

PERSONAL AND LOCAL.

Fine stationery at Norton's.

Buy your shoes at Peter Clausen's. T. D. Holland has completed planking North Front street as far as Campbell's wood yard.

J. S. Tucker who has been working for E. L. Bessey has leased the W. A. Luse place for a term of 3 years.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Stambuck and Mrs. Louis Stone were among Catching slough visitors to Marshfield Thursday.

Vaccine for sale at the Red Cross drug store. Mail orders promptly filled.

The dime social which was to have been held this evening by the Presbyterian Ladies' Aid Society has been postponed until further notice on account of the death of Wm. Sloan.

The gasoline schooner Monterey arrived in Coos bay from the Siuslaw carrying a hold full of lumber. She will take on a deck load from Johnson's mill before proceeding to San Francisco.

Nothing better than Red Cross Expectorant for that troublesome cough; try it.

When you want a good cup of coffee with pure cream or a good dinner cooked by White cooks go to the Central dining room. Fried clams and clam soup today at 12 o'clock.

E. H. Beyers, of Sumner, was in town Thursday and presented the editor of the Coast Mail with an alleged cigar, after smoking which the editor has been wandering around in a kind of a trance.

PUTNAM FADELESS DYES are fast to sunlit, washing and rubbing. Sold by John Preuss 10c. per package.

Mrs. L. J. Simpson of North Bend, is still quite ill with typhoid fever, but is getting better. Miss Newman, a trained nurse, from San Francisco, arrived overland Thursday, to assist Miss Mary Black in attending Mrs. Simpson.

Any one wanting pure A No. 1 Leaf Lard from strictly corn-fed hogs can find it on sale at the Marshfield Cash Meat Market.

The A. N. W. Club met at the home of Mrs. C. Edman Thursday afternoon and after the usual routine work a delicious lunch was served. The club meets the next time at the home of Mrs. J. R. Rochon.

Don't keep a good news item to yourself but get it to the ears of the daily Mail man and we will be pleased to get it into print. We can't find them all however, much we would like to. Just because you know the item don't imagine everybody else does.

Coquille Herald—W. H. Schroeder, of Arago, received a big shingle machine on Saturday. He has his engine and boiler in position and as soon as the machine can be put in place, operation will begin at a lively rate, and a fine article of shingles will soon be on the market from this mill.

S. C. Brown has half a dozen fine bear skins tanned for Dr. Horsfall, J. H. Flanagan and others. They have been nicely tanned and when thoroughly cleaned from all greasy substances will be as fine a lot of pelts as can be found anywhere. Mr. Brown is an expert tanner and prides himself in turning out a fine robe.

A crowd of young people of Catching slough assembled at the residence of Andrew Stambuck Wednesday evening to celebrate a newly married couple namely: Albert Armfield and Miss Bertha Post, of the Sixes, Curry county, where they were married last Sunday evening. When Mr. Stambuck came to the door to enquire the cause of the racket, he was informed that the crowd wished to see the bride. Had it not been for some of the boys saying they would stay until morning if they did not get to see her the charavari would have been a failure but they finally were rewarded for their trouble.

Thursday's Shoot.

At the Rod and Gun Club practice trap shooting Thursday the score resulted as follows:

First 25 target shoot:—
A Farley, 17.
W H Short 17.
F Laise 10.
J W Flanagan 13.
C McKnight 12.
Second 25 target shoot:—
W H Short 19.
J W Bennett 19.
J W Flanagan 14.
A Farley 13.
F Laise 12.
E Straw 2.

The tie between Bennett and Short was settled in a 10 bird shoot which resulted in Short 8, Bennett 6.

Bird Vowel, a pioneer resident of the Coquille died at his home near Coquille City Wednesday.

Mrs. J. L. Bounds received word yesterday from Roseburg that her mother was at the point of death. Mrs. Bounds is quite ill herself and will not be able to go to Roseburg.

F. S. Dow has returned from a business trip to the Coquille. If he doesn't use better lead pencils than the one he left in this office, we don't see how he reads the orders he has taken, when he gets home.

Yesterday was Banner Day at the Marshfield public school and the banners were awarded to the 5th and 2d grades. The 5th grade having taken the banner two times in succession. Ralph Coke distinguished himself in the rendition of Dr. Puff Stoff and brought out great applause.

A. Arant moved to Coquille Friday with his family and household effects where he will spend the summer and he is employed at Beaver Hill mine.

The Arcata left San Francisco yesterday and is billed to sail from here Monday.

The Alliance leaves Portland this evening and should arrive Monday morning.

Fred Wilson of Sumner returned Thursday, from Salem, where he had been as one of Deputy Sheriff Gallier's assistants in taking prisoners to the penitentiary.

