

STOP THAT COUGH

With
SENGSTACKEN'S WHITE PINE EXPECTORANT

It will do it or your money back.

Sengstacken's Pharmacy

BUSINESS LOCALS

A failure to read them may cost you money.

The Walkeasy Shoe—best Winter shoe in town—At Peter Clausen's.

To Live.

To live the surgeon and the critic must draw blood.—Late.

Red Cross Liver Pills
Cure all ills.

When asked for an opinion remember that a compliment is really wanted.—Archibon Globe.

It is easy to win the $10 door prize: Don't surmise; look wise, when your number he cries, there is no occasion for surprise. Just see Mr. Byler.

It is better to write one word upon the rock than a thousand on the water and the sand.—Gladstone.

The slickest thing at the Prize Mask Ball, Shield's brand of bacon, for most original character, presented by Chas. Stauff.

For the third time the song uttered across the night; then Thorpe, with a soft sob, dropped his face in his hands and looked no more.

S. Lando presents to most Comical Character, lady, one pair best kid gloves. An amusing manner of securing such a desirable prize.

A course in cooking, or a simple, is not necessary in order for a girl to make a marriage, but either is an adjunct not to be despised.

If you win gentleman's prize for most Handsome Costume, you know you have a smooth turnout, yet it is not to be compared with the smoothness of the Gillette Safety Razor you will be presented with by the Pioneer Hardware Co.

Notice of City Caucus

Notice is hereby given that there will be on Saturday, the 26th day of November, 1904, at 7:30 p.m., at Odd Fellows' hall, a caucus of the qualified voters for municipal officers of the city of Marshfield. Said caucus to place in nomination suitable persons to be voted for at the ensuing election.

By order of the Council.

W. H. S. HYDE
Recorder

11 10 4t

The Garfield

Furnished rooms $1 per week and up, $3 per month and up.

One suite of rooms for light house-keeping now vacant; front rooms—very desirable. Go up stairs and ring the bell.

Grand Prize Masque Ball

Given by North Bend Concert Band, Thanksgiving Eve,
November 23th at North Bend Pavilion

1st prize Handsome Costume, for lady, $5 selection presented by Mrs. Perry; for gentleman, $5 selection at Corner Grocery, Geo. H. Mandigo.

2nd for lady, Fancy Album, presented by E. Lewin; 2nd for gentleman, Gold Fob and Chain, presented by H. Finell.

1st prize Most Original Costume, for lady, Silk Umbrella, presented by White House store; for gentleman, Elegant Picture, presented by John Prouns.

1st prize Most Original Character, for lady, Manicure Set, presented by Everett's Pharmacy; for gentleman, One Side Shield Brand Bacon, presented by Chas. Stauff.

1st prize Best Sustained Character, for lady, Gold Brooch, presented by H. Lockhart; for gentleman Best Hat, presented by Hines' Cash store.

1st prize, Most Comical Costume,

Huckle

Sweden.
Of the inhabitants of Sweden nearly four-fifths still live in the country.

Your face is your fortune if you bring it to the Mask Ball and win the dozen fine photographs presented by Mr. Riggs.

While the serviceable life of a horse is eighteen years, yet some men, by the use of the whip, spur and by overloading, manage to get it out of him in one-fourth of that time.

Huckle

hammock between 12 and 27.
"Oh," he rejoined, "at that time they're all in the dining room."—Chicago Inter Ocean.

There is nothing better than the silk shirt waist—presented by Magnus & Matson, for lady's prize waits at Masquerade Ball.

Yes, Verily.

"Tis he who dares that wins," they say. Yet is it not apparent
That he who dares, day follow day,
But works for those who dare not?
—New Orleans Times-Democrat

Huckle

How to Bake Mackerel.
Split the fish, remove the backbone lay some veal stuffing on each, roll up and bake in a buttered pan and in moderate oven for about half an hour.

