

ANOTHER HARD JOLT

Dignity of Senate Suffers Again

MARYLAND COLLEAGUES NOW CALLING NAMES

President Withdraws Dinner Invitation to Tillman, who Makes Reply

Washington, Feb. 24.—Another family row occurred in the Senate today. McComas, of Maryland, charged Wellington, his colleague with deliberately having misstated President McKinley's words to him, which Wellington frequently declared caused him to vote for the peace treaty under a misapprehension.

McComas who was present during the interview between Wellington and President McKinley charged Wellington with prevarication.

Wellington was hot with anger and when he got the floor dared McComas to impugn his veracity.

He declared if McComas would say to him outside the senate chamber what he said this morning, he, Wellington, would say to him what he now restrained himself from saying out of respect for the dignity of the senate.

Pritchard, of North Carolina, introduced by request, McComas's resolution calling for an investigation of the charge made by Tillman that McComas had been improperly influenced in casting his vote for the ratification of the treaty of Paris.

The text of the president's letter to Tillman withdrawing his invitation to dinner with Prince Henry was made public this afternoon.

The president regrets that he is compelled to withdraw his invitation to dine at the White House.

In reply Senator Tillman sent a letter defending his course, saying that he could have done nothing else but resent McComas's words.

"I come," writes Tillman, "from a country where the lie direct calls for a duel." He continues, dueling is a custom in vogue among the Anglo Saxon race, and that the President himself, if antecedents count for anything under similar provocation would have acted as he did.

Victor, Colorado, Feb. 24th.—Five assay offices, two here, one at Cripple Creek and two at the gold field, were blown up with dynamite this morning, doing heavy damage and jeopardizing many lives.

The crimes are believed to be due to a preconcerted effort to rid the district of the high grade ore purchasing institution.

In every instance the destruction of the offices with their fine equipment of delicate balances was accomplished.

Victoria, B. C., Feb. 24th.—The Clipper R. I. Morse capsize off California coast on the 16th. The crew was saved, all but one man named Donaldson, by the steamer Canutila, which brings the first news of the disaster.

Washington, Feb. 24.—The supreme court today handed down a decision on the application of the State of Minnesota against the Northern Securities Company in favor of the company.

The gist of the decision is that the court has no jurisdiction.

It is asserted that there is no way in which the title of the state of Minnesota can be amended so as to bring it within the jurisdiction of the court.

A Profitable Investment

Farrin Heard From

TAKES AN INTEREST IN THE LIBBY PRIZE FIGHT

Writes a warning to the Promoters and will attend with Constable Bridges

The prize fight which has been advertised to come off at Libby today is likely to be transformed into an innocuous scientific sparring exhibition or boxing match, which, while answering the purpose, will not involve the participants in the toils of the law.

The Oregon statutes provide a penalty for engaging in a prize fight either as principal or abettor, and the penalty is a fine of from $1000 to $5000, or imprisonment from 1 to 5 years.

Deputy Prosecuting Attorney Farrin has been looking this matter up and has concluded that it is part of the duties of his office to take cognizance of the roped arena business at Libby. He accordingly sent last night to the party who was to pull off today's fight a letter of which the following is a copy:

To all persons concerned in or who intend to participate in a certain prize fight scheduled to take place at Libby, Coos county, Oregon, on the 23d day of February, 1902, Gentlemen:

I have been informed that a prize fight is scheduled to take place at Libby, in this county, on February 23, 1902. In relation thereto I beg to invite your attention to Section 1808 of Hill's Oregon Code, and further to state that it is my duty to institute proceedings against all persons violating any of the laws of the State of Oregon.

I have the honor to be Yours very truly, E. L. C. FARRIN, Deputy Prosecuting Attorney.

Not content with this, however, Mr. Farrin intends to go up to Libby accompanied by Constable Bridges and be on hand to see for himself whether the exhibition is such as to break the law. If it is, he will act accordingly.

