HALL THE HEALER NOT IN IT WITH DR. BROOKS

Any one troubled with a balky horse can have sure relief and an immediate cure for the same, upon calling on Dr. Chas. Brooks, one door north of the North Bend mill store. Dr. Brooks fully convinced two gentlemen Sunday, whom he saw laboring and fuming and swearing at the animal until they were nearly distracted. They tried in vain to induce the animal to pull their carriage up a hill. The doctor noticing a peculiar liquid in a flask, analyzed it and spoke a few words into the mouth of the flask, raised the head of the balky horse and poured the contents down his throat. The effect was magical and the steed went up that hill at a pace that would have shamed an automobile. Of course while the doctor's medicine given to the horse drove all the balk out of him, if taken by men or women, it drives all the balk into them, beyond this it is harmless.

Arranging a Game.

The Libby nine sent a representative down Monday to arrange for a game with the Marshfield boys to be played in the near future. The game to be for $100 a side and gate receipts. The game will probably be arranged today and the deposits made. The Marshfield nine will be the same team which played last year.

Good enough for anybody!

This is his first trip to the woods and no doubt roughing it will give him the much needed improvement to his health(?)

CALIFORNIA REPUBLICANS

NOMINATING A GOVERNOR

Sacramento, Aug. 25—The Republican state convention was called to order at 2 o'clock this afternoon for the purpose of nominating a congressional ticket. The candidates for the governorship are Governor Gage, Dr. John C. Pardee, Thomas Flint, Jr., and E. Bedron. The first struggle will be over the chairmanship and his between Congressman Metcalf, and candidate Gage.

The Pardee elements for governor are led by Neff, who is Anti-Gage. The fight upon Governor Gage will be bitter. The largest crowd is attending the convention that has been seen here in many years.

Business Increasing

The Pacific States Telegraph and Telephone Co. are making some improvements all along their lines in the way of overhauling things in general. The company have over 200 phones in now and are putting in new ones all the time. Twenty new phones will be here on the Alliance and the business is growing fast. Superintendent Robertson of this town expects in the near future to put on an additional operator using one exclusively for the long distance business. The increased business in this line is one of the best criterians of business prosperity there is and it can be depended upon.

Honorable Way

The league baseball club has disbanded and a new team has been organized in Marshfield. Some of the players of the league team find themselves confronted with unpaid baseball bills, and in order to square these accounts they wish to arrange a series of games with Coquille or any other club, Marshfield is a good town to support a ball team and the boys think a few games with the money applied to the debts would make all square with the world.

STATE SCHOOL LANDS BEING GRABBED UP.

A special dispatch to the Oregonian from Salem says:—The eagerness with which idle capital is seeking investment in real property that promises to advance in value is shown by the sales of state school land in Coos County which have followed the announcement that a railroad will be built to Coos Bay. Immediately after the report was published showing that the railroad will probably be constructed there was a rush for cheap land in that vicinity. Within a few days every acre of vacant school land within 35 miles and more of Coos Bay will be purchased. Some of the land may prove to be of no value as a means of income, but in the desire to get what there was of value, men took all there was to be had. The land cost them but $1.25 per acre, so the loss could not be great in any event. Buying has also been active in Curry County, and practically all the vacant school land has been taken.

New Schoolhouse Top

Some valuable improvement work on the Marshfield school building has been made of late, and is about completed and a fine job is the result and the school board can be proud of the fact that they have a good substantial roof on the building. The old tin one being badly rusted out. E. O'Connell put in some new gutters being made of sheet copper. The top is covered with a coat of T & B Asfaltum paper nearly one-fourth of an inch thick and put on with a cement that is perfectly water tight. The new roof ought to last a long time. The cost of the new roof will be in the neighborhood of $500.

New Buildings for Bangor

Major Kinney, Chief Engineer of the Great Central Railroad Co. says the first building to be constructed in the new town of Bangor will be a hotel. It will be patterned after the Hotel Portland, except that it will be only three stories in height. The second structure will be a general hospital, 40x100 feet on the ground, and two stories tall. The general office building of cut stone will be started first, but many others will be completed before that one will be ready for use, which will be some time next Spring. Major Kinney says work at the quarry has already been begun in preparation for erecting the office building. The other structures for which there is more pressing need, will be of wood.

VIOLENCE RESORTED TO, ALSO KIDNAPPING

August Sech Seized by the Mob and Stabbed Three Times---He Will Die

Hazelton, Aug. 25—The most turbulent scene that has yet occurred during the anthracite strike in this vicinity, took place between 5:00 and 7:00 a. m. this morning. Rumors were current for a week past that an attempt would be made this morning to open the Canberry and No. 40 collieries, both practically in the heart of the city.

At midnight the strikers began gathering in the streets and at 5:00 o'clock this morning 10,000 miners formed a cordon on both sides of the collieries. The non-union men were set upon by the strikers with clubs and driven back. A number of them were kidnaped by the strikers and their present whereabouts are unknown. August Sech, was seized by the mob and thrown to the ground and stabbed three times, and it is believed that he will die. The mob would have killed him on the spot but for the timely interference of citizens. No shots were fired, the strikers used clubs for weapons. The city at 10:00 a. m. was practically quiet.
