MARSHFIELD OREGON

From Sunday's Daily.

Wm. Waters, of North Slough, was doing business in town Saturday.

Noble Bros. went to the Coquille yesterday after a drove of mutton sheep for their Union Market.

Miss James, the Sumner schoolma'am came down yesterday and stayed over night with friends.

The schooner Ivy was towed down the bay yesterday evening with a cargo of lumber from Dean & Co's mill.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Piper, of Coos river, will go north on the Alliance on their way to Yaquina, where they will visit relatives and friends.

A small office room is being built in by F. A. Golden adjoining his drugstore. The latter building has been raised and the wharf repaired, putting the property into much better shape.

The schooners Western Home and Jessie Miner were towed down the bay Saturday morning, both lumber laden, the former from Dean & Co's mill and the latter from the railroad wharf.

Geo. Gulovson had a sort of John Gilpin ride Saturday morning. He was bringing in Chas. Noble's saddle horse from pasture, and jumped on the animals back to facilitate matters. Events were expedited a good deal more than he anticipated and he and his mount came into town as though they were shot out of a gun, the boy being unable to check the horse with a rope halter.

Col. Jeff Myers, formerly a Salem and Marion county attorney, and now located in Portland, arrived by stage yesterday morning to take a look at the Coos Bay country. He will extend his trip down the coast as far as Crescent City. Col. Myers recently returned from the East and South, where he had been traveling the greater part of the summer. He expresses the utmost confidence that Coos Bay will see great developments in the next few years, the present railroad prospects being only a part of the immediate future has in store for us. Col. Myers is a shrewd observer, and his opinion carries weight.

Evening Party

Friday night about 20 of Miss Eva Coke's young friends answered in response to invitations by appearing at the home of Thomas Coke. The occasion being a party for pleasure and it was enjoyed by all who went to the uttermost. The evening was spent in all kinds of amusement and when all were satisfied refreshments were served which all pronounced delicious after which the guests departed for their homes voting the young hostess a capital entertainer. Those invited were:

Messrs Earl Titrage, Charley Jensen, Chester Walcott, Albert Campbell, Earl Savage, Edgar Campbell, Clarence Pennock, Fred Hofer, Howard Savage. Mr. and Mrs. Sumner. Misses: Lettie Larson, Myrtle Pennock, Nettie Savage, Clara Johnson, Myrtle Abbott, Millie Johnson, Stella Gulovson, Bessie Brown.

From Tuesday's Daily.

J. D. Laird, the mail contractor, was in town Monday.

Henry Weider and Hayes Howard leave for San Francisco on the Arcata.

Jas. Rolandson is giving his house a new coat of paint in South Marshfield.

Fred Lillienthal moved his family to South Marshfield Monday.

F. Tenneson and son Max, drove over from Coquille City Monday, and returned the same day.

J. W. Catching and A. D. Wright, of Sumner, were doing business in town yesterday.

Mrs. Pete Johnson, of Coquille City is visiting with her daughter Mrs. Chas. Nordstrom, in South Marshfield.

Mr. Sneath, of the Coos Bay Mill & Lumber Co., was in town Monday after men and supplies for their South slough camp.

The specialists to whom Miss Bird Short was taken on her arrival in San Francisco consider the prospects very favorable for her recovery.

Dr. Tower is still in Roseburg. He will await the return of Major Kinney from Portland, when they will come in together, probably starting Thursday.

Mrs. W. R. Simpson, of North Bend, who has been in San Francisco about six weeks for medical treatment returned on the Alliance much improved in health.

Get a free sample of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets at John Preuss drug store. They are easier to take and more pleasant in effect than pills. Then their use is not followed by constipation as is often the case with pills. Regular 25c, 25c per box.

Mrs. E. O. Shepherd and Miss Annie are out going passengers on the Alliance, enroute for their home in Duin, Or., after a two months visit at the home of T. M. Collver.

J. D. Clinkenbeard, of Coos river, was in town Monday. He will have charge of the Piper place during the absence of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Piper, who went north on the Alliance for a visit at Yaquina.

Father Donnelly is a passenger for Portland on the Alliance, expecting to be gone at least a week, and perhaps two weeks. There will therefore be no services at the Catholic church next Sunday.

The timbers for the new commissary building for the Great Central Land Co. are on the ground and will begin immediately. The entire building has been framed at the mill and it will not take long to complete the work of erecting it.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Merchant sailed on the Sierra last Thursday from San Francisco for Honolulu, where they expect to spend several weeks among the islands. Mr. Merchant's health is much improved, and this trip will doubtless result in a still further gain.

Chas. Bansch who lost two horses from his place at Beaver Hill, October 10th, found them Saturday on the South slough trail making their way toward home. Mr. Bansch has concluded that the horses were not stolen but strayed away.

