

PERSONAL AND LOCAL.

Fine stationery at Norton's. Buy your shoes at Peter Clausen's. S. R. Crawford, of Sumner, was in town Tuesday.

W. H. Morgan, of Daniels creek, was doing business in town Tuesday.

The schooner Joseph Russ was towed up the bay Tuesday and docked at Dean & Co's wharf.

Father Donnelly will hold service at the Catholic church here at 10:30 a. m. next Sunday, and at Bandon the Sunday following.

PUTNAM FADELESS DYES are fast to sunlight, washing and rubbing. Sold by John Press 10c. per package.

John Messer, of Brook Hill dairy on Catching slough is doing the blacksmithing at the North Bend ship yard.

Nothing better than Red Cross Expecto-rant for that troublesome cough; try it,

Rev. Carl Thompson, a Socialist speaker from Elgin, Ill. is expected to be here about May 20th to expound the doctrines of that party.

Vaccine for sale at the Red Cross drug store. Mail orders promptly filled.

Rev. Thos. Irvine will go to Gardiner Friday, where he will remain over two Sundays and hold services, going thence to attend the Baptist convention at Riddle the last three days in this month.

L. H. Heisner sprained his left ankle quite severely Tuesday by jumping down from his truck and stepping on a round stake. He is likely to be laid up for some time.

J. K. Weatherford, Democratic candidate for congress arrived Tuesday over the Drain route, and after speaking here last evening will proceed to Coquille today.

On Tuesday H. Sengstacken, agent for the steamer Alliance, inaugurated free delivery of freight coming by the boat. L. H. Heisner has the contract for handling it.

Ed. Noah tells the MAIL that it was misinformed and that Miss Ida Gamble is employed to teach the present term of school at Myrtle Grove.

R. J. Coke went to Coquille City Wednesday to assist Capt. H. E. Wilcox to make final proof on his home stead at McKinley.

E. G. Flanagan is having sod laid on the lots at his residence on A street.

The schooners Jessie Minor and Jennie Wand arrived Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Collier, of Catching slough, came down in their sail boat Wednesday and visited North Bend and this place.

Mrs. E. H. Boyers and Miss Alice Boyers of Sumner, are in town for a short shopping tour and visit with friends.

C. L. Bonebrake, of Ross slough, was in town Wednesday, after liniment for one of his heavy work horses, who had strained himself running down hill.

Mrs. L. J. Simpson is still seriously ill at her home in North Bend, but last evening was improving slowly and on her way to recovery.

Remember the dates of J. D. Lee's meetings in Coos county: Marshfield, May 16th, Myrtle Point the 17th, Bandon the 19th, Coquille City the 20th.

A. D. Walcott, who has been visiting relatives at Bandon for the past week, returned home on Wednesday's train.

Any one wanting pure A No. 1 Leaf Lard from strictly corn-fed hogs can find it on sale at the Marshfield Cash Meat Market.

The Coos Bay Iron works had quite a number of visitors Monday afternoon to witness the interesting operation of casting. About one and one-half tons of castings were made, the largest being a cylinder for one of the Coquille steamers, weighing about 600 pounds. The balance consisted mainly of railroad work.

ELECTRICITY

Are you suffering from Rheumatism, Weak back, Nervous trouble or Generally run-down system? Use Electric Belts and Batteries. For men and women. Electric Insoles keep the feet warm and prevent catching cold. For booklet and circulars, address,

ELECTRIC APPLIANCE CO., Medford, Oregon.

The Happy Family.
McGinty, Baldy, and CASTLEWOOD at the OWL

Mrs. O. E. Smith has been suffering from a very severe cold, but is improving.

F. P. Norton commenced Friday putting a coating of ballast rock on H street, South Marshfield.

Chas. Jackson is going to Klondike, Monday, to keep books in John Youkam's logging camp this summer.

Savane Peterson, of Haynes slough, came in last evening to attend the Republican rally.

Adolph Sandquist moved his family from the Bay City mill to South Marshfield yesterday.

Quite a number of ladies took part in a very pleasant social function yesterday afternoon, the guests of Mrs. J. A. Matson.

Thos. Coke is very much pleased with a new rifle which he has just purchased. It is the latest improved Winchester 30.30.

While H. Kotka, one of the workmen in the shipyard, was using a jack-screw in clamping one of the planks on the new vessel, the pawl slipped and the handle of the jack-screw came around and struck him in the forehead, cutting an ugly gash which required two stitches.

Miss Grills received word today stating that her brother, John Grills, Jr., of Newport, Ore., had a very serious accident by falling through an old wharf, and breaking one rib, and seriously injuring one leg.

Inadvertently the name of A. E. Seaman was used, in the report of the case of J. H. Hibbard vs A. Bridges, tried before Justice Hyde Thursday, instead of the name of A. M. Evans. In the case in which the horse was attached, Evans was plaintiff, not Seaman.

