

PERSONAL AND LOCAL

From Thursday's Daily.

Buy your shoes at Peter Clausen's.

Fine Stationery at Norton's.

New office of W. E. Dungan over Broiler Restaurant is being neatly renovated. That warm blue paint, he says matches his winter overcoats.

Mrs. J. J. O'Toole arrived Wednesday from Port Orford joining her husband here where Mr. O'Toole has opened an upholster business. J. T. O'Toole returned Wednesday to close up their business down there, when he will return.

Last evening this office was swamped by a band of Rebekahs who bore in their arms ice cream and cake enough for the whole force. We had our allotted space for the day about full so will tell the why and wherefor for the remembrance in tomorrow's MAIL.

Best line of school shoes at Peter Clausen's.

PUTNAM FADELESS DYES are fast to sunlight, washing and rubbing. Sold by John Preuss 10c. per package.

L. H. Heisner is making improvements to his livery barn on Fourth St. by bringing the front out to the line of the street.

H. Sengstacken was moving his museum out of the rear end of the Garfield hotel yesterday, to make room for the upholsterers shop which goes in there.

Is. Lando received a telegram from San Francisco Tuesday evening saying that his father Joseph Lando, who has been sick for some time, was quite low and would have to undergo an operation.

The telephone from the Cape Arago Life-Saving station to the lookout at the bar is now in operation, and instant communication is practicable. With a cable across the bay at Empire and the short gap filled in, shipping would be greatly benefitted.

From Friday's Daily.

S. B. Sherwood, of Sumner, was doing business in town Thursday.

Major Kinney is in Reesburg and is expected here in a few days.

There are a lot of gray-haired people dying to get married.—Boston Courier.

The Alert took a lot of brick up to Allegany yesterday for use in Captain Edwards' new house. Captain Dan Roberts is at the wheel of the Alert, while Capt. Edwards is busy finishing up his house.

Coquille Bulletin:—Wm. Rich, our groceryman, had a cabbage at his store last Saturday that was a monster. It weighed over 40 pounds and measured almost 60 inches in circumference. The vegetable came from Mr. Albee's farm, near Fishtrap.

W. J. Butler returned yesterday morning from an extended stay in the interior of the state.

D. F. Ross was doing business in town Friday, and getting around livelier than many a younger man.

J. J. Owings formerly of Myrtle Point has removed his photographic gallery to Coquille City where he has permanently located.

C. E. Morse, timekeeper for D. W. Small, expects his wife on the incoming Alliance, and will make their home in Marshfield.

Chas. George is putting out some signs, and Dan Keating, his clerk, is displaying considerable artistic taste in the lettering.

J. J. Owings the photographer, of Coquille has some good views of the Tucker episode. Any one wanting one can get it by sending to him.

Is. and Samuel Lando started for San Francisco overland Thursday, called thence by the serious illness of their father Joseph Lando.

In Paris there is a restaurant that announces for the benefit of visitors of the Anglo-Saxon persuasion, that "American drinks are to be had here."

The A. N. W. society met Thursday at Mrs. O. J. Seeley's on Broadway, and will meet next Thursday with Mrs. W. D. L. F. Smith on Broadway and A.

F. R. Taylor was in from his place on the north fork of the Coquille Thursday, bringing in some fine Baldwin apples. He contemplates a trip to Kansas soon.

The W. C. T. U. Mothers will hold a business meeting tomorrow at 3 p. m. at the Presbyterian Church. Both old and new members are requested to be present.

Chas. Wilson was brought up from Empire Thursday evening in charge of W. T. C. Spincer, to be taken to Coquille City today to await the next session of the Circuit court.

Jackson—"I hear your baby was kidnapped." Currie—"Yes. The kidnapers have offered us five thousand dollars if we will take him back, but we are holding out for more".—Life.

The business portion of the town of Gervais, destroyed by fire a few days ago, will be rebuilt as soon as possible, and with structures of a more substantial and enduring character.

The citizens of Marion county can well point to that county with pride as to its financial condition. The county has not a cent of indebtedness and the treasurer's report shows $63,707.91 in the treasury.

A union Sunday School has been organized at Prosper lately, and is launching out with good prospects for success. They have a good start on an organ fund and will soon negotiate for an instrument.—Herald.

Grading Commenced.

The contractor on the Belt Line railroad has commenced grading the road from Pony slough toward Marshfield. Now the knockers are conceding that "they may grade a mile or two of road." Another development in a few days is going to give the knockers some more concessions to make.

Bangor Exchange

The Bangor Exchange and Publishing Company filed articles of incorporation in the Secretary of State's department recently. The company has a capital stock of $25,000, and will establish a daily and weekly newspaper in Portland, and do a general printing and publishing business. A. A. Lindsley, A. A. Wright and John K. Kollock are the incorporators of record.

A Pisanat Treat.

Wednesday evening after the regular session of the Rebekah lodge and just before adjournment it was announced that all present attend at Tibbetts Ice Cream Parlors, where a treat of luscious ice cream and cake was in waiting, the cake being brought by those who arranged for the little surprise. The affair was in honor of the Noble Grand, Mrs. Is. Lando, who had been absent in the East for some time and the treat was in token of their gladness of her safe return to her official functions as head officer of Rebekah lodge.

