Won't Follow Advice After Paying For it.

In a recent article a prominent physician says, "It is next to impossible for the physician to get his patients to carry out any prescribed course of hygiene or diet to the smallest extent; he has but one resort left, namely, the drug treatment." When medicines are used for chronic constipation, the most mild and gentle obtainable, such as Chamberlain's Stomach & Liver Tablets, should be employed. Their use is not followed by constipation as they leave the bowels in a natural and healthy condition. For sale by John Preuss.

Since the first dispatch came announcing the sudden death of Mrs. Alice Grimes, it has been learned that she died of typhoid pneumonia. She was a beneficiary member of the Women of Woodcraft, carrying a policy for $1000.

Whooping Cough

A woman who has had experience with this disease, tells how to prevent any dangerous consequences from it. She says: Our three children took whooping cough last summer, our baby boy being only three months old, and owing to our giving them Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, they lost none of their plumpness and came out in much better health than other children whose parents did not use this remedy. Our oldest little girl would call lustily for cough syrup between whoops.—JESSIE PINKNEY HALL, Springville, Ala. This Remedy is for sale by John Preuss.

COOS BAY LABOR

BEING ORGANIZED

Sawmill Men and Loggers Now Have Unions and Others Are to Follow

Coos Bay labor is being rapidly unionized, and if the movement keeps on, all lines will soon be under the rule of the unions.

L. E. Dole, of Glasgow, has been the leading spirit in the work of organization. He has just received from the American Federation of Labor an Organizers Commission, authorizing him to act as District Organizer for Coos county, with power and authority to install local or Federal unions under the jurisdiction of that organization.

A Sawmill Union was organized Friday evening with about 20 members, and temporary officers were elected. This union takes in any man who works around a sawmill, either skilled or unskilled labor. This union met again Saturday evening, and will hold weekly meetings on that night.

At Saturday's meeting 12 new members were taken in. A charter will be sent for Monday and all who come in before it is received will be accepted as charter members.

The charter for the Loggers Union was received Thursday, and a meeting will be held Saturday evening May 17 to organize. This union expects to meet on the first and third Saturday's of each month. All who come at this next meeting will be received as charter members.

An Engineers Union will soon be formed, all engineers, stationary and marine, being eligible for membership. The ship carpenters and caulkers will also be organized, and the coal miners will be invited to fall in line.

J. M. Quick, of Templeton, has been in Marshfield for a few days on a business trip. He informs us that the Ten-mile lakes will be more of an attraction this summer for pleasure seekers than ever before. A stage line is to be run direct to the lakes all summer and a steam launch will be put on the lakes for the benefit of outing parties and the general public.

The O. S. O. B., of the Episcopal church, met Friday evening at the home of Miss Elsie Bennett. The main business feature of the evening was a proposition to devise some means by which they could raise money to paint the church. The question will be disposed of at the next meeting of the society, which will be held at the home of Mrs. F. A. Sacchi.

A Card

EDITOR DAILY COAST MAIL:—Referring to the article headed "Wreck Averted" in the Daily COAST MAIL of the 9th, inst. I consider it my duty, in justice to myself and crew to call attention to the fact that the "breakers" in which the schooner Lily was dangerously near, should have read Umpqua bar and not Coos Bay bar. Respectfully Yours,

Port Orford Tribune.

The Arcata passed down last Sunday. Young Mr. and Mrs. Van Den Berg, who have gained considerable prominence, both here and in San Francisco of late, took passage for the city. Common report—lived in the city—skipped out—seven to nine hundred short—partner in city lost his money and pretty typewriter—lived Port Orford hotel a few days—all same old lye—business to county seat—got married—came back—gone.

Sciatic Rheumatism Cured After Fourteen Years of Suffering

"I have been afflicted with sciatic rheumatism for fourteen years," says Josh Edgar, of Germantown, Cal. "I was able to be around but constantly suffered. I tried everything I could hear of and at last was told to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which I did and was immediately relieved and in a short time cured, and I am happy to say it has not since returned." Why not use this liniment and get well? It is for sale by John Preuss.

Sumner Social.

From all accounts the basket social held at Sumner Saturday evening was a success far exceeding the expectations of the most sanguine. It was held for the purpose of raising money to buy an organ for the church and Sunday school. The amount cleared was $51.80, after all expenses were paid. The most of this was realized from the sale of twenty baskets, which brought all the way from 50 cents to $4.25 each, the largest price being paid by Archie Boone for a basket prepared by Miss Zoo Wilson. Jess. Stock is said to have shown marked ability as an auctioneer.

A fine program was rendered, including music, vocal and instrumental, recitations, dialogues, etc. W. A. Woollever, of Marshfield, who was present, was pressed into service and took part in the program. Supper was one of the most enjoyable features of the evening, and the festivities were prolonged until after midnight. Anyone who thinks Sumner is a dead town is mistaken.

Democratic Speaking

The Democratic rally Tuesday night was not very largely attended, and a large proportion of those present were Republicans. The North Bend Band was out and discoursed excellent music, but when Mr. Weatherford commenced his speech the hall was not half filled.

On the platform were several of the old Democratic stand-bys and a couple of the candidates: Judge Hyde, Wm. Turpin, John Flanagan, L. W. Mauzey, J. J. Stanley and F. A. Golden.

Judge Hyde introduced the speaker of the evening, who held forth for a little over an hour.

Mr. Weatherford was not at his best, being in poor voice and evidently tired from his trip. His speech was in one sense a curio, in that it would have been difficult from his talk to tell which side he was on.

It is safe to say that he made no enemies, nor left at all likely that he made any votes.

Mr. Weatherford is an estimable gentleman, but he will never go to congress.

Sad News

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. J. Grimes are greatly shocked by the news of her death in San Francisco at 7:15 p. m. Saturday. The news came in a telegram from Mr. Grimes to J. T. Hall, and no particulars were given. The friends of Mrs. Grimes here had received no intimation that she was sick, and her death must have been sudden. When she left here a few months ago to join her husband, who had secured employment at the Mare Island navy yard, Mrs. Grimes was in good health, and her sudden taking off brings the keenest sorrow to the many friends in Marshfield who knew and loved her.

Mrs. J. L. Bounds received the sad news Sunday evening of the death of her mother, Mrs. J. C. Hutcheson, at Roseburg, who passed away at 6:20 p. m. that day. Although not able to stand the trip, Mrs. Bounds was intending to start Monday morning to be at her mother's bedside, having been prevented by her own severe illness from going sooner.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Merchant and daughter Lillie were passengers on the Alliance to San Francisco. Mr. Merchant having sufficiently recovered from his late severe illness to undertake the trip. They will be gone for some months and intend to visit the Hawaiian islands, where Mr. Merchant hopes to be out of reach of telegraph lines and business cares and obtain the rest and quiet of which he is in need. All will wish them a pleasant voyage and a restoration to perfect health.
