

PERSONAL AND LOCAL

Mrs. Masters makes a specialty of tailored suits at very reasonable prices.

The Crescent Coal Co. is sending a couple of tons of sacked coal by the Alliance to I. C. Gale, of Eureka.

The Alliance sailed from Astoria at 9:30 a m Wednesday, and is advertised to sail from here Thursday evening.

J. W. Flanagan has rented half of H. Sengstacken's warehouse, and will carry a stock of flour and feed.

Ole Hansen got a fall while at work on A. W. Neal's piledriver at Kruse's shipyard Wednesday, but was not seriously injured.

Any one wanting pure A No. 1 Leaf Lard strictly corn-fed hogs can find it on sale at the Marshfield Cash Meat Market.

Fine Stationery at Norton's.

Nothing better than Red Cross Expecto- rant for troublesome cough; try it.

A large consignment of supplies for the new ice works was received on the Arcata.

Frank Snow has lately built a residence on his timber land at McKinley and has opened up a logging camp.

Ray Tibbetts will leave on the Alliance on his way to Charles City, Iowa, to visit his grandparents for a few months.

J. T. Collier of Catching slough, is suffering from a broken rib the result of a collision with a plow handle.

Mrs. Albert Stemmerman, of Allegany, went to Sumner Wednesday to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Lawhorn.

Mrs. E. O'Connell and daughter Stella returned from a months vacation at Victoria B. C.

Luther O. Lighthall, of Tenmile, was in town Thursday night on business.

A deputy assessor of Douglas county is visiting the settlers in the Tenmile country who live within his jurisdiction.

Chester Lawrence, of May, who is putting up an engine for C. P. Coleman at Templeton, was over to North Bend Thursday evening after tools.

Mrs. F. M. Wilbur will leave on the Alliance, en route to visit relatives in Chicago. Miss Maggie Anderson will accompany her, and they will be absent two or three months.

Land Commissioner Frank Rogers and Geo. Quick, of Gardiner, were in the Tenmile section Wednesday, helping Mrs. Eddy Baker prove up on her homestead.

FARM FOR SALE—163 acres, part bottom, balance bench, nearly 300 fruit trees good buildings, on North Slough. Reasonable price. For further particulars call at this office or address Jacob. Matson, Marshfield.

6-5-5td 1w *

Mrs. Ida Haines Murphy, with her two children arrived on the Arcata, on her way to visit at the home of her father, Jos Haines at Eckley. She will visit a few days with Mrs. P. M. Wilbur, in this city.

H. Sengstacken had a fine 2-year-old Jersey bull brought up from the Alders Wednesday and sent it up Coos river to J. J. Clinkenbeard, who had purchased him.

Miss Susan Beeson and Master Gerald Barrett, of Portland, arrived on the Alliance Thursday the former a cousin of Mrs. W. H. Short, and was to have acted as bridesmaid at the de Nevue-Short nuptials Wednesday evening.

A vein of coal is being opened up on J. M. Quick's place on Tenmile. The coal is pronounced of good quality and will be used on the new steam launch which is to run on the lakes.

L. H. Hazard, county clerk, came over on yesterday's train.

Mrs. Dan Roberts and Mrs. Geo. Bolster, of Empire, were visiting friends in town Friday.

Grant Beale was in town Friday on business.

Evan Hodson and bride, went up Coos river Friday to their future home at the Hodson place on Coos river.

One of the new schooners in the shipyard is being calked.

Jas. Hayes, of Coquille, is visiting his parents here, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Hayes.

W. H. Morgan, of Daniels creek was doing business in town yesterday.

Misses Jennie Peterson and Nellie Morgan of Empire were in town Friday shopping and visiting with friends.

Miss Lydia McCullah, of Myrtle Point, is visiting friends and relatives in Marshfield this week.

J. W. Bennett is expected to leave San Francisco Saturday on his way home over land.

The Episcopal Sunday school is closed for the Summer, and will be reopened the first Sunday after the public school commences.

A Goddess of Liberty will be elected for the 4th of July. Ballot boxes at Preuss Drug store and Ferry & Dungan's Cigar store. Votes 5 cents each.

Ed. Abernethy started yesterday for his home at Dora, going via Myrtle Point, where his sister, Miss Francis, who is visiting there, will join him.

The Coos river phone line is working again after three days work repairing the cable, which was broken by the Western Home's anchor.

The Presbyterian Ladies' Aid society gave a reception in the church last evening to Rev. F. G. Strange. The attendance was quite large and a very pleasant social time was enjoyed.

G. A. Bennett and family, Mrs. Mark and R. Walter went to Rocky Point yesterday. All went for a picnic except Gus, and he went to catch crabs.

George & Tibbetts

PHONE, 436, I. O. F. Bldg. MARSHFIELD OREGON.

Seasonable

SHOES

The success of a shoe Department depends upon wear of the goods.

OUR

Mens' Shoes comprises all grades for the Farm, the Street, the Office, the Store.

Just Received

UNION MADE SHOES FOR MEN
—GOOD SOLID AND SERVICEABLE.

LADIES' SHOES

Viel KM, French Kid, Chrome Kid, Box Call, Dull Kangaroo, Dancing and House Slippers. All kinds of useful footwear.

