Port Robinson, is visiting his father, T. Wyman, of the Cape Arago light house, having been granted a thirty day furlough.

Bedrock prices on shoes at Peter Clausen's, next door to Blanco hotel.

The Brunswick and Marshfield, leaving here on last Friday, arrived in San Francisco Sunday.

A few choice Christmas boxes of Lowrey's Confections you know where!

Miss Mary Black of Sumner, was shopping in town Thursday.

W. P. Murphy carries a full line of repairs for Home Comfort steel ranges.

Robert Kruger, has been confined to his bed with pneumonia since last Saturday, but we are glad to hear is recovering.

John S. Coke is having a new fence built around his house on 4th street.

Claud Nasburg came home from California for holiday vacation.

Cut Glass and Statuary at Sengstacken's.

Call at Christensen & Johnson's on your Christmas shopping tour.

You can find no better gift for an old person than one of Christensen & Johnson's easy chairs.

Ladies will find the nicest Christmas presents suitable for gentlemen at the Red Cross.

Murphy has a fine assortment of fancy crockery, suitable for Christmas presents.

Wm. Denning got his finger mashed in a draw-head while coupling cars Tuesday.

Fine stock of Albums and Plush goods at Sengstacken's.

Alliance is advertised to leave Portland Saturday evening and leave here Tuesday.

Capt. Burns, who has charge of the work on the ship Baroda has succeeded in laying the small cable; and is now preparing for the full moon tide, about December 25.—Bandon Recorder.

Anything you want in the grocery line, at Flanagan's.

H. H. McPherson visited the Coquille this week.

The Bulletin says that chicken thieves are rampant at Coquille City.

Maskey's Fine Candies in packages and baskets for Christmas at Sengstacken's.

The intersection of C and 4th streets is filled up to the level of the former.

Mrs. J. P. Wilson and Mrs. E. H. Beyers, of Sumner, were doing their Christmas shopping in town this week.

Notice the special ads of Wm. Nasburg, George & Tibbitts, Christensen & Johnson, F. P. Norton, Campbell & Eickworth, F. M. Freidberg, Thos. Howard, Coos Bay Iron Works and others in this issue. Readers of the MAIL can make no mistake in patronizing these enterprising business men.

Encourage the boys who are giving their time and doing hard work for the protection of your homes against fire, by attending the Firemen's Ball on Christmas night.

F. M. Freidberg is putting down a large well to furnish water for electric light works. An ample supply has been obtained, but digging is being continued and the sand is being used by Dr. Horsfal on his lawn.

GROCERIES

From a Box of Sardines to a Sack of Sugar.

Anything you want from the grocery line can be supplied from our store.

Orders Carefully Filled And Promptly Delivered.

Our values make it worth while

All our stock is Fresh and Pure. We buy in quantities that insure quick and constant renewal of stock. We want your grocery trade.

For Christmas

Fresh Fruits, Nuts and the Purest Confectionery.

CAMPBELL & EICKWORTH.

If good treatment and good goods are what you want, trade at Sacchi's.

Dr. E. E. Straw, late of Klamath Falls, has located in Marshfield and is fitting up offices in the Sengstacken & Smith building. Dr. Straw visited this section last Summer, and being favorably impressed with the location, made his plans to move here. He brings a valuable acquisition to the medical and surgical resources of the community in the form of an X-ray machine, a handsome piece of apparatus which look capable of doing most anything.

Finest line of Christmas candies in town, at Flanagan's.

See Norton's Christmas ad.

L. G. Masters has gone to Grants Pass to rattle for the Modern Woodmen.

Fancy Jardineires, at Murphy's

J. A. Black, of Myrtle Point, sent over on Monday's train some 1300 boxes of apples for shipment.

Handsome Parlor Lamps at Murphy's.

Mrs. F. E. Palmer, of Bandon, took the steamer here on her way to Massachusetts, taking the remains of her late husband for burial there.

Don't forget that Norton has the largest stock of Christmas toys in town.

Miss Eva Wilson is conducting dressmaking parlors over Magnus & Matson's store. Ladies wanting first-class work are invited to call.

Elegant Water Sets at Murphy's.

Closing out sale of Dolls, Toys, Wagons and Children's goods at Sengstacken's.

BORN
ANDERSON—In Marshfield, Or., Dec. 16th, to the wife of Jacob Anderson, a son.

FOR SALE
The machinery complete for the manufacture of five tons of ice daily. Everything in first-class order. Run only three seasons, address,
JAMES MAGUIRE,
12-14 2nd St. Salem, Or.

MARRIED
KOTKA — JOHNSON. — At Marshfield, Dec. 14, 1901, by Rev. B. F. Bengtson, H. A. Kotka and Miss Hilma Louisa Johnson.
The ceremony took place in I. O. O. F. hall. A large number of invited guests were present and these were treated to a banquet on a large and elegant scale. Dancing and merry-making prolonged the festivities until morning.

Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets
Try them
When you feel bilious.
When your liver is torpid.
When you have no appetite.
When you have a headache.
When you feel dull after eating.
When your bowels are constipated.
When you have a bad taste in your mouth.
They will improve your appetite, cleanse and invigorate your stomach and regulate your liver and bowels. For sale by John Preuss.