

PERSONAL AND LOCAL

Fine Stationery at Norton's.

Misses Zoe Wilson and Lizzie Harris, of Sumner, were shopping in town Tuesday.

J. B. Gilbert, of Empire, was in town Tuesday night.

Ralf Williams has returned from his vacation and is again at his post as cashier of the Flanagan & Bennett bank.

Jas. Forty has added a donkey engine to the equipment of his logging camp at Bangor.

Peter Clausen for shoes.

Miss Eva Wilson was in town Tuesday on her way to her home in Sumner from a visit on Coos river.

The sale of the X. L. N. T. store property to Geo. Beale has been closed. The price paid is given at $8,000.

The new schooner Argus was towed over from the shipyard to the Bay City mill Tuesday.

Fred Lilienthal went to South slough Tuesday, in company with Doc Scott.

James Catching, of Sumner was in town Tuesday, assisting some of his old Indian war comrades to make their proofs of service.

Best line of School shoes at Peter Clausen's.

W. E. Dungan will open an establishment for cleaning and pressing clothes, on the second floor of the Hutchison building over Boudin's barber shop. He will be ready for business this afternoon. He also has on display a fine line of clothing samples, including the latest weaves from the Brownsville Woolen mills. Come over and buy an $18 business suit made to fit you.

Emil Ogren goes to San Francisco on the Arcata for a couple of weeks vacation. Hillis Short takes Ogren's place at Flanagan's market.

The Copper Queen arrived from Rogue river Wednesday, coming up after some machinery, purchased of Thos. Walker.

F. W. Libby, special pension examiner, whose headquarters are in Portland, is in the city.

J. A. Yeakam Jr., came over on Wednesday train from the Coquille where he has been buying young cattle.

Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Norton will leave Friday for Portland. They will take in the Elks' fair and the state fair and expect to be gone about a month.

Mrs. L. W. Mauzey, who has been quite ill for several months, is getting better and is able to sit up.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos Irvine, Miss Irvine, Mrs. G. T. Coleman and Miss Olive Davis went to Rocky Point Tuesday for a weeks camping.

Wooliever & Lilienthal proprietors of the Owl Billiard parlors, have dissolved partnership, Mr. Wooliever retiring from the firm, and Mr. Lilienthal continuing the business.

The friends of Julia Durand will be pleased to learn that she is improving from her serious illness, though still confined to the bed and very weak.

Thos. Maginus has finished the sewer which he has been constructing for Dr. Tower, John Bear and H. Seugstacken.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. McPherson and Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Matson went to Allegany Friday, with the purpose of visiting Golden Falls today.

The schooner Marconi was towed down Tuesday to the lower bay, where she will finish her load of lumber for South Africa.

Judge Hamilton went to Coquille Thursday from Dora, where he and Mrs. Hamilton and their two daughters have been enjoying a visit at the home of Wm. Abernethy.

The Schooner Chas. E. Falk arrived Thursday and docked at the foot of A street, with a shipment of Feed etc, for J. W. Flanagan, of the Del Monte Milling Co.

E. C. Whitley, of the Coquille came down Thursday. He is about to make a sale of his property, and intends to make a visit to his brother up in Washington.

T. T. Kane, Special representative of the Pacific Miner is in this city gathering data for an illustrated article on the mineral and other resources of Coos county. The article will appear Oct. 1st.

For a bad taste in the mouth take Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. For sale by John Preece.

Henry Holm went to Myrtle Point Wednesday, after some fat cattle for his meat market.

Peter Scott Jr., will go to Enreka on the Alliance to take a position in the park there.

Food and Dairy Commissioner Bailey and State Veterinarian McLain arrived by Drain stage Thursday. They went up Coos river the same day and will inspect the dairy herds of that vicinity.

The A. N. W. met at the residence of Mrs. J. T. McCormac Thursday afternoon. Lucious refreshments were enjoyed and a general good time was the result. The next meeting of the club will be at the home of Mrs. William Nasburg.

Mrs. Bennett Swanton will accompany her husband to Coquille City today, and will visit the home of her parents at Dora while Bennett attends circuit court which convenes at the county seat today.

Frank Smith, who came down from the hatchery Wednesday, reports that he is all ready for the fish, and is also laying for any fisherman who may get their nets above the legal limits. Chinook are plentiful in the pools blow the hatchery, waiting for the first rains, to start to the spawning grounds.

F. P. Norton, who recently sold his property on the corner of Broadway and C. Streets, has bought 4 lots on Washington street, opposite the site of the projected hospital, in Railroad addition, also 2 lots in West Marshfield, next to J. W. Kruse's residence. He does not intend to move for the present, as he has a year's lease on the property he just sold.

PRUNES! Fresh Petite prunes at 75 cents per 50-pound box f. o. b. Coquille. Order early to be sure of getting some. Cash must accompany order. No Italians this year. R. D. Sanford, Coquille, Oregon, 9-6-tw

PUTMAN FADELESS DYES do not spot, streak or give your goods an unevenly dyed appearance. Sold by John Preece, 10c. per package.

Mighty Nimrods

Wm. Nasburg, August Farley, Jack Farley, Dr. Toye, W. H. Short, Geo. Lawler and Grant Eggers went to the sand hills Sunday on a hunt. They brought back three deer. Short killed two of these, while the third was brought down by him and August Farley. Both fired at once from different points, both hitting the deer, and both bullets coming out together. Nasburg and Jack Farley also bagged four coons.

Bridal Runaway.