COMFORTABLE AND EASY

"STOPS RHEUMATISM, THOSE ELECTRIC LINED SHOES"

SEVERAL LINES OF Children's Shoes

JUST THE THING FOR HARD WEAR

GOOD AND STYLISH

Infants' Blue and Patent Leather Shoes

George & Tibbetts

I. O. O. F. Building MARSHFIELD, - OREGON
Samples by request.

F. Boutin, Jr., who recently bought the Chadwick tract of land has arrived with a party of surveyors and is engaged in now running the lines on the land.

The railroad surveyors now have their stakes from Empire to the northern limit of the city, and were working in West Marshfield yesterday afternoon.

Miss Grey, Miss Biesen and Ed Abernethy returned yesterday from a trip to Golden falls. They report the road in good condition and a large amount of water coming over the falls, making a very pretty scene.

Walter Butler while tacking up Del Monte flour tags Friday, made a misstep while trying to step from the Water Co's water pipe to the West Marshfield bridge, and landed in the mud flats below. He was a sight to behold when he crawled out.

Rev. W. A. Dimick of Roseburg, Sabbath School Missionary at the Presbyterian church in Marshfield and will spend a couple of months in Coos and Curry counties doing Sabbath School work.

Mrs. L. H. Helsen and Mrs. Is Lando left yesterday en route to Eugene as delegates to the grand lodge, Women of Woodcraft. They went via Coquille and were to be joined by Mrs. McCloskey, delegate from Myrtle Point and Mrs. L. P. Maury delegate from Coquille City.

Otto Schetter, manager of the West-Union telegraph office here, started out over the Coos Bay wagon road Saturday en route to San Francisco on a business trip. One of the COAST MAIL crew is endeavoring to hold down the W. U. office during Otto's absence.

There is bitter complaint from several owners of dogs in town that some miscreant has been scalding their canines. The culprit is unknown at present, or it would go hard with him. The person who throws scalding water on a dumb animal ought to be subjected to the same treatment himself.

A merry party of young people, the guests of Miss Alice McCormac, spent a most delightful day (Saturday) on the lower bay taking in the sights at the life saving station, and enjoying the beach in various ways. One of the main events was a picnic dinner, and the way it disappeared was ample proof that it was good. The party was composed of the following: Misses Alice McCormac, Clara Johnson, Millie Johnson, Lena Larson, Lettie Larson, Genevieve Sengstacken, Ollie Davis, Messrs. Albert Campbell, Walter Butler, Tom Bennett, Sidney Smith, Fred Hofer, Eddie Johnson, Fred McCormac, Tom Golden. The company was chaperoned by Mrs. J. T. McCormac and Mrs. S. H. Hazard.

Coroner's Verdict.

The coroner's inquest and autopsy on the body of young Bird Hayes at Coquille City would seem to settle the question of the cause of his death. A thorough post mortum examination was made, and no indications whatever were found of external injury to cause death. The verdict of the coroner's jury was that the deceased had come to his death from heart failure due to excessive use of alcoholic drinks.

TooBad

The wires being down Monday and Tuesday nights prevented the MAIL from giving its readers an account of the penitentiary break a couple of days earlier than this.

Close Call

The Holm house in South Marshfield occupied by P. C. Levar, had a narrow escape from destruction Wednesday evening. A spark from the chimney set fire to the roof but the blaze was discovered by Peter Scott just as it got started, and he sealed the roof immediately with buckets of water just in time to extinguish the fire before it got beyond control.

Chadwick Deal Closed

The MAIL is informed on good authority that the deal for the Chadwick tract of timber land, has been closed and the sale is an accomplished fact.

This is a big deal, and if the new owners go ahead to develop their property, as they are expected to, it will mean a great deal to the bay.

And this is only one of the new developments for this season.

Church Services.

Children's Day Services will be held at the Presbyterian Church Sunday at 11 a. m. with children's sermon by the pastor. Sunday School at 10 a. m. C. E. meetings at 7 p. m. Subject of Sermon: "Three Important Nots." Come Everybody.

F. G. STRANGE, Pastor.

Will be Delivered Soon.

The school paper which is being turned out from the COAST MAIL Job office will be ready for the finishing touches Monday, and will be delivered to the subscribers soon after. The paper is much larger than was at first anticipated, thus the delay. Professor F. A. Golden has spared no pains in making this paper a valuable reference for future use and it is a complete history of the Marshfield High school and can be added to from year to year, thus making a continuous record. This is an undertaking which is a credit to any school and becomes more valuable as time passes and the example should be followed by more educational institutions.

BORN

WITTICK — At Marshfield, Oregon, June 13th, 1902, to the wife of Ernest Wittick, a son.

MARRIED

HODSON—McCANN—At the residence of the bride's parents Mr. and Mrs. Robt. McCann in East Marshfield, at noon, June 11, 1902, Evan Ross Hodson and Miss Pearl Amelia McCann, Rev. F. G. Strange officiating.

Improving Water System.

The Marshfield Water Co. is making extensive improvements in its pipe system, and have just received 500 feet of 6 inch cast iron pipe which will be laid on Fourth street, across the slough and on the marsh. Work on this will commence Monday.

A 6 inch iron pipe will also be laid on Broadway, commencing at C. street and running south, and 2000 feet of 2 inch pipe will also be laid on Broadway, running out toward the depot.

The pipe on 4th St (Clement plat) from the Nasburg to the Dubner place will also be lowered, as some grading is being done by the property owners on that street to bring it to the grade established by the city.