

Tide Tables at F. P. Norton's.

The keel was laid yesterday for the new schooner to be built in the Marshfield shipyard.

Nothing better than Red Cross Expectorant for that troublesome cough; try it.

John Swanson and Chas. Nab brought a boatload of potatoes from North slough Thursday for the Marshfield market.

Sweat or fruit acids will not discolor goods dyed with PUTNAM FADELESS DYES.—Sold by John Preuss.

A large raft of logs came down Coos river yesterday on the way to North Bend from the Coos Bay Logging Co's. camp on Daniels creek.

Charlie Smith, who left here four months ago for Eureka, returned this week. He reports business dull all through Humboldt county.

Chas. Johnson of Willaunch slough brought a scow load of potatoes here for shipment to San Francisco, yesterday

The railing over the slough on the Fourth street bridge, which has been causing our reporter so much anxiety, has been fixed.

The launch Gasco is taking the Flyer's run between here and Empire. The Flyer is on the beach at North Bend being fitted with a new propeller.

Johnson & Wassen and Frank Tanner came to Empire Wednesday for a scow on which to load matchwood, which they are getting out on South slough for H. Sengstacken.

F. S. Dow's little boy while experimenting with his mother's sewing machine yesterday, got his thumb where the cloth ought to be, and ran the needle entirely through the member, nail and all.

The schooner Ivy, which arrived Wednesday, spoke the sealer Mary Taylor, from Victoria, about 100 miles west of Cape Blanco. The sealer reported all well on board and 224 seals taken.

J. J. Clinkenbeard and son Carl came down from Coos river Thursday for the purpose of getting medical aid for Carl, who was suffering with a large carbuncle on the back of his neck. Dr. Tower lanced the offending boil and they returned home on Coos river.

J. W. Bennett, expects to leave for Salem next Monday where he has business before the supreme court, being attorney for the plaintiff in the case of W. E. Bains vs. the C. C. R. & E. R. R. Co., which has been set for hearing Feb. 27th. J. S. Coke is the attorney for the defendant and expects to go to Salem direct from San Francisco, where he is at present.

Any one wanting pure A No. 1 Leaf Lard from strictly corn-fed hogs can find it on sale at the Marshfield Cash Meat Market.

The Free Trade finished loading lumber at the Stave mill Wednesday and left for Oakland the same day.

Vaccine for sale at the Red Cross drug store. Mail orders promptly filled

The schooners Ivy and Eliza Miller were towed up the bay and docked at Dean & Co's. wharf Wednesday. They are both from San Francisco, the former leaving last Friday and the latter left Sunday Feb. 6th.

County Assessor, J. S. Lawrence came over on the train from Coquille Wednesday to attend the anniversary of the K. of P. which took place here. He will return today.

A life boat and water tank for the new vessel building at Marshfield arrived Wednesday on the Eliza Miller. She also had a small cargo of iron and hay for the shipyard.

C. W. Paterson, who has been quite sick for some time, is still gaining, but he has concluded to go to San Francisco, where he will enter St. Luke's hospital in hope of a more rapid recovery. He intends to go down on next trip of the Arcata and will be accompanied by J. T. Hall.

The A. N. W. Club met at the elegant new home of Mrs. L. M. Noble and a profitable session was had. Many new designs of point lace are under way and nearing completion and the many beautiful pieces of this fabric being turned out by members of the club are a credit to that art. Next meeting the club will be entertained at the Blanco Hotel, the guests of Mrs. Frank Page.

Sherman Cutlip of Daniels creek had the misfortune to lose 3 cows and a calf, last Thursday. It is thought the animals died as a result of eating larkspur.

A can of printer's ink is not to be fooled with any more than a can of dynamite. Both are as effective and useful if used carefully, as they are dangerous and destruction, if used carelessly.

The schooner Falcon arrived Friday from San Francisco and docked at Dean & Co's wharf. She will be put on the beach in order to repair her rudder which worked loose on her trip up the coast, before loading lumber at Bay City.

L. W. Culberston, son of Wm. Culberston, of the North Fork arrived in town Friday on his way home, he having been away since October '93. The young man has been in the service of Uncle Sam a good portion of this time.—Coquille Herald.

J. B. Edlemen went to Myrtle Point, Friday, to assist G. A. Brown in planting some small salmon in the Coquille river. It is their intention to plant 200,000 more in that river next week.

BORN

TANNER—In Marshfield, Feb. 15th, 1902, to the wife of Frank Tanner, a son.

Genuine Christian Science.
Healing by absent treatment for sorrow, sin, bad habits, and every disease, no matter what; for those who are willing to live an honest life. No faith, or so-called religious life required. Terms within the means of all.
BARTLETT, 36 Geary St., San Francisco, Cal.

