Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Hirst, expect to leave on the next Arcata for a trip to their old home in Australia. It has been forty years since they left that country for this, and they anticipate much pleasure in revisiting the old scenes. They expect to be absent at least five months and probably longer. Every one will wish them a pleasant voyage and a safe return. A. D. Walcott will remain in the store during Mr. Hirst's absence.

While some children were playing with a kitten in one of the upper rooms of the Gardfield hotel, the kitten became frightened and leaped through the open window. It was at least fifty feet to the ground, but the little cat lit on its feet, stood dazed a moment, wobbled a little and then walked off as good as good as new. This beats all the high-diving dogs, that jump into a net.

Robert Kruger is having his house on Fourth street raised and will build on a bay window and put new sills under the house.

The steamers Alert and Coos River laid over in town Thursday night. The Alert took the Coos River's run and the little Florence went up the North fork in place of the Alert. When she left here some one was sitting too far forward on the stabbord side and she was down by the head with a heavy list toward East Marshfield.

George Duebner of Oakland, California, arrived in Marshfield via Myrtle Point Wednesday, to visit with his wife and children who have been visiting at the Duebner home. Mr. Duebner's visit came as a surprise to his wife and children. Mr. and Mrs. Duebner, Sr. knew of his coming, but the surprise was complete to his better half.

TIMBER LAND, ACT JUNE 3, 1878. NOTICE FOR PUBLICATION.

United States Land Office, Roseburg Oregon, April 26th, 1902.
Notice is hereby given that in compliance with the provisions of the act of Congress of June 3, 1878, entitled "An act for the sale of timber lands in the States of California, Oregon, Nevada, and Washington Territory," as extended to all the Public Land States by act of August 4, 1892.
GUSTAVUS E. HELGESON, of Iola, county of Wapuca, state of Wisconsin, has this day filed in this office his sworn statement No. 2886, for the purchase of the Southeast quarter of Section No. 30, Township 25 South, of Range W., 10 W. M., and will offer proof to show that the land sought is more valuable for its timber or stone than for agricultural purposes, and to establish his claim to said land before the Register and Receiver of this office at Roseburg, Oregon, on Tuesday, the 4th day of November, 1902.
He names as witnesses: D. L. Martin, Joseph Weatherby, of Roseburg, Oregon; Martin A. Norde, John S. Taylor, of Iola, Wisconsin.
Any and all persons claiming adversely the above-described lands are requested to file their claims in this office on or before said 4th day of November, 1902. J. T. BRIDGES, Register. 7-125

Misinterpreted.
A delicate point of pronunciation is involved in this story. A country cousin once went to spend Sunday with an Edinburgh friend. After a long day spent in sightseeing they found themselves a long way from home. "Noo, mon," said the townsman, "we've a long way to gang. Shall we tak' a tram?" "Tak' a tram!" cried the other in surprise. "Ye dianna mean to tell me that in Edinbro' the public houses are open on the Sawbath!"

A Muddening Legacy.
A young man at St. Mendis was driven mad by a legacy of £4,000. From the moment the money came into his possession he was oppressed by the fear of losing it and always carried it about with him. He finally made a bonfire of it in the form of notes and then attempted to blow out his brains. —London Chronicle.

One of Our Pet Phrases.
"Did any of the inhabitants escape with his life?" inquired the man who wants harrowing details. "I didn't stop to ascertain," answered the man who is harrowingly exact. "It struck me that if anybody escaped without his life there wasn't much use in his escaping anyhow." —Washington Star.
