

PERSONAL AND LOCAL

Fine Stationery at Norton's.

Fine up-to-date Ladies' Shoes just received at Peter Clausen's.

Mrs. Hogard has moved from the James Ellerby house to the W. M. Thomas house on the corner of C and First streets.

G. T. Thomas, of Allegany brought down a lot of shoats to the creamery.

Geo. Farrin is having a large tank put up in his front window. Mr. Farrin will now be in a position to handle his large oyster trade to better advantage.

D. Morgan and J. A. Yater, of Myrtle Point were in the city Thursday, having brought over some horses for F. P. Norton.

Work was begun on the wharf at Empire Thursday morning. A force of men are making preparations and the construction work will be pushed forward as quickly as possible.

Mrs. J. L. Bounds has returned from Roseburg where she has been visiting with her parents for several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Anderson, Mrs. Weider, Mrs. Hutcheson and Mrs. J. P. Jackson spent Thursday at Rocky Point rustivating.

Mrs. John Lennon and Mrs. John Wickman were shopping in Marshfield Thursday.

J. D. Laird, the Coos Bay mail contractor, was in Marshfield Thursday looking after his interests.

Russ Tqwer and Tom Bennett are bucking down in the sand hills.

A. J. Cottingham went to Washington County, Ark., to see his sister and while there was taken with flux (dysentery) and was very bad off. He decided to try Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and was much pleased with the prompt cure which it effected, that he wrote the manufacturers a letter in praise of their medicine. Mr. Cottingham resides at Lockland, Ark. This Remedy is for sale by John Preuss.

Mrs. B. Belmont, the palmist, who came from Eureka on the last trip of the Alliance, for the purpose of putting our people onto a few prophetic curves in the lines of their hands, has run up against the license ordinance recently passed, which calls for $5 a day, and will not remain.

Christensen & Johnson are renewing the outside row of blocking under their building, which has been in some seventeen years.

Mrs. Maisters makes a specialty of tailored suits at very reasonable prices.

Clyde Dalton, Charles Lee, Richard Dunagan and Wm. O'Connell and Wm. Dunagan were among the Frisco Drummers working Marshfield this week.

Mrs. J. R. Rochon accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Oberinder, of Portland, who is here on a visit, will go to Coquille today, for a short visit with friends.

Z. A. Lawhorn of McKinley is putting logs into the water pretty lively, now that he has a full crew of men at work. He will have a large drive of superior logs to market when the fall rain brings the creek to the right point.

C. H. Merchant will leave on the Alliance for San Francisco, and expects to be gone for a month or more. Since his return some weeks ago, he finds returning symptoms of the trouble from which he suffered so severely months ago, and he will take another rest from business cares at Elmhurst, Alameda County.

We promise that should you use PUTNAM FADELESS DYES and be dissatisfied from any cause whatever, to refund 10c. for every package. MONROE DYE CO., Unionville, Mo Sold by John Preuss.

L. H. Heisner, F. A. King and A. O'Conner three of Marshfield's old-timers are going to the Sixes country after some deer. This trio of thunders will make Sixes come eleven or bring back a load of fine venison. The Mail got word from that quarter that the deer have already begun to scatter.

The club of lace workers met Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. T. McCormac, the guests of Miss Grace who entertained those present royally. The next meeting place will be announced later.

Coos Bay fishermen are catching enough salmon to supply the local demand.

A large number of W. of W. and Circle of Myrtle Point and Coquille leave for Bandon today to take part in the large W. of W. gathering at the latter place.

L. Nichols is croicing timber in the Allegany country.

Considerable work is being done on the Alleghany and Elkton wagon road.

BORN

BUNCH—At McKinley, Or. Aug. 4, 1902, to the wife of W. H. Bunch, a daughter.

B. H. Gibson and daughter of Corry county passed through town Thursday on their way home from Portland, coming via Drain route.

A special train will leave Sunday for Coquille to accommodate parties to the base ball game at Coquille, between Bandon and Coquille nines. This will be the last game of the series should Coquille win.

E. P. Mast, of McKinley, has finished his large new barn and has it full of hay for this winter.

Henry Holm and Postmaster W. B. Curtis returned Wednesday from a short outing at Beattie Bros.' sheep ranch on the coast a few miles above the mouth of the Coquille. They had a fine time and Mr. Curtis brought back a pretty red tip on the end of his nose.

The prosperous man is always the one who advertises. The man who advertises properly will find prosperity coming his way. It is better to think of the real advertising value of an announcement and strengthen that advertising value rather than just thinking of attracting attention by the lavish use of space or of adjectives or of claims.

George & Tibbetts

PHONE, 436, I. O. O. F. Bldg. MARSHFIELD, OREGON

Seasonable SHOES

The success of a shoe Department depends upon wear of the goods.

OUR

Mens' Shoes comprises all grades for the Farm, the Street, the Office, the Store.