The schooner Polaris finished loading lumber at Bay City, Friday, and is ready for sea.

Bandon Recorder—Baseball affairs have taken another turn, and now it is determined that Myrtle Point is shut out of the league this season.

J. D. Lee has been billed to speak at Drain May 13th, at Elkton 14th at 10 a. m., at Scottsburg 14th at 7:30 p. m., at Gardiner 15th, at Marshfield 16, at Myrtle Point 17th, at Bandon 19th and Coquille City 20th.

Bandon Recorder—Activity has again begun with a view of launching the Bandon. Bert Patterson has gone into service there again, and several parties went down from town yesterday to help run a line, the tugmaster having come over from the bay to take a pull when the tide serves.

W. Wall, who is past 84 years old and has been a prospector for years, and who has a placer mine in the Salmon mountain district, arrived here this week. He has put in a solid day's work every fair day this winter, and is very much pleased with his prospect. He walked in from his mine to Myrtle Point, a distance of 49 1/2 miles in a couple of days, which is pretty good for a man so near the century mark.

Chas. Hall, a son of E. O. Hall, left for Rogue river Thursday, where he will take charge of the construction work and management of a gravel for the Rogue River Navigation & Packing Co.

E. N. Harry, of Siskyou, was in town on business Thursday. He reports farming in his neighborhood well under way and prospects good for a bounteous crop. Mr. Harry reports that the Republicans in his precinct are very much pleased with their entire ticket, and are not inclined to give away to the Democrats as many good things as is sometimes the case.

Bay City mill was closed down yesterday afternoon on account of an accident to the bandaw carriage.

E. March, of the Market store, is able to be at his place of business again, after being laid up several days with influenza.

John Flanagan and Miss May Williams, of Dupire, were in Marshfield, Friday.

Just Catching, of Sumner, was in town Friday, getting some dentistry work done. He was obliged to send for a dentist to visit him at his home the first of this week, not being able then to come to town.

Notice the bill of fare for Sunday's dinner at the Central Dining Room. There is no question but Mr. Farin and Mrs. Edmunds are the strongest team that have ever entered to the wants of the eating public in Marshfield. They should receive a liberal patronage.

BAHRTY—In Empire, May 7, to the wife of T. H. Barry a daughter.

The schooner Lillie, bound from the Umpqua to San Francisco, lumber laden, became becalmed Wednesday night a few miles north of the Coos Bay bar and drifted dangerously near the breakers. The life-saving crew from the Umpqua river put out to her assistance and managed to get her safely into deep water again. The life-saving crew took advantage of the trip of the Umpqua tug, Hunter to this port, and were towed into Coos Bay. The tug towed them back to Umpqua on her return trip Thursday evening.

Phone 436 I. O. O. F. Bldg.

VISIT GEORGE & TIBBETTS

(IF YOU DON'T NEED THEM TODAY YOU WILL SOON)

Agents for Standard Patterns.

FOR A LARGE ASSORTMENT AND GOOD VALUES
Dry Goods, Wash Fabrics, Furnishings, Wrappers, Waists, Neckwear, Stray and Crash Hats, Caps, etc.

D. G. Beal will commence at once erecting a new residence for Frank Hcdson on the latter's farm on South Coos river.

F. M. Freidberg received a fine milch cow Tuesday, purchased from W. A. Luse, of Coos River.

A. W. Neal drove the first piles for the ice work Tuesday morning.

The crew of the ship yard knocked off work Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock on account of the bad weather.

Captain Pendergast is acting as head sawyer in the North Bend mill, during the illness of Mr. Piper. Capt. Chan. Johnson is at the wheel of the Flyer in the mean time.

Bennett Swanton returned Tuesday from Dora, where he has been on a short pleasure trip.

James H. Hubbard moved from Jarvis landing to South Marshfield Tuesday. He will assist A. J. Savage in carpenter work this summer.

Mr. and Mrs. John F. Hall, will go to Portland on the Alliance for several weeks' stay during which Mr. Hall will attend the grand lodge I. O. O. F, which is to be held at Newport.

F. P. Norton was driving Bonner Oak about the streets Tuesday.

L. M. Noble has had the residence which he is fitting up for H. M. McPherson wired for electric lights.

Dr. E. E. Straw has his new electric battery set up and in operation in his office. The battery was built by F. M. Friedberg.

L. M. Noble has leased F. M. Friedberg's lots on Broadway for one year and will make use of them for pasture.

All will be glad to know that C. H. Merchant continues on the road of recovery from his severe illness.

Ray Golden has resigned his position in Will Dugan's cigar store.

Joe Youkers, of the Caro Arago Life Saving station is quite sick, and a physician was called from this place Wednesday.