Frank Black and his bride, while returning from Coquille City to Sumner Wednesday, had an unpleasant experience for the commencement of new married life. They were driving in a single buggy, accompanied by the rest of the party in another rig, when the horse drawing the bride and groom ran away. But mesger particulars are available, but it is reported that both were thrown out and considerably shaken and bruised but not seriously injured.

NARROW ESCAPE FOR

HI KING AND OTHERS

An accident happened on the Daniels creek logging railroad Wednesday, in which Sherman Cutlip got a sprained ankle and other bruises, and Hiram King and Judd Mills were severely shaken up.

They were moving one of their donkey engines on a logging truck and the train was running at a good speed when the truck jumped the track. The three men named were with the donkey and they were obliged to jump off. King made a mis-cue and struck on his head and shoulders, but fortunately got off without any serious injury as did the others.

An Evening Serenade.

A number of the members of the Christian Endeavor society arranged a very pleasant surprise and serenade on Mr. and Mrs. Bennett Swanton, who have always taken a keen interest in C. E. work, Wednesday evening.

Rev. F. G. Strange accompanied the party to their cosy home in South Marshfield.

Those enjoying the treat were: The Misses Anna Fisher, Edvarda Erickson, Elsie Bennett, Tish Howard, Alice McCormac, Tossie Twombly, Clara Johnson, Eva Coke, Millie Johnson, Maude Coke, Tom Bennett, Jay Tower, Albert Sleep, Edgar Campbell, Fred Hofer, Dan Keating, Ralph Coke, Robert Swanton.

ADMINISTRATOR'S NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that the undersigned was, on the 20th day of August, 1902, by the County court of Coos county, Oregon, duly appointed executrix of the estate of Fredrick L. Miller deceased. All persons having claims against the said estate are hereby notified to present them, properly verified, to me at Marshfield, Coos Co., Oregon, within six months from the date of this notice. Dated Sept. 6th, 1902. MARY MILLER HEVRA

Travels By Sea.

Arrivals by Arcata Sept. 2: R Elliott, Mrs Anderson, Geo Anderson, H Purrlington, G Ross, F Ferrari, J Ferrari, C Moomaw, H Olsen; Capt Splicer, J Alman, Mrs Alman, M Hogan, R Evans, R Brazil, G Pierson, J Peterson, W Ansen, L Pratt, S Eglet, A Bayous, L Meagher.

Departures by Arcata Sept. 4:—Miss Johanson, Mrs Mark, Florence Roberts, Mrs M Roberts, Mrs Thompson, Nettie Edwards, D A Curry, J Caldwell, Jay Tower, C J Brusckhe, W Bartlett, M Thormond, Miss Fritzo, N Fritzo, Mrs Curry, Mrs. Caldwell, Capt. A M Simpson, Mrs Jas H Flanagan.

Ladies Aid Meeting.

The Ladies Aid Society of the Presbyterian Church held its regular meeting Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. F. S. Dew. There was a good attendance of membership and several visitors and a very pleasant and profitable afternoon was enjoyed by those present.

Delicious ice cream and cake was served, after which the Pastor invited the ladies over to the parsonage which is being nicely fitted up for the reception of his family, who will arrive on the Alliance this week. The next regular meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Fairchilds.

J. Brusckhe is having three quarters of a mile of ditch dug through the John B. Anderson marsh on South slough, through which to float logs. He has opened a camp there to put in logs for the stove mill, which he recently purchased. Jas. Wassen has charge of the camp.

A party consisting of Dr. and Mrs. J. T. McCormac and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Lockhart, Mrs. Gray, Mrs. Hinchman, and E. W. Dean, took a ride up to the Maze yesterday in the launch Garland.

Grant Beale came over from Coquille on horseback yesterday, to meet his brother George here on business.

Misses Maud and Minnie Mills will go to San Francisco on the outgoing Alliance. The former will take a position in a millinery establishment and the latter will make a visit to friends.

We guessed pretty near on the Black-Beyers wedding in yesterday's issue, but the date should have been 3 instead of 4 and Rev. Allen performed the ceremony instead of Judge Harlocker.

Band on Record:—Capt. Butler handed in his resignation as master of the tug Triumph, some ten days ago and he and his wife have gone back to their Coquille home. John Johnson who has been deckhand on the tug during the past ten years has charge now as captain.

MARRIED

DEWEESE—WILSON—At the home of Isaac Wilson at Libby, Or., Sept. 3, 1902, Chas. L. Dewese and Miss Lizzie Wilson, Rev. R. C. Lee, officiating.

BLACK—BEYERS—At Coquille, Ore., Sept. 3d, Frank Black and Miss Alice Beyers, Rev. Allen officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Beyers, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. N. Black of the Sumner neighborhood. Both have lived there since childhood and number the whole community as their friends. They will commence housekeeping on the Black farm near Sumner.

DIED

HONGELL—In West Marshfield, Or. Sept. 4, 1902, Ellen Sofia, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Hongell, aged 1 month and 5 days.

The funeral will take place from the Lutheran Church at 2 p. m. today, Friday, Rev. B. F. Bengston officiating.

SHOES FOR ALL

Perfectly Fitting

New Styles

Best line of Mens' Dress, Street and Working Shoes. Something to give you satisfaction. Prices reasonable. Exclusive Brands, Good Goods.

Ladies' and Childrens' Shoes. We have placed in stock a line that we are sure to be satisfactory in fit and wear. Styles that are New. Prices that will commend the goods.

CHARLES GEORGE

Ladies' and Gents' Furnishers.

L. O. O. F. BUILDING.

Phone 436.