Having a Run on Chamberlain's Cough Remedy

Between the hours of eleven o'clock a. m. and closing time at night on Jan. 25th, 1901, A. F. Clark, druggist, Glade Springs, Va., sold twelve of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. He says, "I never handled a medicine that sold better or gave better satisfaction to my customers." This Remedy has been in general use in Virginia for many years, and the people there are well acquainted with its excellent qualities. Many of them have testified to the remarkable cures which it has effected. When you need a good, reliable medicine for a cough or cold, or attack of the grip, use Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and you are certain to be more than pleased with the quick cure which it affords. For sale by John Preuss.

A Small Sufferer

The 2-year-old son of Ivan Scofield, of Dora, met with a painful accident last Friday afternoon. He fell from a ladder and broke his arm both above and below the elbow and also put the elbow out of joint. No one but the boy's mother was at home, and it was late in the evening before a messenger could be dispatched to Myrtle Point for a doctor. Then no doctor at Myrtle Point or Coquille would go out to Dora to attend the boy. The little sufferer was therefore taken to Myrtle Point in a wagon reaching there at 11 a. m. Saturday, when his arm was set.

Considerable indignation is felt by the Dora people because the little boy had to be jolted over 34 miles of winter road with a broken arm to have his injuries attended to.

Jay Peart, while working on the high trestle from the railroad to the hill toward the Peart mine last week, fell to the ground, dislocating one wrist and hurting his back considerable, but is getting long as well as could be expected.—Coquille Herald.