Quarantine Raised.
Coquille's ordinance, prohibiting public meetings during the prevalence of the smallpox epidemic in that city was declared off at a meeting of the council Wednesday evening and the public schools of Coquille will reopen Tuesday, February 25th.

HOLLAND'S BID ACCEPTED BY CITY COUNCIL

At a special meeting Wednesday evening, the city council accepted T. D. Holland's bid for improvement of Front street with all cedar caps, stringers and planking for $2,256.40.

Killed a She Bear With Two Cubs

T. V. Johnson of Ross' slough killed a 300 pound she bear Wednesday. She had two cubs which have not yet got their eyes open but are quite lively and he expects to raise them on milk. The mother bear was in prime condition and had a beautiful pelt. It is thought that this is one of those bears that raised Cain among the sheep in that neighborhood.

Pleasant Point Shipyard.

William Ross of Isthmus slough was in town Wednesday. Mr. Ross is contemplating the building of a schooner at Pleasant Point, where the steamer Santa Ana was built a few years ago. He expects to begin work in the near future, and it is to be hoped that nothing will interfere with the carrying out of his project. A resumption of operations at the Pleasant Point shipyard would mean thousands of dollars paid out for labor.

The work of raising the French Bark Henrietta was commenced at Astoria this week, by Hale & Kern, who bought the vessel and her cargo of redwood lumber. The holes in the hull will be covered, the hold pumped out, and the contractors expect no difficulty in raising and beaching the vessel.

Fruitgrowers Take Notice

John W. Green the Old reliable orchardist is again here to fix up the orchards and carried all diseased trees and do all work pertaining to the orchard. Pruning working on diseased trees, spraying and grafting a specialty. Mr. Green is well known throughout Coos county for reliable work and our orchardist will do well to secure his services.—Address, Marshfield.

Charles Smith of Ken'uck slough brought a scow load of potatoes to Marshfield Friday for shipment.

*"If we please you, tell others,
if we don't, tell us."*

GEORGE & TIBBETTS

Dry Goods, Clothing, Hats, Caps, Shoes and Gents' Furnishings.

Boys Clothing and Ladies' Furnishings, Misses' and Childrens' goods.	Laces, Ribbons, Embroideries, Corsets, Handkerchiefs and Fancy Goods.
--	---

Everything for Everybody.
Complete stock of all that is new in Spring and Summer goods to arrive

The Place ODD FELLOWS' Bldg.
Marshfield, Ore.

AGENTS FOR Standard Patterns, Thompson's Corsets,
Delsarte Corsets, Carlsons Carrier's Embroidery and Knitting Silks.

John W. Green the Orchardist of Lane county, is again in this vicinity to look after the orchards. Mr. Green comes highly recommended by those for whom he has done work. His charges are commensurate with the class of work which he does and thoroughly understands.

The Coos River made an early trip Friday morning for the purpose of bringing down G. M. Brown and 200,000 small salmon from the Coos river hatchery. The salmon were to be taken over on the train and planted in the Coquille river.

Buildings for a weather bureau station will be erected at North Head at the mouth of the Columbia. It is proposed by the department to employ wireless telegraphy between North Head and Astoria in reporting weather conditions and vessels arriving and departing.

If a big ad meant big business, and a little ad meant little business, then a big ad would be advisable always. But oftentimes the little fellows outstrip the larger ones.

Wm. Noble Jr. is building a home on 3rd street back of the residence of his father.

DIED

TAYLOR—In Marshfield, Feb. 21, 1902, Maxine Taylor, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Taylor, aged 19 days. Burial will take place at the Odd Fellow's cemetery at 2:30, o'clock Feb. 22, 1902, where Rev. R. C. Lee will conduct services.

Last Shall Be First

The fleet of six schooners which were all recently on the way from San Francisco for this port, seem inclined to give an illustration of a biblical expression. The last one to leave the city was the first to arrive here, coming up in four days, while the rest have been straggling in in the reverse order and the first to sail will be the last to come in.

WOMAN'S RELIEF

A really healthy woman has little pain or discomfort at the menstrual period. No woman needs to have any. Wine of Cardui will quickly relieve those smarting menstrual pains and the dragging head, back and side aches caused by falling of the womb and irregular menses.

WINE OF CARDUI

has brought permanent relief to 1,000,000 women who suffered every month. It makes the menstrual organs strong and healthy. It is the provision made by Nature to give women relief from the terrible aches and pains which blight so many homes.

GREENWOOD, LA., Oct. 14, 1900.
I have been very sick for some time. I was taken with a severe pain in my side and could not get any relief until I tried a bottle of Wine of Cardui. Before I had taken all of it I was relieved and I feel it my duty to say that you have a wonderful medicine.
Mrs. M. A. Yount.

For advice and literature, address, giving symptoms, "The Ladies' Advisory Department," The Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn.