MARSHFIELD OREGON

From Sunday's Daily.

J. S. Lawrence is greeting his friends in town.

A. G. Alton is visiting his Siam mine.

The Swedish church people are having water pipes laid to the new hall at the rear of the church.

Major Kinney arrived on the Bay yesterday, none the worse for being stormbound in Brewster valley.

W. U. Douglas returned yesterday from a two weeks' trip to the interior of the state, and a visit to relations at Salem.

The new name for it: "My wife was up doing missionary work early this morning." "No!" "Yes; she was looting my pockets."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

I met a goat, and said to him, "The question, pray, excuse, "Why do you always wag your chin?" Quoth he, "Because I chews!"

The Sperry Flour Co., received 125 tons of flour on the Arcata. We know this is so because Agent Dow offered to take us down and show us the pile.

Pursur Abbott, of the Alliance, informs the MAIL that the trip down from Astoria was not at all a rough one.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Wickham, of Coquille, came over Friday to meet the Alliance on which was the remains of Mrs. Wickham's mother, Mrs. Sheppard.

Crowds went to North Bend last evening to the masquerade, the flyer making several trips loaded down, besides quite a number of launch parties.

The Evergreen Whist Club met at the home Mrs. P. X. Hofer Saturday afternoon. The first honors went to Mrs. Milner, and the hooby prize was taken by Mrs. C. W. Paterson.

Chas. Kling and Robert Peters will go to San Francisco on the Alliance for the purpose of selecting machinery for the new brewery which they are about to establish at Ferndale.

Hannah Sandquist, 12 year old daughter of Adolph Sandquist now has the scarlet fever. Both she and her younger sister who first took the disease are getting along nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Korr, of Port Orford have been visiting Mrs. Kerr's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm Sherrard at Sumner.

Bandon Recorder.—The steamer Mandaly has been barbound here for a week and the schooner Ruby has been waiting longer. Bar is too rough for sailing.

Coquille Bulletin.—J. S. Lawrence received a letter from his son B. F. Lawrence, Thursday dated at San Francisco. In the letter Ben states that he feels much better and would resume his trip to Phoenix, Arizona.

Coquille Bulletin.—Sam Naskr has rented the Lyon's building near the wharf and will put in the machinery for a creamery. This is a fine location for a creamery, and as Mr. Noeler is an expert in this line, he will certainly meet with success.

Mr. S. E. Parady of the firm of Claxton and Parady arrived in the city on the Alliance, accompanied by Mrs. Claxton and children. Mr. Parady is an artistic sign painter and photographer and will work in conjunction with Mr. Claxton in the new art gallery. Mr. Claxton expects his photographic gallery outfit on this steamer and is fitting up an up-to-date gallery in the Deal building. His announcement will appear in the near future.

A glass of two of water taken half an hour before breakfast will usually keep the bowels regular. Harsh cathartics should be avoided. When a purgative is needed, take Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. They are mild and gentle in their action. For sale by Joo Preuss.

Bodies Arrived

Two bodies were brought from Portland on the Alliance to be taken to the Coquille for burial.

One was that of Mrs. Shepherd who recently died by drowning near Seattle. The other was the body of Walter Clinton, son of Dewitt Clinton, of Lee, who died at Spokane of consumption.

Street Lights for Bandon

The town board has concluded that more light would add to the convenience of traveling along the streets at night and in accordance with that conclusion have ordered a dozen streets lamps which will be put in place as soon as they arrive from the city. This is a measure that will be appreciated by the public.—Bandon Recorder.

Quick Results

A. McNair had quick results, the other day, from telephone service, and while the service is very convenient we will not insure like result. Just before going home for supper he telephoned to San Francisco to have some lamps which he had ordered from Chicago, forwarded by way of Coos Bay, and on returning to his store after supper he found that the lamps had arrived during his absence. How is that for quick returns?—Bandon Recorder.

Roseburg Review.—Major L. D. Kinney and J. H. Diers, of the Great Central Railroad Co., left Tuesday morning on horseback, for Coos Bay. They expect to be absent about ten days looking after the interests of the company there. On the Great Central townsite here a large force of men began this morning laying sidewalks and the new headquarters and other adjacent buildings will soon be much more conveniently reached than heretofore.

Pretty Near it

A man went into Charley Dangan's place of business the other night, called him aside mysteriously and said: "You have a brand of whiskey called 'Gold—something, or—something Gold', its gold anyhow, and I want a bottle of it." "No," said Charley, we haven't got it," but on second thought, he added: "I've got double Eagle." That's it!" said the customer; "Twenty dollar gold piece. I knew it had something to do with gold."

THE DRAUGHT'S BLACK-DRAUGHT THE ORIGINAL LIVER MEDICINE

A sallow complexion, dizziness, biliousness and a coated tongue are common indications of liver and kidney diseases. Stomach and bowel troubles, severe as they are, give immediate warning by pain, but liver and kidney troubles, though less painful at the start, are much harder to cure. The Draught's Black-Draught never fails to benefit diseased liver and weakened kidneys. It stirs up the torpid liver to throw off the germs of fever and ague. It is a certain preventive of cholera and Bright's disease of the kidneys. With kidneys reinforced by The Draught's Black-Draught thousands of persons have dwelt immune in the midst of yellow fever. Many families live in perfect health and have no other doctor than The Draught's Black-Draught. It is always on hand for use in an emergency and saves many expensive calls of a doctor.

Mullins, S. C., March 10, 1901.
I have used The Draught's Black-Draught for three years and I have not had to go to a doctor since I have been taking it. It is the best medicine for me that is on the market for liver and kidney troubles and dyspepsia and other complaints. Rev. A. G. LEWIS.

CUT ANOTHER NOTCH FOR NORTH BEND

Contract for Grading the Streets of the New Town Let to J. J. Burns.

J. J. Burns, who for years has been one of the leading street contractors of Portland and who, until recently has been employed by the Bangor people, has closed a contract with L. J. Simpson for grading the streets of North Bend.

Mr. Burns will start work on Monday the 8th inst. and will push the contract with all possible speed, as he expects, on completion of the work to return to Bangor and clear and grade an addition to the present townsite of Bangor.

From all indications and information at hand it seems that Coos Bay will soon enjoy a realistic building boom.

The Bangor people are going right along making improvements, spending money, fulfilling their contracts and paying all legitimate debts and we have no reason to doubt their sincerity or their success in pushing the railroad preparations to completion.

However, whatever the result of their labor may be, North Bend is bound to build up a thriving community—railroad or no railroad. The letting of this contract is only another straw showing the trend of traffic. In view of the many improvements being made on one location or another on the Bay it is indeed a strange phenomenon to see so many kickers or knockers and hear their dismal retorts. These knockers should either get in line with the progressive element of the American people or take a back seat.

From Tuesday's Daily.

Dr. W. Culin, of Coquille City, came over yesterday.

J. S. Fairchiles has made a neat and well arranged dwelling house out of the old barn belonging to A. E. Seaman on C street.

"Tell me," he sighed, "tell me, beautiful maiden, what is your heart?" Miss Henrietta Bean, of Boston, gave him a look of icy disdain, and then vouchsafed the monosyllabic reply: "Blood."—Baltimore American.

"Your name," said the obscure plutocrat, "is not near worth mine on the bottom of a check." "No end the distinguished, yet impecunious, statesman," but it can give your ears and spurs at the bottom of a patent-medicine testimonial."—Indianapolis Press.

Sheriff Steve Gallier and Deputy E. M. Gallier drove over from the county seat Sundays and west back Monday.

Not for his health: Hubbubs—"Why are you moving from your suburban home?" Hubbubs—"I am all run down." Hubbubs—"Malaria?" Hubbubs—"No gossipy neighbors."—Philadelphia Record.

