

H. P. WHITNEY PASSES AWAY IN SAN DIEGO

Was for Many years One of Coos Bay's Leading Business Men

A letter received by Mrs. E. O'Connell from her husband, who is in San Diego, brings the news that H. P. Whitney died on Jan. 31st. Mr. Whitney has been sick for some time, and some weeks ago his condition was considered very serious. Later reports were that he was improving, but it seems that he took a turn for the worse.

For many years H. P. Whitney was one of the prominent business men of Coos Bay. He came here in the sixties and engaged in the butcher business. His slaughter house was on Pony slough just above the point where the wagon road now crosses, and the meat was taken down the slough in a small boat and delivered to the different points on the bay. Eugene O'Connell, then a young man, laid the foundation of his present competence attending to this branch of the business.

Mr. Whitney had shops at Empire City and Marshfield. He did the most of his own cattle-buying, and thus made the acquaintance of all the settlers in this part of the state, by whom he was held in universal esteem.

He was a shrewd and upright business man, public-spirited and progressive, and always ready to extend a helping hand to the unfortunate.

In 1884 he sold out his business here to Geo. Flanagan, and removed to San Diego, where he bought some 40 acres of land close in to the city. This was just before the boom, and when the wild rise in real estate values came Mr. Whitney's fortune increased by leaps and bounds. While he did not unload on the top of the market, it is understood that the collapse of the boom did not embarrass him.

After going to San Diego Mr. Whitney was married to a charming lady considerably his junior, and in a handsome home in the southern suburbs of the city he was always pleased to entertain any of his old Coos Bay friends. Three daughters were the fruit of this happy union.

At the time of his death Mr. Whitney was 71 years of age.

Child Burned.

The 2-year-old little son of George Woodward suffered some severe burns of his lower limb and right foot yesterday by falling over a kettle containing hot liquor which had been set on the floor. The little fellow's injuries are very painful but not considered dangerous.

BILIOUS COLIC

H. Seever, a carpenter and builder of Kenton, Tenn., when suffering intensely from an attack of bilious colic, sent to a near by drug store for something to relieve him. The druggist sent him a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, three doses of which effected a permanent cure. This is the only remedy that can be depended upon in the most severe cases of colic and cholera morbus. Most druggists know this and recommend it when such a medicine is called for. For sale by John Preuss.

Card of Thanks.

The undersigned wishes to publicly express his thanks to Mrs. C. E. Edwards, Thomas Blain, Chas. Rodin, Mr. Price and those other friends, of Allegany and vicinity, who were so kind and helpful to his late brother, Robert Haskell, and so ready with assistance after his sudden death.

New Camp of M. W. A.

W. A. Wocliever received the charter Tuesday for the new camp of Modern Woodmen of America, to be organized at North Bend. The matter of instituting the camp will be deferred for a short time on account of sickness. The new camp will be known as North Bend Camp No. 10, 443. The tremendous growth of the M. W. A. will be seen by the fact that since the camp here was organized there have been added nearly 2000 new camps.

IT SCARES PEOPLE

Who come of a consumptive family when they begin to cough and the lungs are painful. But it is a fact beyond dispute that consumption is not and cannot be inherited. The microbe which breeds disease must also be received by the individual before consumption can be developed.

Men and women who have been afflicted with obstinate coughs, bronchitis, bleeding of the lungs, emaciation and weakness, have been perfectly and permanently cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It cures the cough, heals the lungs, and builds up the body with solid flesh.

"When I commenced taking your medicine eighteen months ago, my health was completely broken down," writes Mrs. Cora L. Sunderland of Chaneyville, Calvert Co., Md. "At times I could not even walk across the room without pain in my chest. The doctor who attended me said I had lung trouble, and that I would never be well again. At last I concluded to try Doctor Pierce's medicine. I bought a bottle of 'Golden Medical Discovery,' took it, and soon commenced to feel a little better, then you directed me to take both the 'Golden Medical Discovery' and the 'Favorite Prescription,' which I did. Altogether I have taken eighteen bottles of 'Golden Medical Discovery,' twelve of the 'Favorite Prescription,' and five vials of 'Pelle's.' I am now almost entirely well, and do all my work without any pain whatever, and can run with more ease than I could formerly walk."

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, in paper covers, is sent free on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps to cover expense of mailing only. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.
