

Wright's Disease

The largest sum ever paid for a prescription, changed hands at San Francisco, Aug. 30, 1901. The transfer involved in coin and stock $112,500.00 and was paid by a party of business men for a specific for Bright's Disease and Diabetes, hitherto incurable diseases.

They commenced the serious investigation of the specific Nov. 15, 1900. They interviewed scores of the cured and tried it out on its merits by putting over three dozen cases on the treatment and watching them. They also got physicians to name chronic, incurable cases, and administered it with the physicians for judges. Up to Aug. 25, eighty seven per cent of the test cases were either well or progressing favorably.

There being only thirteen per cent of failures, the parties were satisfied and closed the transaction. The proceedings of the investigating committee and the clinical reports of the test cases were published and will be mailed free on application. Address JOHN J. FULTON COMPANY, 420 Montgomery St., San Francisco, Cal.

Her Ready Answer

It was at a dinner party. The bright young man found himself privileged to sit next to the young woman with beautiful arms and neck. He thought himself the most favored personage in the room. Suddenly his fair companion exhibited signs of nervousness. Two of his very best jokes saved for a special occasion, passed by unnoticed. Her face wore a look of alarm. Apprehensively the young man gazed at her, and meeting the look she said: "I am in misery." "In misery?" echoed the man. "Yes," she replied. "I was vaccinated the other day, and it has taken beautifully I could almost scream, it hurts so." The young man looked at the beautiful arms, and, seeing no mark there, said: "Why, where were you vaccinated?" "In Boston," she replied, the smile chasing away the look of pain. —The Boston Journal.

CURRY COUNTY

NAPOLEON OF FINANCE

We recently decided to engage moderately in the business of "local news dealer," and feel greatly elated at our success. We ordered a number of copies of the Holiday Oregonian, paying five cents each and sold five copies at ten cents each, which was apparently at a profit of 100 per cent. We mailed the copies said, paying 4 cents postage on each copy. We appeared to have still a large balance in our favor, but this was slightly reduced by the 2 cents postage we paid on the orders for papers. Thus the business has been so prosperous that we have decided that we have reached the point in that special line where we can, without special injury, to ourselves or those depending upon us, retire with credit. Having a few copies of that valuable edition left, we will dispose of them at cost, at our office, or by mail postage added. So hurry up, or we will dispose of them at 100 per cent below cost if not taken within a week. —Port Orford Tribune.

Crawford Wins Again

The case of M. R. Willis against A. M. Crawford, remanded from the supreme court for a new trial, again came up in circuit court in Roseburg last Friday. The Plaintiff says: "The jury returned almost instantly with a verdict for defendant, Crawford, thus ending another chapter in this long drawn out legal proceeding. There ought to be some way of choking off this using of the courts for the pressing of a grafting proposition or the gratifying of a personal grudge, as Willis has been using them against Crawford.

TENMILE ITEMS.

Luther Lighthall of Lake, had business at Templeton on Monday.

Charlie and Albina Coleman were among those who enjoyed the ball at Pleasant Point Saturday night.

Bill Gee and E. A. Taylor, the P. M., were visiting at the lake Saturday.

Mr. Miller the trapper reports game scarce on Eel lake.

Mrs. N. Peterson was visiting Mrs. J. W. Denson, Thursday.

Peter Robertson is having business on the bay this week.

"Skookum" Jerry, the old pioneer, has returned after an absence of several months and we are glad to have his smiling countenance among us.

J. E. Peterson, of May was visiting here this week, but predicts this to be his last trip for a while as he intends to go south in a few days on the Alliance, thus making his first dash out into the world outside of Coos county.

One of our ambitious and scholarly young men appears to be suffering from heart trouble and something that disturbs his peaceful slumber at night, judging from the following poem directed to a young lady a few days ago:

Sweet maid! Thy father's pet and hope,
Thy mother's joy and gladness;
To take thee from thy father's stroke,
Would leave the home in sadness;
Yet in my dreams thy face it shines,
Without thee I'm lonely.
O' love for thee my poor heart pines
For thee and thee only.

The sweet maid, for whose admiration this gem was produced, is the only unmarried member of a large family. She is in the midst of her teens, with rosy cheeks, ruby lips and a pair of handsome, captivating eyes, particularly to the poet.