Albert Sleep and Albert Campbell have accepted positions as janitors in the Marshfield public school for the remainder of the present school year.

The Ladies' Aid of the Presbyterian church will give a Dime Social at the residence of Mrs. John Gammill in South Marshfield Friday evening.

Father Donnelly is in Portland and is expected to arrive here overland Friday or Saturday.

S. C. Phillips on the Dancels creek railroad, accompanied by his wife and W. C. Bickford, the engineer of the road were in town Wednesday.

Mrs. E. O'Connell and daughter Stella left on the Alliance, Wednesday, for Victoria, on a pleasure trip.

The boiler was hoisted aboard the hull of the steamer Rogus River, Wednesday morning by means of the steam winch of the Alliance. The Rogus River will be fitted out with her machinery and have the cabin built on her before leaving Coos Bay.

The revival meetings at the Methodist church will continue the balance of the week. Rev. R. C. Lee is conducting the service and a renewed and sincere interest is taken. An opportunity will be given each evening for those who wish to join in the service. The meeting last night was well attended.

Rev. F. G. Strango, who occupied the Presbyterian pulpit in this city last Sunday has impressed the members of the church very favorably and is the intention of the church to try to secure his services for the coming year. It is to be hoped they will succeed as he comes highly recommended from his home town, Ashland, where he served the Presbyterian church for 15 years.

ELECTRICITY

Are you suffering from Rheumatism? Weak back, Nervous trouble or Generally run-down system? Use Electric Bells and Batteries. For men and women. Electric Insoles keep the feet warm and prevent catching cold. For booklet and circulars, address, ELECTRIC APPLIANCE CO., Medford, Oregon.

Rail Road Accident

A railroad accident occurred on Coos river Wednesday morning. E. L. Bessey has at his dairy ranch what our marine reporter calls "a little stationary railroad," to carry milk cans between the milk house and the boat landing. As the loaded car was coming down the incline the crew lost control and the car ran away, scattered the cans, spilled the milk, tore up the track, and reaching the bank of the river, jumped into a rowboat lying there and took it's spite out on that.

ALLEGANY ITEMS

Thursday, May 7

There will be a celebration at Allegany July 4th, everybody come and have a good time.

Thomas Blain returned from a business trip to Coquille City last Saturday. Miss Carrie Roden is teaching a term of school on Smith River, Douglas county which began May 5th.

Matt Mattson and wife go to Jordan Shifer's camp May 15, where they both have employment.

Miss Kate Rooke paid Allegany a visit Sunday eve.

Our road supervisors Mr. Roden and B. T. Thomas have done some fine work on the east and west fork roads at Allegany, in the way of grading down the hills and putting in a culvert to drain the hills. These gentlemen are the right men in the right place.

The ladies of Allegany gave one of their dinners at the school house on May 3d. As the ladies never do things by halves, the table was well filled with all the good things that could be had, to which all did ample justice.

Capt. Edwards has been farming of late, he handles the line of a well broken span of horses with as much grace as he does the wheel on the steamer Alert.

Rev. Banyan organized a Sunday school at this place last Sunday evening with Mrs. Edwards as superintendent. We wish her success.

Miss Frances Gould is keeping house for her brothers Bert and Clarence on Mr. Blain's farm.

Robert McDonald who went to Oakland, Cal. last November will be home on the next Alliance.

John Blake has moved his family to Al Steamerman's logging camp on the east fork.

Matt Mattson will drive his small band of cattle to Loon lake next week.

G. Thurman of Bay City will move to Loon lake next week where he has purchased a farm.

The members of the Presbyterian Aid Society went to Empire on the Flyer Wednesday, to meet with Mrs. Captain Dan Roberts. They were treated royally and all are agreed that Mrs. Roberts is one of the best cooks in the land. After doing the week's business and spending a most enjoyable day they returned home on the afternoon steamer.

A. D. Walcott, the Republican candidate for county clerk went to Myrtle Point on the train Wednesday, to be present at the "Old Soldier's" reunion. He received a special invitation to be present. Having made a mark of himself for four years for his country's sake, he now stands before the people in a second battle, and we think they will show their appreciation of good service rendered, as they all know he is fitted for the place.

Henry Holm received a carload of beef cattle from Roy Garrett, of Myrtle Point, some of the finest that ever came over the road.

None but the Best of Meats.

I constantly furnish the best and purest of meats, which gives me the confidence of my patrons.

Meats are a Necessity

but it is necessary that they be pure and wholesome. I do not promise a discount, but I will give you honest and courteous treatment, and value received for your money. Satisfaction guaranteed or cash refunded.

THE Marshfield Cash Meat Market.

HENRY HOLM, Prop. FREE DELIVERY PHONE 181