H. McCullom, pursor on the steamer Arcata, will leave his present berth after this trip, to accept a like position on the steamer Carina, which will be put on this route between the 1st and 15th of November to carry coal from the Beaver Hill mine. Chas. Jenner will probably be Mr. McCullom's successor on the Arcata.

Dr. and Mrs. McCormac returned on the Alliance from San Francisco, where they have spent several weeks. The doctor has been taking items about the San Francisco hospital, and he returns more than ever convinced of the necessity for a well-equipped hospital here. He reports San Francisco enjoying a full measure of business prosperity, a grand rush being the rule in all lines.

A. B. Campbell, Wm. Denning, T. Holland, Wm. Eickworth, Frank Merchant, A. F. Cook and Albert Campbell made up a fishing party and chartered the launch Rosebud Sunday. They went to M. D. Cutlip's place on Coos river and claim to have caught an apple box full of fine large salmon trout, 104 in number. They need salmon eggs for bait and the trout fairly fell over each other in their anxiety to be caught.

RAN A TEN PENNY NAIL THROUGH HIS HAND

While opening a box, J. C. Mount, of Three Mile Bay, N. Y., ran a ten penny nail through the fleshy part of his hand. "I thought at once of all the pain and soreness this would cause me," he says, "and immediately applied Chamberlain's Pain Balm and occasionally afterwards. To my surprise it removed all pain and soreness and the injured parts were soon healed." For sale by John Preuss.

To Be Installed

Rev. F. G. Strange, having accepted the formal call of the Marshfield Presbyterian Church to become its pastor, will be installed by the following committee of Presbytery on the 12th of Nov. at 7:30 p. m.: Revs. W. S. Holt, Geo. Gillespie and A. Haberly.

That Goat Coat

The pair of $3 shoes, which Chas. George offered for the first correct guess as to what kind of fur went into the makeup of a winter coat which hung in front of his store, were awarded to Dave Holden on his guess of "mountain goat." The coat was made from the skins of Montana mountain goats.

Holden also bought the coat, and about 7:15 last evening Mr. George was hunting the city marshal, as the coat had disappeared.

Three New Cottages

G. W. Beal began the erection of three new cottages at the 4th & A streets corner. The new structures will contain 5 rooms with baths, closets and every other convenience of a modern dwelling house. He will have them completed and ready for occupation in 6 weeks time. H. L. McDonald, builder and architect drew the plans for all three cottages and will build one of them himself and J. D. Johnson will build the other two. The cottages will be put up substantially and neatly painted and finished.

These cottages will not be cheap-John affairs but neat and convenient and will be one and a half story with a large basement in each.

Another Milestone Passed.

Mrs. E. A. Eickworth had the pleasant company of a number of her many friends on Monday afternoon who happened in to remind her that she had just passed another milestone in the journey of life. It was a pleasant event indeed for all.

While partaking of the most delicious refreshments, served by the hostess, many choice reminiscences of by-gone days were indulged in and a very happy afternoon was spent. These warm friends one and all departed, wishing her many more birthdays and that they might all be as pleasant as this one has been.

(Bandon Recorder.)

A. E. Suckan was arraigned in the Justice court of Bandon district, last Monday and placed under $250 bonds to appear before Circuit Court for larceny. Under the authority of a search warrant Constable Bfackerby had found a number of articles of wearing apparel in possession of accused which belonged to other parties.

J. A. Murray, of San Francisco, arrived here Monday, having come up to take charge of the diamond drill for the Bandon Oil Company who are prosecuting prospect work on W. H. Button's ranch in Northern Curry. Messrs Button and Murray left, last Tuesday for the scene of operations and drilling was to commence immediately.

A. E. Withers, who has been superintending improvements at the Cape Blanco light station, was in town Friday night. From him we learned that a new road had been constructed from the Hughes place up to the light house on a sixteenth inch grade. Besides this there were some outbuildings constructed and a new fence around the light-house Mr. Withers arrived here last evening again and will supervise some improvements at the light station here.

MRS. L. S. ADAMS.
Of Galveston, Texas.

"Wine of Cardui is indeed a blessing to tired women. Having suffered for seven years with weakness and bearing-down pains, and having tried several doctors and different remedies with no success, your Wine of Cardui was the only thing which helped me, and eventually cured me. It seemed to build up the weak parts, strengthen the system and correct irregularities."

By "tired women" Mrs. Adams means nervous women who have disordered menses, falling of the womb, ovarian troubles or any of these ailments that women have. You can cure yourself at home with this great women's remedy, Wine of Cardui. Wine of Cardui has cured thousands of cases which doctors have failed to benefit. Why not begin to get well today? All druggists have $1.00 bottles. For any stomach, liver or bowel disorder Theford's Black-Draught should be used.