Chas. Hilborn who was brought to Marshfield last week for medical treatment is greatly improved. He had two abscesses in his head which have broken and he is now quite comfortable and fast gaining his normal condition.

Next Sunday a game of football will be played on the Marshfield grounds between the North Bend team and the old Marshfield 11. Both teams are in good fettle and an interesting game is anticipated. The football enthusiasts are all waiting up and by the time the game is called everybody will be in good condition to enjoy it rain or shine.

Too Rough for the Alliance

The steamer Alliance, which went out Sunday, bound for San Francisco, returned yesterday to wait until the storm outside should subside. A heavy southerly gale was blowing, and after steaming all night and consuming about 30 tons of coal the Alliance found herself at daylight still off the cape. She accordingly put back. An unusually rough sea was kicked up and the passengers will remember their experience for some time, although with as good a boat as the Alliance, manned by Capt. Hardwick and his crew there was little danger.

BETTER THAN A PLASTER

A piece of flannel dampened with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and bound on the affected parts, is better than a plaster for a lame back and for pains in the side or chest. Pain Balm has no superior as a liniment for the relief of deep seated, muscular and rheumatic pains. For sale by John Preuss.

Forfeited Cash Bail

One Fred Sadoan, alias Pete Lewis, was arrested Saturday morning on a charge of being drunk and disorderly and using indecent language. He put up $30 cash bail for his appearance Monday morning in Judge Hyde's court, but when Monday morning came he failed to show up, and it is supposed that he went to the Coquille.

Sadoan, alias Lewis, just came from Portland, where he is said to have born an unsavory reputation. When taken in custody here he had in his possession a bunch of Skeleton keys, and he is probably a good man to watch.

From Wednesday's Daily.

H. H. Rogers is back from his trip to Portland.

R. E. Shine, of Empire City, was in town last evening.

The Alliance is assuming the appearance of a sky-scraper, with a secondary pilot house built on top of the old one.

The Alliance left down the bay again yesterday afternoon to make a fresh start for San Francisco, and got to sea with a smooth bar.

Chas. Grissen arrived yesterday by way of Drain to look after his business interests here.

Robt. Priggen is a passenger to San Francisco on the Alliance, in addition to the list already published.

Several lodges held election last night. The names of the newly elected officers will appear tomorrow as it was late when they were received at this office.

Jas. Jordan, one of Coos county's earliest settlers is reported quite sick at his home on North slough.

Newton Ford, grand organizer of the A. O. U. W. arrived yesterday. He is sent out by the Executive board and will spend some weeks in Coos in the interest of the order.

Some complaint is being made by parents of children in 7th and 8th grades of the public school that the blackboards they are using are badly in need of re-slating.

J. S. Coke Jr. J. W. Bennett and C. F. McKnight, three of Marshfield's legal lights went to the sandhills yesterday to begin several days shooting and incidentally to let their legal lights flicker in the gloom of the dreary sand dunes of the lower bay.

How Many do You Want?

Every subscriber to our daily or weekly will get a copy of the Christmas number. Until further notice we will take advance orders for extra copies at 10 cents apiece. None will be sold for less than this, and the price may be raised before the number is issued. After it is out and placed on sale the price will not be less than 15 cents and may be more. Send in your orders and your cash.

Funeral of Thos. Barker.

The funeral of Thomas Barker, the victim of Saturday night's shooting, took place Monday afternoon. Interment took place in I. O. O. F. Cemetery, where services were conducted at the grave by Rev. B. F. Peck, of the M. E. Church. There was quite a turnout of the friends of the deceased, who had taken the matter in hand to give decent burial to the unfortunate old man.

Dr. Samuel Patterson Stafford, who has been appointed the government physician at the Yakima Indian agency, in the state of Washington, is one of the best known colored physicians of St. Louis.
