Schley at Meridian

Meridian, Miss., May 2—Amid the booming of cannon and the cheers of thousands of spectators Admiral and Mrs Schley arrived in Meridian today. Last night and early this morning hundreds of visitors arrived from all directions and seldom in its history has Meridian entertained a larger crowd. The admiral was officially welcomed by representatives of the city, the board of trade and the cotton exchange. The day's programme provided for a public reception, a luncheon and a drive to places of interest in and about the city.

FLURRY IN RAIL

ROAD BUILDING

Salt Lake, May 2—Addition to a race into Southern California, the Oregon Short line will endeavor to reach Thunder mountain ahead of the Northern Pacific.

Rail's surveyors under engineer Mills, working in the Chamberlain Basin country, have aroused the short line and its surveyors have orders to push ahead from Challis, Salmon river branch to the gold fields without delay.

De Mores' Murderers on Trial

Paris, May 2—The sensational career of the Marquis de Mores is recalled by dispatches from Tunis stating that his alleged murderers are to be placed on trial today. Few names were more familiar to the public a decade ago than that of the Marquis de Mores. On both sides of the Atlantic his eccentric ventures attracted widespread attention. He is probably best remembered in America for his disastrous attempt to establish a mammoth packing industry on the Dakota ranges.

De Mores was murdered by members of a band of Touaregs in 1896, while on a military expedition into the interior of Africa. Since his death his relatives, particularly his widow, who was a daughter of the millionaire New York banker, L. von Hoffman, have been endeavoring to obtain the arrest and punishment of his murderers with the result that several of the band have been arrested finally and brought to trial.

OFFICERS RELEASED

FROM VENETIAN JAIL

Clapped in Irons by Cruiser Captain as Soon as They Came Aboard

Venice, May 2—The officers of the cruiser Chicago, recently imprisoned on a charge of resisting the police, were released from prison today. They went aboard the Chicago which left immediately for Trieste. Captain Dayton of the Chicago ordered the men placed in irons as soon as they boarded the cruiser.

Chonski and Weinig to Meet

Louisville, May 2—The presence of hundreds of visitors for the American Derby causes the Empire Athletic club to expect a large attendance tonight when Joe Chonski and Al Weinig come together before the club for a twenty-round bout. The two have never met in the ring before, but from their records against various opponents they are expected to put up a rattling contest. Weinig recently added to his laurels by giving "Kid" Carter a terrific battle in Chicago. Chonski, though one of the veterans of the ring, is still regarded as a tough proposition for the best men of his class. Both appear to be in good shape for the battle.