Make haste, ye merry dancers, for the Prize Mask Ball. Look at the lists of prizes. Never has the equal been offered you before.

A Satisfied Tenant.

The golden autumn comes to give
Such bounty as defies the frosts.
This earth's a splendid place to live;
The rent is worth the toll it costs.
—Washington Star.

Huckle

Of course, however, it is a simple, is not necessary in order for a girl to make a marriage, but either is an adjunct not to be despised.

$5.00 selection at Corner Grocery presented to the band boys for the gent's handsomest costume at the Prize Mask Ball; is worth your best efforts to secure it.

He Read It.

Poet—Has the editor read the poem I left here yesterday?
Office Boy—I think so, sir. He's away ill today.

Huckle

The Unattainable.
Now, what is human happiness?
After we contemplate it,
It's what some other fellow has
Who can't appreciate it.
—Newark News.

A smooth face is the result of using the Gillette Safety Razor, sold by the Pioneer Hardware Co. One will be presented at the prize masquerade ball, for the best gentleman waltzer.

Wanted

100 people to call and inspect my fine line of J. A. Folger's Coffees and Teas.

F. A. SACCHI, the grocer.

PURELY PERSONAL

Movements of People in whom you may be interested.

Sheriff Steve Gallier is in town today.

F. S. Dow visited the lower bay today.

L. D. Pettyjohn made a business trip to the Coquille today.

Geo. Quigley, of Libby, was seen on our streets today.

Pat Kelley, the Libby miner, left on the Alliance for a visit to the state of Washington.

E. L. C. Farrin made a business trip to Coos river today on the launch Meteor.

Charlie Aiken is expected home to spend the holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Aiken.

Kid Farria, of Coquille City, who has spent a day in town, returned to his home this afternoon.

G. D. McFarlin, of North inlet is reported on the sick list. Dr. Horsfall went over to see him Sunday.

J. W. Bennett and A. J. Sherwood returned today from their hunting trip and report a fine time.

Mrs. Joe Hodson, on whom an operation was performed at the Horsfall hospital a couple of weeks ago, is reported as getting along nicely.

LOCAL HAPPENINGS

Items of interest gathered on Marshfield's busy streets.

The A. B. W. Club will not meet on Thursday, Nov. 22, on account of Thanksgiving.

A game of basket ball in the Odd Fellows' hall is on the boards for tonight.

Captain Nelson, of the Life-saving Station reports that the bar was rougher on Sunday last than he has seen it in five years.

John Snyder is on the road to recovery from his recent severe illness, which his many friends will be glad to know.

The Breakwater is scheduled to sail for San Francisco in the morning, as the bar is smoothing down and it is thought that it will be in good order by tomorrow.

F. A. Hutchinson, who has held the post of city editor on the Coast Mail for several months is a passenger on the Bayless for San Francisco, where he expects to secure employment on the Chronicle.

U S Weather Report

Observation 8 p.m., Nov. 21, 1904
Rainfall .09
Total precipitation since Sept. 1, 10.73
Highest temperature 60
Lowest temperature 48
Direction of wind SE
State of weather, Cloudy
E. Mingna, Voluntary Observer

FANCY PARLOR LAMPS

Complete New Assortment.

J. H. MILNER

CHRISTMAS GOODS

are arriving by every steamer.

The Arbuta will sail from San Francisco tomorrow morning.

Candice, the 12-year old daughter of J. H. Yeakam, underwent an operation for appendicitis at the Horsfall hospital Sunday. It was a rather serious case but the patient is reported getting along nicely.

The steamer Kilborn, which was scheduled to call here on her way to Portland, was off the bar yesterday, but the bar was too rough for her to venture in and she continued on her way north.

Capt. S. F. Cottle of the whaler Wm. Bayless states that the report previously made that the S. S. Wm. Bayless is on the shoals at the Coos Bay channel is strictly without foundation and that she is lying in safety awaiting fair weather to cross the bar. Her cargo is too valuable to allow the taking of any chances going out into a dangerous sea.

