

PERSONAL AND LOCAL

From Thursday's Daily.

Buy your shoes at Peter Clausen's.

Fine Stationery at Norton's.

The Shakespearean Club met last night at the home of E. L. C. Farrin.

Mrs. Mary Steele, of Coquille City, is visiting in Marshfield with her son, Earl.

There is a great rush for timber claims in Southern Oregon, and people are coming all the way from Iowa to locate them.

The schooner Emma Utter arrived yesterday, 22 days out from San Pedro. Capt. Allen reports a pleasant trip but no wind.

After several weeks of threatening and several changes of wind, the weather clerk seems to have got down to business.

Miss Emma Tribby will start Friday for Gravel Ford, where she will enter as a student in F. S. Bunch's academy, which opens Monday.

Best line of school shoes at Peter Clausen's.

The Marshfield Cash Meat Market received a carload of fine prime mutton sheep and fat hogs Wednesday, from Roy Garrett of Myrtle Point.

Father Donnelly is expected back from Curry county Friday evening, and will hold services in the Catholic church at the usual hours next Sunday.

Rev. F. G. Strange was elected by the Grants Pass session of the Oregon Synod of the Presbyterian Church as one of the members of the Home Mission board.

C. A. Johnson has bought W. O. Christensen's interest in the extensive business and property interests of the firm of Christensen & Johnson, and an inventory of the stock was being taken yesterday.

PUTNAM FADELESS DYES are fast to sunlight, washing and rubbing. Sold by John Preuss 10c. per package.

The Belgian Hare has dropped out of existence so far as industry used to appear in print, but their high flavor still lingers painfully in some of the enthusiasts' purses, even in remote Coos county. It was fine sport.

Hailstones two inches in diameter recently fell in St. Louis and caused $5000 damage in five minutes. On Coos Bay we call a half-inch hailstone a whopper. Let some of the school children figure out the comparative cubical contents, and hand it in; we haven't time.

When you wake up with a bad taste in your mouth, go at once to John Preuss drug store and get a free sample of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. One or two doses will make you well. They also cure biliousness, sick-headach and constipation.

Little Hazel Tibbette received yesterday a present which she highly appreciates. It is a Chinese noodle, and as J. W. Tibbette says, looks just like an Angora goat. It was sent from San Pedro, by Dick Earle, an old friend of the Tibbette's and was brought by Captain Allen on the Schooner Emma Utter.

Coquille Herald—Eld. C. P. Bailey' meetings will begin next Monday night, though he himself will not be here till Thursday night. It is his wish, however, that the meetings should be started Monday evening, and they will. Preaching each evening at the M. E. church in this city.

From Friday's Daily.

H. Sengstacken made a business trip to Coos river yesterday.

The shipyard laid off Thursday afternoon on account of the expected rain.

White & Co moved the oven from the Cottage Bakery to the Garfield hotel yesterday.

Edward Abernethy, of Dora, has been in town visiting friends and returned to his home Thursday.

W. W. Gage was in town Thursday on his way back to the Coquille after a visit to his ranch at Allegany.

Miss Florence Twombly has finished her term of school at Bullards and is expected home on today's train.

Dr. Tower started for Roseburg yesterday in response to a request from Major Kinney, who wished to see him there.

Fred Hofer who has been employed in Wm. Nasburg's dry-goods store has changed his job to one more to his liking, that of the grocery business, with F. A. Sacchi. He expects to go to school after a year's vacation from study.

Isadore Fahy was in town yesterday on his way to his post at the Umpqua light house, after a vacation spent at his home on the Coquille. He reports his brother Ed, recovering from his recent accident, which his friends will be glad to hear.

In every community there are some persons who are unable to understand how a newspaper can be run "without fear or favor." It keeps them guessing to account for every policy or utterance of the newspapers on the theory of some unworthy motive—and their contortions are awfully funny sometimes.

Total eclipse of the moon last night; did you see it? Our marine reporter who generally keeps his lamp trimmed and burning, by day and by night, was caught out, without his lantern. Later—J. W. Tibbette's said he could see Grover Cleveland sitting on the right hand corner fishing, just back of J. Pierpont Morgan, who was clipping coupons from a large roll of bonds and he could plainly distinguish J. Gould running, bare headed, down the Great Central railroad track, headed for Bangor. Of course he must have taken an oyster cocktail or two.

THE BIGGEST SENSATION EVERYWHERE
BILIPUT
Colapsible Pocket
STEREOSCOPE APPARATUS—
The smallest Stereoscope with the strongest optical effect. Highly finished in different colors with rich gold and silver decorations (mountings), including 20 V. F. Photographs, Views of art (genre). PRICE ONLY $1.00. Sent everywhere prepaid in letter form.
AGENTS WANTED.
LILIPUT STEREOSCOPE CO.
FOREST BUILDING,

From Saturday's Daily.

The regular monthly meeting of the Marshfield Rod & Gun club was held last evening, and it is understood that a measure was passed providing for the purchase of a ton of coal. It was decided to call a meeting for next Wednesday night to discuss the question of issuing a challenge to the other Coos County clubs, for a prize shoot to be held on Thanksgiving to compete for the trophy which was sent here some months ago by the Union Metallic Cartridge Co., and which is now in possession of the Coquille City club.

$50.00 REWARD

For information leading to the recovery of the following described horses, stolen from Beaver Hill, Coos County, Ore., on the night of Friday Oct. 10th 1902:

One grey Norman gelding, very pretty, long gray mane and tail, about 15 hands high, weighs about 1200 lbs. Ten years old.

