

CHAS. WILSON BOUND OVER TO CIRCUIT COURT

Defendant Employes no Counsel And His Story Criminates Himself.—
Grimes Case Today.

The case of the State of Oregon vs Charles Wilson, charged with assault and battery with attempt to commit robbery, was tried in the justice court, before Judge Turpin Tuesday morning at ten o'clock, E. L. C. Farrin appearing for the prosecution, and the defense having no counsel. In view of the evidence given, Judge Turpin bound the defendant over to appear before the Circuit Court, in bonds fixed at $600.00.

The case of The State of Oregon vs John Grimes, on the same charge as above, was continued until one o'clock Tuesday, but as two or three very important witnesses for the prosecution were not present at that time, the case was set for hearing at 2 o'clock p. m. Wednesday. In this case Hall and Hall will appear for the defense.

The above cases are the outcome of the hold-up in Empire City early last Sunday morning of which the Mail gave a full account in Tuesday morning's issue.

Wilson gave his version of the affair which was to the effect that he and Grimes were looking for the Snapp woman with a view to recovering the money of which she had robbed Grimes. Seeing Mrs. Chase out on the S. O. Co's, wharf, where she was looking for the Alliance, he went up and put his hand on her shoulder and said: "Is that you, Edna?" The woman screamed and ran, and Wilson ran after her, clutching at her clothes and trying to stop her, "to apologize." With this laudable purpose he chased her about two blocks and overhauled her on the corner by Clay Moore's saloon, where he brought her to a standstill with one hand on her shoulder.

Other witnesses testified that he had his other hand on her throat, and it is said that testimony is forthcoming to Mother's Girl.

There exists often a very beautiful companionship between the mother and her daughter. The intimacy is frank, free and sympathetic. But some day the mother feels as if something had chilled this intimacy. The child is silent and sad, and seems to shun her mother instead of seeking her.

This change very often occurs when the young girl is crossing the border line of womanhood. She is morbid, nervous, fearful, as she enters upon this new experience.

The use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription at such a time will do more than restore the normal balance of mind and body. It will establish the womanly function upon a basis of sound health, as well as improve the appetite, nourish the nerves, and promote the general physical health.

"Two years ago my daughter's health began to fail," writes Mrs. Dan Hall, of Brookfield, Green Co., Wis. "Everything that could be thought of was done to help her but it was of no use. When she began to complain she was quite stout, weighed 120—the picture of good health, until about the age of fourteen; then in six months she was so run down her weight was but 120. I felt I could not give her up as she was the only child I had, and I must say, Doctor, that only for your 'Favorite Prescription' my daughter would have been in her grave today. When she had taken one-half bottle the natural function was established and we bought another one, making only two bottles in all, and she completely recovered. Since then she is as well as can be."

show that he left his finger marks on the woman's neck. The people of Empire are said to be quite warm over the case.

Encampment on in Earnest.

Special to the Mail.
Washington, D. C., Oct. 7.—The thirty-sixth national encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic is on in earnest and the constant succession of events leaves little rest for the veterans and other visitors. The day has witnessed the customary parade of the naval veterans reunions of the various army corps, meetings of the Woman's Relief Corps and other auxiliary bodies and a monster reception for the veterans at the Pension office. Commissioner Ware received the visitors and to each veteran presented a souvenir card. Business sessions of the encampment begin tomorrow. The pre-election contest for commandor-in-chief is hourly growing warmer. The supporters of General Stewart of Pennsylvania declare that his selection for the honors assured, but the friends of General Black of Chicago, General McElroy of this city and the others whose names have been mentioned have not abandoned hope and give evidence of an intention to fight to the last ditch.
