

Cavanagh-Turnbow
Oregonian

At high noon on Thursday, June 5, at the residence of the bride's aunt, Mrs. William Shreve, on Second street, Dr. William Cavanagh and Miss Zula Turnbow were united in marriage. Rev. Allyn Esson, pastor of the Rodney-Avenue Christian Church, being the officiating minister. The wedding was quiet and informal, only immediate relatives and friends being present. The bride is a graduate of the Monmouth Normal School and a successful school teacher, having been employed in this capacity for the past year at Colfax, Wash. The groom is a graduate of the North Pacific Dental College and holds the position of demonstrator at his alma mater, Dr. and Mrs. Cavanagh will continue as residents of Portland.

Some of the results of the advertising which this section has been getting recently, through railroad and timber talk are not so pleasant as they might be.

Already Marshfield is beginning to be over-run with travelling fakers of different kinds, who seem to think they will find rich picking in this prosperous community.

The latest instance to be called to the attention of the Mail is that of an agent for some outside building and loan association, who holds out glittering promises to induce people to put their money into it. As told to the Mail the promise is made that the payment of $6 per month for a period of 100 months will secure $1000 in cash at the end of that period. A very little figuring will show that this would be equivalent to the payment of 16 2/3 per cent per annum interest, over and above all expenses, of doing business.

Such a proposition is a fraud on the face of it, and it is to be hoped that very few of our people will be lured out of their good money on this proposition.

In fact, it seems that this party is not overworked in writing applications for stock in his company, as he finds time to work a fake advertising proposition on the side.

Northern Firemen.

Cass Lake, Minn., June 26—The Northern Minnesota Firemen's Association began its eighth annual tournament here today. Firemen accompanied by band, and citizens poured in on every train. The city is decorated and numerous immense arches welcome the fire fighters. Today was taken up largely with receiving the visitors and looking after their accommodation. Tomorrow and Saturday will see numerous interesting events, including a grand parade, a shooting tournament and hook and ladder and hose races.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Presbyterian church met Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. James Forty.

The Usual Thing.

"Wasn't that an odd thing for the minister to say just as we were leaving?" asked the Chicago bridegroom of his bride.

"I don't think I noticed what he said," replied the bride. "What was it?"

"He invited us to come again."

"Oh, that was just ordinary politeness. He always does my marrying."—Detroit Free Press.

Sciatic Rheumatism Cured After Fourteen Years of Suffering

"I have been afflicted with sciatic rheumatism for fourteen years," says Josh Edgar, of Germantown, Cal. "I was able to be around but constantly suffered. I tried everything I could hear of and at last was told to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which I did and was immediately relieved and in a short time cured, and I am happy to say it has not since returned." Why not use this liniment and get well? It is for sale by John Prioux.

California's Summer Session.

Berkeley, Cal., June 26—The third annual Summer session of the University of California, opened today and will continue until early in August. Among the subjects represented in this year's session for the first time are German, French, Italian, art forestry and library science. The faculty includes such eminent educators as Prof. Josiah Royce of Harvard, William A. Henry of the University of Wisconsin, F. N. Scott of the University of Michigan, Charles Sears Baldwin of Yale, and Superintendent F. Lou's Soldan of St. Louis.

Yale-Harvard Race

New London, Conn., June 25—This New England town is preparing to rejoice in its annual college outing, for the crews of Yale and Harvard contest for supremacy on the Thames tomorrow. The town is decorated impartially in blue and crimson, and everywhere on the streets are noisy masses of students. Gales Ferry and Red Top, the training quarters of the two crews were besieged throughout the day by crowds of students and lovers of aquatic sports.

It is generally conceded that the three races, 'varsity eight, 'varsity four, and freshmen eight, will be the most closely contested event held in years. Few wagers are reported so far, but the betting is expected to be heavy when the crowds arrive from New York and Boston tomorrow morning. The races this year will be run off at noon instead of in the evening, as last year. There will be the regulation three meets between the two 'varsity shells, the four oar and the freshmen boats. The first race will be the four oared, and will start at 10:30 the freshmen will take up the start at the navy yard and row up to the ferry. At 2 o'clock the 'varsity will be called, and will be rowed down stream over the usual course, starting opposite Gales Ferry and finishing at the bridge. This arrangement, the first of its kind for five years, is necessitated by the tides. If it is stormy, or conditions are at all unfavorable, the regatta will have to be postponed until evening, when the reverse arrangements will be followed out.

The referee's boat will be the "Scout," owned by Mr. August Belmont. The "Mirage," owned by Mr. Cornelius Vanderbilt, will be the official boat. These and the launches of Yale and Harvard will be the only boats allowed to follow the races. William Meikleham will act as a referee. President Roosevelt is scheduled to arrive here this evening on board the United States dispatch boat Dolphin and his presence tomorrow is expected to add much to the interest of the occasion.