There will be a special excursion train run from Marshfield to Coquille on Sunday, May 18th, for the benefit of those wishing to attend the game of ball between the Bandon and Coquille teams. Train leaves at 9 a. m.

Wm. Gall was arraigned before Justice Hyde yesterday on a charge of assault with a dangerous weapon, alleged to have been committed upon the person of J. L. Ferry, Jr. His examination will take place at 1 p. m. Monday.

A postal card was received yesterday by Mrs. George Campbell from the little son of J. Grimes, at Vallejo. On the card was a postscript from Lloyd Cox, saying that the remains of Mrs. Grimes would be brought to Marshfield on the next steamer for Loral. A letter to the same effect has been received by Mrs. Grimes' relatives at Myrtle Point.

The marriage of John Sandell and Miss Hilma Fredrickson will take place this evening in Odd Fellows' hall in the presence of a large number of invited guests. After the ceremony there will be a grand ball. The groom is employed at the Bay City mill, and is highly spoken of, and the bride has also been a resident of Coos for a number of years. These worthy young people will have the best wishes of a host of friends.

J. D. Lee, superintendent of the state penitentiary at Salem, who delivered an address here last night, arrived in the afternoon via Gardiner, where he spoke Thursday evening to a good audience in advocacy of Republican principles. Fortunately the tug Hunter made a run down the bay yesterday, and Mr. Lee came on her, avoiding the unpleasant ride on the beach. From Empire he came up by train and spent the afternoon greeting old acquaintances, of whom he has a number here, and making new ones. He goes to the Coquille today, speaking at Bandon tonight, at Myrtle Point Monday night, and Coquille Tuesday night, after which he will return to the interior over the Drain route.

Here are two pointers for those who have their ears strained to catch the whistle of the locomotive on the Coos Bay-Salt Lake railroad:

A consignment of tents, axes, tinware, and other similar goods was received on the Alliance assigned to the Empire Construction Co., care of F. A. Golden. The Empire Construction Co. is the corporation formed for the work of building the new railroad, and it is surmised that the outfit mentioned is for the use of surveying parties. Mr. Golden does not respond to pumping on the subject.

The second straw is that two similar outfits have been received by Childs, the Roseburg merchant, one to go east and one west. Let 'er go Gallagher.

Phone 436, I. O. O. F. Building.

VISIT GEORGE & TIBBETTS

Agents for Standard Patterns

Dry Goods, Wash Fabrics, Fancies, Notions, Domestic, Clothings, Shoes, Hats, Gents' Furnishings, Wrappers, Waists, Neckwear, Straw and Crash Hats, Caps, etc.

(IF YOU DONT NEED THEM TODAY YOU WILL SOON)

FOR A LARGE ASSORTMENT AND GOOD VALUES

The schooner Ivy brought 100 tons of flour and feed for the Sperry Flour Co.

Quite a number of Marshfield fishermen went up Coos river Sunday but met with only moderate success.

Mrs. P. A. Peterson of Haynes slough received some very fine Scotch collie pups on the Alliance from Portland.

Wm. Saunders of Empire, was in town Monday and reported an epidemic of bad colds in that town.

Mrs. Bentley who has been canvassing the county with soap, has returned to her home at Elkton.

H. Hongell and Wm. Lickstrom left on the Alliance for San Francisco where they intended to work at their trade, as shis carpenters.

The steamer Empire has been laid up for the Summer an account of slack demand for coal.

J. J. Stanley, editor of the Coquille Bulletin and Democratic candidate for county Judge, is in the city to attend the Democratic rally this evening.

Mrs. J. T. Collier is a passenger on the Alliance for San Francisco, to visit her sister, Miss Mattie Armfield, who is seriously ill.

Chas. Werden, who is employed on S. C. Rogers farm on Coos river, was in town Monday, and had Dr. McCormac fix up his left hand, which he had cut with a dull axe.

E. T. Twombly, who has been acting as city reporter on this paper, started Monday morning for the Salmon mountain mines, where he will enter the employ of Geo. Hall.

J. E. Rease, of East Marshfield, is a passenger on the Alliance to Eureka. From there he will go to some of the Northern California mines in which he is interested.

Mrs. D. M. German returned Monday from a few days' visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Black, on Catching slough, where Mr. German is doing some painting.

A dispatch from Independence, Or., brings the news that A. B. Collier, who recently went there for treatment of a cancer, has suffered a stroke of paralysis. His son, A. M. Collier, has started out since the news was received.

Remember when reading about the St. Pierre disaster in this paper that it is 48 hours later news than you will find in the Oregonian which you receive this morning. We would like the COAST MAIL subscribers to appreciate the fact that they are getting the news two days sooner than they would without the little daily.