One bay gelding, white spot on end of nose, one hind foot between ankle and hoof is white, 15½ or 16 hands high, weight about 1300 to 1350 lbs., 5 years old.

CHAS. BAUSCH,
Beaver Hill, Coos Co., Oregon.

CASITORIA.
The Kind You Have Always Bought
Signature Chas. H. Fletcher

GROSSMANN'S PATENT WRITING RING

The most important improvement of the age in the art of penmanship makes the poorest writer a splendid penman in a few weeks by the use of this ring. Endorsed by prominent College Presidents and Boards of Education in Europe and America. Sample dozen assorted sizes sent post paid for $1.00, single sample 25c. When ordering a single ring, state whether for man, woman or child.

PENN MFG. SUPPLY CO.
No. 119 S. Fourth St, Philadelphia

The Longshoremen's Union is fitting up a hall over the Union Meat Market.

BORN

TURNER—At Marshfield, Or., Oct. 13, 1902, to the wife of H. Turner, a son.

ANDERSON—In North Bend, Or., Oct. 14, 1902, to the wife of Victor Anderson, a boy. (16 1-2 lbs)

MARRIED

CAVANAGH—ARCHER—At Coquille City, Or., Oct. 15, 1902. Wm. Cavanagh to Miss Martha Archer.

PREY—ROOKE—At the farm residence of the bride's parents on Coos river, Oct. 15, 1902, Frank Prey and Miss Kate Rooke, Rev. B. C. Lee officiating. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Rooke, and is a bright and popular young lady. The groom is an industrious young man and well thought of by all who know him. They will commence housekeeping in a neat already prepared near Allegany, with the best wishes of all.

SIMONS—THORNTHWAITE—In Marshfield, Or., Oct. 16, 1902, Harry Simons and Miss Edith Thornthwaite.

The marriage was solemnized in the presence of a few invited guests in the Methodist church at 10:30 a. m., Rev. B. F. Peck officiating. The bride is the eldest daughter of John Thornthwaite, the proprietor of a large dairy ranch on Coos river. The groom is a highly respected young man and has lived in Coos county for a number of years during which time he has made a host of friends. In the afternoon the happy couple departed to the home of the groom on Coos river, carrying with them the best wishes of their many friends.

WALTER-BEAR NUPTIALS

A very pretty wedding took place in this city last evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. John Bear, when their daughter Edna was united in marriage with Dr. R. H. Walter.

The Bear residence was beautifully decorated in pink and green, ivy, Oregon grape, sweet peas, roses and palms being tastefully utilized in the scheme of embellishment.

At seven o'clock the bride descended the stairs and was met at their foot by the groom. Stepping into the parlor where the guests were assembled, they were met by the officiating clergyman, Rev. R. C. Lee, who in a brief but impressive ceremony made them man and wife.

After Mr. and Mrs. Walter had received the warm congratulations of their assembled friends, the party repaired to the dining room, where a bounteous wedding repast was served. The feature of the table garniture was a beautiful bridal cake surmounted by a wedding bell, the work of Miss Nellie Bernitt.

Later in the evening the happy pair and a few of their friends were taken in a carriage to South Marshfield, where they commence housekeeping in the elegant Walter residence.

These young people are both well and most favorably known on the Bay, having lived here from infancy. The bride is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Bear and one of Marshfield's most charming young ladies. The groom is the only son of Richard Walter. After a thorough course in dentistry in the best Eastern dental colleges, he recently opened an office in this city, where his trained skill and gentlemanly demeanor have placed him in a leading position.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter commence their married life under the happiest auspices, with bright prospects, and a large circle of friends to wish them joy.

Those present at the wedding were: Mr. and Mrs. John Bear, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Aiken, Mrs. J. L. White and son, Mrs. Wm. Bernitt, Richard Walter, Miss Emma Bear, Miss Nellie Bernitt, Albert, Chester and Charley Bear and Charles Jensen.

DIED

NYLUND—At North Bend, Or., Oct. 15, 1902, Victor Nylund, aged 32 years.

Deceased had been on the Bay about twelve years and had worked in the logging camps, at Libby and at North Bend. His health had been failing for something over a year, and he had made a trip to California in search of relief from his malady, consumption, but without avail. He leaves a widow and one child. The funeral services will be conducted at the Swedish Lutheran church in this city at 2 p. m. today, under the auspices of the Order of Odd Fellows, of which deceased was a member.

SMITH—At Marshfield, Or., Oct. 14, 1902, Kenner, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Smith, aged two years.

The little fellow had been very low for several days, and the best medical attention could not save him. The bereaved parents have the sympathy of the community.

The funeral will leave Marshfield today at 12:30 by gasoline launch and proceed to the Coos river cemetery, where interment will take place, services being conducted by Rev. Geo. Banyan.

Carefully Selected Fall Goods.

Dress Goods
Corsets
Gloves
Laces
Notions
Fancies
Hosiery
Domestics
Underwear
etc., etc.

We have

Largely increased every department in the lines we carry and feel confidently able to supply your wants in—

Clothing Gents Furnishings, Shoes, Hats, Caps, Oil Skins and Rubber Goods.

Mackintoshes, Wrappers, Waists, Wool and Silk Goods

Standard Patterns and Publications

Samples Sent on Application

CHARLES GEORGE

L. O. O. F. BUILDING. Phone 436