Just Received

UNION MADE SHOES FOR MEN —GOOD SOLID AND SERVICEABLE.

LADIES' SHOES

Vici Kid, French Kid, Chrome Kid, Box Calf, Dull Kangaroo, Dancing and House Slippers. All kinds of useful footwear.

COMFORTABLE AND EASY

STOP RHEUMATISM, THOSE ELCTRIC LINED SHOES

SEVERAL LINES OF Children's Shoes

JUST THE THING FOR HARD WEAR

GOOD AND STYLISH

Infants' Blue and Patent Leather Shoes

George & Tibbetts

I. O. O. F. Building MARSHFIELD, OREGON Samples by request.

GOOS BAY, OREGON

Offers the greatest inducements for the investment of capital. For full particulars, write

GREAT CENTRAL LAND CO.

Empire City

Oregon

H. Lockhart and wife, who have been camping on Tenmile, returned Wednesday, and report having had a very pleasant time.

Thos. Coke and family, returned from the Tioga country Wednesday. They went and came by way of Callahan's and the Flournoy trail.

Miss Bronte Coffelt came down early Wednesday morning to take the train for Myrtle Point, to attend the Teachers' Institute.

Mrs. Sarah Wilson left Wednesday for Tenmile, on a visit to the family of W. F. Bowron.

James Wall of Myrtle Point, who is putting up a saw mill on Matheny creek has it about completed. The mill will cut 10,000 feet per day of white cedar and fir lumber. The mill will be completed in two weeks and when finished will run full force.

Complaints have been filed with the city health board as to several unsanitary spots in town. During the hot weather these places are quite prominent and should be cleaned up.

The Misses Kruse arrived from San Francisco, Thursday for a two months visit with their father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Kruse, at Centreville.

Don't blame the editor if your ad does not pull as it should. The fault may be in what is said in your ad.

Ed Noah, Tom Blaine, Bluford Davis and Isaac Landrith returned from a hunting trip to Loon lake country Friday having been successful in bagging 17 deer. They report deer quite plentiful and hunting good.

Mrs. R. C. Lee and sons Harold and Chariton returned Friday from a visit at the home of J. J. Clinkenbeard. They report having had a most enjoyable time.

George A. Cummins left on the Arcata for San Francisco where he will take the position which his brother Jim has been filling in the picture enlarging firm of Cummins Bros. in San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Wheeler of West Marshfield expect to leave for San Francisco on the Alliance. They go on business combined with pleasure.

Mrs. A. J. Savage and daughter Madge returned on the Alliance from a three weeks visit with relatives at Hillsboro, Washington County.

Julius Erickson, of West Astoria caught 192 salmon, Tuesday night, weighing 3548 lbs. The nights work netted Erickson and his boat puller $141.92.

The old Y. M. C. A. building has been rented to a few local young men who will have it fitted up for an athletic club.

Wm. Ward's son who recently cut him self with an axe in the logging camp was taken home Friday. Mrs. Ward is quite ill at the hotel.

Henry Sengstacken expects to open his store at Empire the latter part of August, in the P. O. building. A full stock of all kinds of goods will be put in and an up-to-date general store will be run.

W. O. Mathews, of Fairview, was in town Friday for medicine for one of his small children who is seriously ill at his house.

Alert's Excursion Trips.

The Alert came down last night so she would be here in order to take the Baptist picnic from here to Piper's grove. The Alert will leave here at 7:30 and will return with the picnic party. The Alma will make the Alert's run for the two days. Sunday the Alert will carry the baseball people to Empire, the game to be played by the Libby and Empire mines.

Ready for Work.

Today the Alliance brought in about 150 tons of freight for the Great Central Railroad Company. Mr. C. E. Cook a prominent Portland contractor arrived on the Alliance with about 50 men and a large amount of material to begin operations on the new wharf and road.

We are informed that 150 horses and mules have started for Empire overland. Tools and implements of all kinds have arrived also at Empire.

The steamer Signal came in last evening and took coal at the railroad bunker.

Mrs. Allie Townsend, the Worthy Grand Matron of the Order of Eastern Star of Oregon, arrived on the Alliance from Portland Friday and will be with Doric Chapter O. E. S. in this city at the regular meeting next Tuesday evening. She will be the guest of Mrs. Chas. Duggan, the local Worthy Matron, while in Marshfield.

Miss Helena Wessels, who is teaching the Myrtle Bank school on North Coos river came from Myrtle Point Saturday having been to the teachers' institute. Miss Wessels is to teach the Empire City school beginning September 22.

Oliver Wilson, of Coquille, returned from Portland on the Alliance where he had been after his brother Albert, who has been very ill there.

R. V. Wilson, Coquille's popular jeweler and his sons Virgel and Paul are in Marshfield, on their way to San Francisco on business and pleasure.