Mr. Farrin is displaying a commendable energy in fulfilling what he conceives to be the duties of his office, and does not seem inclined to shirk the disagreeable or unpopular part of them.

NOTHING CRIMINAL ABOUT

LIBBY BOXING MATCH

The boxing match at Libby was pulled off Sunday afternoon as advertised, but it is said to have been a much less sanguine affair than had been anticipated, owing perhaps to the presence of Deputy Prosecuting Attorney Farrin and Constable Bridges.

These gentlemen went up in pursuance of the plan outlined in Sunday's daily, to see that the majesty of the law was not knocked out. They were very courteously received by the promoters of the afternoon's entertainment and were assured that it would be a boxing match, not a prize fight.

The attorney and the constable had neither authority nor desire to interfere with anything not contrary to law, and the program was carried out with them among the spectators.

Two bouts, of four and six rounds respectively were pulled off. 6 ounce gloves being used, and no great damage or excitement resulted.

New York's Preparations

PROGRAM FOR HIS STAY IN THIS COUNTRY

Steamer Bearing Distinguished Slow in Putting in her Appearance

New York, Feb. 22.—The day before the scheduled arrival of Prince Henry of Prussia and his suite has been a busy one for those interested in the reception and entertainment of the distinguished guest. Members of this committee and that committee have been scurrying and hurrying about all day in a frantic effort to complete the final details of their end of the arrangements. Decorators in many parts of the city are engaged in putting up flags and bunting and the city is fast blossoming out a mass of color. The main scheme of the decorations is the colors of the two nations interspersed and crowned with golden eagles. Another form of decoration is the Prince's portrait draped in bunting and exposed in windows. A great many bronze medallions are also exhibited. Fifth Avenue and Broadway do not monopolize the decorations. In the entire town and especially in the German districts, everything is decked out in honor of the occasion.

Thousands of flags of all sizes and descriptions fluttering from windows 40 or 50 feet above the ground. The next popular fad is a profusion of pictures of the Kaiser William.

The celebration drew one of the largest crowds ever assembled in New York. Hotels and boarding houses are taxed to the utmost with visitors, many of whom have journeyed hundreds of miles to witness the festivities. The gathering of so large a crowd might be thought a good opportunity for anarchists to perpetrate their nefarious work, but if they show their heads above the surface during Prince Henry's visit they are assured of a warm reception.

An elaborate system has been worked out by the United States secret service men, by which the whereabouts and purpose of every anarchist in the country is known today. It will be practically impossible for any malignant to gain access to the person of President Roosevelt or Prince Henry during the festivities.

According to expectations the Kronprinz Wilhelm, with Prince Henry and his suite on board, will reach port some time this afternoon. Admiral Evans, commanding the North Atlantic squadron, will meet the steamer at quarantine and conduct the Prince with his suite to the Noxen Hozen Hohenzollern which the President's delegates will then visit and extend greeting. Then will come the visit and official welcome by the Mayor of New York, a visit which courtesy requires the Prince to return the same afternoon. The Prince will be escorted to the City Hall by Squadron A and Troop C, and will be ushered into the Mayor's office. There he will be presented the prominent city officials and will be escorted into the Aldermanic Chamber, where the Aldermen will be assembled in special session. The hope of the public to get a glimpse of the Prince during these ceremonies will not be fulfilled, as admission will be by invitation only. Members of the city committee and prominent citizens will be the guests. Mayor Low will formally tender the freedom of the city to Prince Henry, and he will reply. After that the Aldermen will be presented to the prince. In the evening Prince Henry and his suite will attend a gala performance at the Irving Place theatre, returning to the Hohenzollern for the night.

The programme arranged for the remainder of the Prince's stay is as follows:

MONDAY.—Short stop at Baltimore at 9 a. m. Arrival at Washington at 10:20 a. m. Military escort from the Pennsylvania railroad station to the White House and thence to the German Embassy. The President will return the visit of the Prince at noon. Visits of ambassadors and ministers. Visit to the Capitol at 4 p. m. Dinner at the White House at 6:30 p. m. After dinner the Prince will return to New York by special train. Departure of the Prince and his party for Jersey City by the Pennsylvania railroad.