A. P. Owen was circulating a subscription paper yesterday to raise money to secure the services of the North Bend band to liven things up at the meeting this evening, when J. K. Weatherford, Democratic candidate for Congress, will address the citizens. Mr. Weatherford is an entertaining speaker and will doubtless draw a crowd.

E. V. Kruse received on the Arcata a bandsaw, engine and other supplies for his new ship yard at the stove mill. With other building operations this is being held back by the difficulty of obtaining lumber. In the meantime Mr. Kruse is doing considerable draughting work in preparation for active operations.

T. Micklewright, a jeweler, recently from London, has opened up for business in one corner of the Red Cross Drug Store. Mr. Micklewright has worked in some of the highest class establishments in his line and has had excellent training. He is a young man of pleasant address and has made many friends since his arrival.

A B Campbell has just received a new Nickel Mint Roaster and popper, capable of handling peanuts and popcorn till further orders. It is an automatic, double action proposition and attends to business in both the roasting and popping departments at the same time, and finds time to whistle while doing it. Alex will evidently correct the nickles when he gets this machine into operation.

Sheriff Steve Gallor came over on horseback from the county seat yesterday. He reports that the road is in good shape, the road supervisors having been putting in some good work. Sheriff Gallor has made an efficient officer; that his administration has been clean, honest and economical is to be testified to by the county court. He has given entire satisfaction to all the attorneys of the county, and in fact to every person having had business at the sheriff's office. During his term of office he has made many friends. It was conceded that Mr. Gallor's nomination was equivalent to election. He certainly will be elected; the only question is, by what majority.

The Alliance is advertised to leave San Francisco Saturday, and will sail for Portland Tuesday.

P. G. Peterson, of Haynes slough, was doing business in town Thursday.

Ed Cole, lineman for the telephone company has moved into the house recently vacated by F. S. Dow in South Marshfield.

Ole Johnson, Flanagan's sausage maker, informs the MAIL that we will have some good weather from now on.

J. M. Dolan is building a new triangular scraper for use on the road. The point is equipped with a plow share and it is planned especially for working out the ditches at the sides of the road.

The new vessel in the shipyard is now being planked, and the platform has been built on which to assemble the frames of her duplicate, which is to be built under the shed.

Thomas Blaine was in town Thursday on his way to Catching slough where he will visit his old friends Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Black.

Fred Lillenthal returned Thursday from Allegany, where he had been looking over farming land.

Among those who take examination before the Oregon State Dental Board being held at the North Pacific Dental College in Portland this week are R. H. Walter of this place and when Harry returns to Marshfield he will be a full fledged dentist.

F. A. Saatchi has received lumber for a new foundation for his house on B. street, which he will move to the back end of the lot where it was raised to the level of the street.

The Jessie Minor is lying at Dean & Co's dock waiting for a cargo of lumber from Johnson's mill. She will haul up to the railroad dock the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Page leave this morning for Portland, overland, where Mr. Page has something in view in the way of employment.

Wm. Barkas' house on Broadway is nearly completion under the skillful ministrations of Mr. Barkas, assisted by A. E. and Wm. Eickworth.

Miss Vienna Masters, of Catching slough, came down Wednesday to assist Mrs. E. J. Masters in her dressmaking establishment.

Geo. Wulff is now living at Ferndale, and Robt. Marsden has moved into the Wulff residence.

Thos. McGinnis recently purchased the Norman residence on the hill and will give it a thorough over-hauling, before offering it for rent.

Henry Holm has laid a sewer pipe connecting his residence to the sewer across the street, thus making good sewerage for his residence.

Castlewood.
Register Quick.
Vote as you please.
After voting try
Castlewood.

Meet and Elect Officers

The ladies of the A. N. W. met Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Echon and after the usual routine business had been attended to officers were elected for the ensuing term. The officers chosen were as follows: President, Mrs. P. M. Friedberg; Vice-President, Mrs. L. M. Noble; Secretary, Mrs. S. H. Hazard; Treasurer, Miss Susie Eickworth. The club meets next week with Mrs. Albert Matson.

SOUTH COOS RIVER
May 14

The prospect for a general fruit crop never was better at this time of the year, but it is too early to call it sure. Gardens, and grass are growing nicely, and the dairies are increasing every year as our Creamery records show.

Eldor Stuart arrived on the river today from Philomath and will hold services at Mosher Chapel, next Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Helena Wessela who has just arrived from the State University where she has been a student for a number of years and also teacher of German, and French for two years has been engaged to teach a term of school at Myrtle Bank. Miss Wessela lacks a few months teaching in the public schools to perfect her Life Diploma so the people consider they are fortunate in securing her as a teacher.

Carl D. Thomas a socialist speaker from Elgin Ill will speak at Mosher Chapel May 16th, he is an eloquent speaker and fully competent to explain what socialism really is, and being a minister for a number of years should know some thing of the Brotherhood of Man.