Union Thanksgiving services will be held in the Presbyterian church Thursday at 10:30 a.m. The Rev. H. T. Murray will give the sermon. Other pastors of the city will take part in the service. There will be special music.

A most cordial invitation is extended to the general public.

KROONLAND ARRIVES SAFE

New York, Nov. 21—A dispatch from Nantucket announces that the Red Star steamer Kroonland, with more than one thousand passengers, aboard is safe as she passed there this morning and signaled all was well. It was rumored that the Kroonland was lost in mid ocean with all on board.

HURRICANE VISITS MALAY ARCHIPELAGO

Amsterdam, Nov. 22—A hurricane followed by a flood devastated Taloutie islands in the Malay Archipelago, and left thirty thousand people destitute and homeless. Many boats and plantations were destroyed.

North Bend Items

The Porter and North Bend mills will not run Thanksgiving, laying off Wednesday afternoon and starting again Monday morning.

Mrs. Dr. Gale will leave on the Alliance for an extended visit in Portland.

Supt. Geo. Beckel of the Condensary will leave on the Alliance for Portland where he goes to spend Thanksgiving. Simpson Lumber Co.'s pay day comes on Wednesday this week.

Roy Clark, apt. of the woolen mill, is expected back from Roseburg this week.

Robt. Simpson spent Sunday in Marshfield visiting friends.

Supt. Robinson says he is ready now to install the phones he has been getting ready for the past three weeks. He expects to install about a hundred. A good telephone service is something North Bend hasn't had, but we can expect it now.

The new hospital is nearly enclosed, and will be completed before the winter rains commence, says Contractor Hauck.

—YOU RUN NO RISK—

If you buy a bottle of any of the extensively advertised remedies for cough, and it fails to cure, your money is gone beyond recall.

If you buy a bottle of LOCKHART'S SPRUCE GUM AND HOREHOUND and it doesn't help you, the price will be cheerfully refunded on request.

We have confidence in our cough remedy. So will you when you have tried it. 25c and 50c at

—LOCKHART'S PHARMACY—

Mrs. Frey returned Sunday from a visit in Portland and eastern Oregon towns.

Victor Wickman passed through North Bend Monday on his way to Empire.

WANT ADS.

RATES:—Advertisements not exceeding four lines will be inserted under this heading 3 times or at cents, or 1 month for $1.

HOUSES TO RENT—bath, hot and cold water; apply to Mrs. C. W. Tower.

HOUSEKEEPER WANTED—by small family. One who can take entire charge of house, cooking, and washing. Good wages and permanent position to right party. Address in writing, X, Coast Mail.

Wanted

By the COAST MAIL, a paid correspondent in every post office in Coos and Curry counties. Address this office at once.

Breakfast 29
Foods Always fresh stock

GROCERIES OF FIRST QUALITY, AND OF SPICES AND EXTRACTS NONE BETTER

C. W. WOLCOTT

What Shall the Harvest be?

Now its Heating Stoves

You need them
We have them

Any kind you want Coal or Wood, and at the right price.

W. P. MURPHY

FOR ALL KINDS OF

Monuments, Headstones, Markers, Granite, Sandstone, or Concrete Enclosures, Concrete Burial Vaults, Call on

STEWART & WHITE

—Proprietors of the—

Coos County Marble & Granite Works

Cor. 3rd & D St, Marshfield, Phone Main 238

A Sale of Exquisite Fall Millinery...

While the season is at its height something unusual for the trade of this vicinity, but owing to an Overstocked Condition I am sacrificing my entire stock without any reserves

AT COST

I am pursuing this policy not only in order to reduce my present large stock but to prepare for the coming season with nothing but

NEW GOODS

This is an incomparable opportunity to secure the latest styles linked with the lowest prices. I invite you, and in your own interests bid you to come to this Bona Fide Sale

COMMENCING THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 17TH

Mrs. A. G. Aiken