TUESDAY.—Departure of the Prince and his suite from Jersey City for the ship building yards of the Townsend-Downey Ship Building Company, at Shopters Island. Launching of the yacht of his imperial majesty the German emperor at 10:30 a. m. Luncheon to the President on board the Hohenzollern at 1:30 p. m. Visit of the Prince to the Mayor of New York in the afternoon. Dinner of the Mayor of New York at 6:30 p. m. Gala opera at the Metropolitan Opera House after the dinner.

WEDNESDAY.—Luncheon with representatives of commerce and industry at 12:30 p. m. Sight-seeing in New York in the afternoon. Torchlight concert at the Arion Club at 6:30 p. m. Banquet of press of the United States at 8 p. m. Special ferry to the Pennsylvania railroad at 12 midnight and journey to Washington.

THURSDAY.—Arrival of Prince Henry at Washington, and escort to the German Embassy. Memorial exercises for President McKinley in the House of Representatives. The Prince and his suite attending. Visit in the afternoon to Washington's tomb at Mount Vernon.

FRIDAY.—Visit to the United States Naval Academy at Annapolis in the forenoon. Luncheon at Annapolis at 12 noon. Dinner at the German Embassy. Reception by Secretary Long at the Navy Department from 3 to 5 o'clock.

SUNDAY.—In the morning, religious exercises on board the Hohenzollern. If the weather is favorable a visit to the tomb of General Grant in the afternoon. Private entertainment in the Deutscher Verein. Leave for Washington in the evening by special train on the Pennsylvania railroad.

SATURDAY.—Departure of the Prince and his suite for his Southern and Western tour on special train. The cities at which stops are to be made include Cincinnati, Pittsburg, Columbus, Chattanooga, Nashville, Louisville, Indianapolis, St. Louis, Chicago, Milwaukee, Buffalo, Rochester, Syracuse, Boston and Albany. En route from Albany to New York a visit of inspection is to be paid to the United States Military Academy at West Point. From New York the Prince and his suite will make a brief trip to Philadelphia, returning to New York in time to take the steamer sailing March 10.

New York, Feb. 22.—At two o'clock this afternoon nothing had been heard from the Kronprinz Wilhelm.

When a woman is nervous her imagination gives fantastic and threatening shapes to the most familiar objects. By day she starts in fear at every sudden or unfamiliar sound. By night the furniture of her room takes on affrighting forms of ghost or goblin. You can't reason with the nerves. Neither logic nor love can cure them. They must be nourished and then the outcry of the nerves will cease as naturally as a hungry child ceases to cry when fed. For nervous women there is no better tonic and nerve than Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It cures the diseases which produce nervousness in women, irregularity, debilitating drains, inflammation, ulceration and female weakness. It tranquilizes the nerves, encourages the appetite, and induces refreshing sleep.

"When I began taking your medicine I was not able to stand on my feet ten minutes at a time," writes Mrs. Hattie Bernhardt, of 112 Spring Street, Nashville, Tenn. "Had falling of uterus, and kidney and liver disease, and was so weak and nervous I could not keep still. Would take nervous spells and almost die at times. I had several different doctors attending, but they could not do me any good. The last one I had said I would never get up again. Told him that I was taking your 'Favorite Prescription' and 'Golden Medical Discovery,' and he said, 'Might just as well take that much water each day.' But I thought I would give the medicine a fair trial. Before I had finished the first two bottles I was able to get outside the house and walk around the yard. I kept on taking the medicine and they cured me."

I then saw your advertisement, accidentally in a New York paper, and ordered your treatment. After I had used it only a few days according to your directions, the noises ceased, and, day after five weeks, my hearing in the diseased ear has been entirely restored.