From Saturday's Daily.

M. Shoemaker, of the Bandon broom-handle and match foundry, has been in town a couple of days on business.

H. Sengstacken has sold 40 acres near the Bangor townsite to Minnesota capitalists, who have been here looking over the situation.

The Alliance arrived at six p. m. yesterday and docked at the Del Monte warehouse, having 40 tons of feed for J. W. Flanagan. She will sail at 4 o'clock this afternoon.

Harry Lingo, late of Drain, arrived by team Thursday, with his family and household effects and will make his future home here. Mr. Lingo formerly lived on South slough. He left about a year ago, thinking to better his condition. He is glad to get back—like the rest of us.

V. M. Perry and Chas. Adams are over from the other end of the county to attend the Masonic doings and banquet. Mr. Perry was the first Mason made in Marshfield.

Mrs. Thomas Nichols and Mrs. Julia Watters of Salem, arrived on the Alliance from Salem. Mrs. Nichols comes to join her husband who is going to work on C. Marsh's ranch near West Marshfield.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Collover of Catching slough, returned Thursday from the valley where they have spent a couple of weeks visiting.

Travel by Sea.

Arrivals from Portland by Alliance Oct 10th—W S Chandler, Mrs W S Chandler, A W Neal, F Smith, Mrs C E Morse, G L Scudder, E Langhead, Mary Gustovsen, F L Fisher, Mrs L H Carrydell, A S Dibble, N A Kendall, John S Coks, W S Davis, W Beek, M Wallace, A O Rogers, I Hearick, G Bunting, G Gulovsen, B F Peck and family, Wm J Waters, A B Daly, J A Wolf, E F Bartholomew, E B Seabrook, C B Trescott, C Nolske, E Fife, Mrs C Beck.

When you wake up with a bad taste in your mouth, go at once to John Preuss drug store and get a free sample of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. One or two doses will make you well. They also cure biliousness, sick-headach and constipation.

Coos Bay Not Considered.

At the annual meeting of the shareholders of the Oregon Short Line Tuesday at Salt Lake the former Harriman board was elected, with the exception of Jones, who was succeeded by McCornick, of Salt Lake. It is stated that negotiations are pending for the operation of the Short Line to South Salt Lake, whereby there will be but one road built through to Los Angeles.

Boots, Shoes and Harness Repaired.

John Harding the shoemaker is employed at Haskell's Harness shop.

We also keep all kinds of leather.

Harness Leather, Sole Leather, Lace Leather, Latigo Leather. All kinds of Spring Leggings. If you want to buy any kind of harness see Haskell.

MARK'S CORNER : : Front Street

SAN FRANCISCO FOR G. A. R. ENCAMPMENT

Special to the Mail. Washington, Oct. 10.—San Francisco has been selected for the next Grand Army encampment.

TIMBER LAND, ACT JUNE 3, 1878—NOTICE FOR PUBLICATION.

United States Land Office, Roseburg, Or., Oct. 1 1902. Notice is hereby given that in compliance with the provisions of the act of Congress of June 3, 1878, entitled "An act for the sale of timber lands in the States of California, Oregon, Nevada, and Washington Territory," as extended to all the Public Land States by act of August 4, 1892, CLARENCE PENNOCK, of Marshfield, county of Coos, state of Oregon, has this day filed in this office his sworn statement No. 3586, for the purchase of the SW1-4, of Sec. No. 26 in Township No. 26 N Range No. 11 W, and will offer proof to show that the land sought is more valuable for its timber or stone than for agricultural purposes, and to establish his claim to said land before W. U. Douglas, U. S. Commissioner for Oregon at Marshfield, Oregon, on Saturday, the 20th day of Dec, 1902.

He names as witnesses: J. A. Smith, A. L. Smith, Fred Taylor, E. A. Anderson, all of Marshfield, Oregon. Any and all persons claiming adversely the above-described lands are requested to file their claims in this office on or before said 20 day of Dec. 1902. 10 11 J. T. BURNS, Register.

Good enough for anybody!
ALL HAVANA FILLER

"FLORODORA" BANDS are of some value as tags from "STAR," "HORSE SHOE," "SPEARHEAD," "STANDARD NAVY," "OLD PEACH & HONEY," "SAW LOG," "OLE VARGINY" or "MASTER WORKMAN" Tobacco.

Garefully Selected Fall Goods.

Dress Goods
Corsets
Gloves
Laces
Notions
Fancies
Hosiery
Domestics
Underwear
etc., etc.

We have

Largely increased every department in the lines we carry and feel confidently able to supply your wants in—

Clothing Gents Furnishings, Shoes, Hats, Caps, Oil Skins and Rubber Goods.

Mackintoshes, Wrappers, Waists, Wool and Silk Goods

Standard Patterns and Publications

Samples Sent on Application

CHARLES GEORGE
I. O. O. F. BUILDING. Phone 436