MARSHFIELD OREGON

From Sunday's Daily.

T. H. Barry, of Empire, was on our streets Friday.

Mrs. A. J. Bunch of Daniels creek was in town Friday.

The town board will meet Monday evening at 8:15, and this will be the last meeting of the old board.

In stating that Mrs. A. H. Noah took the prize of a parlor lamp at the North Bend masquerade, the Mail was misinformed.

The Evergreen Whist Club met with Mrs. L. M. Noble yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Milner took first prize and Mrs. Wilbur the booty.

Geo. and Jan. Wasson brought their first raft of logs yesterday from their South slough camp to the Coos Bay Mill & Lumber Co.

Mrs. Etta Jones, is canvassing the county in the interests of the Oregon Children's Home Society, a very worthy institution.

Mrs. Jennie Richmond, of North Coos River, was shopping in town yesterday.

W. H. Noble's hand piledriver, which he was using to drive piles on L. M. Noble's lot on 4th street, capozed Friday, and was considerably racked thereby, but will be righted and fixed up.

Major Kinney held an informal reception Friday evening at the Blanco hotel, and it is said that he told some wholesome truths to the assemblage.

The Juvenile masquerade given by Ernest Stauff last evening had the appearance, when the Mail man looked in at 9 o'clock, of a brilliant success. Nearly 50 couple of young merry makers were already in evidence and the gallery was crowded with spectators.

New Launch

The Marshfield Brewing company is about to have a gasoline launch built to be used in connection with the distribution of their products to points on the Bay. She will be 32 feet in length, 8 foot beam with a four horse power engine. The intention is to have her ready for business about February 1st.

Hard Luck

COAST MAIL subscribers are lucky to get a paper today. Agent Dow failed to get his Arcata in yesterday with our paper, but through the courtesy of the News, we obtained a supply which answers the purpose by trimming it down and doing double presswork.

Things went wrong generally, yesterday. The fighting editor got his hand into the job press, which was running on the Christmas number, and that press went out of commission at once. The hand wasn't hurt much, but a casting on the press was broken in two places. And by the way, this is a warning to people who think they will come up and lick the editor. A fighting editor who can bust the job press by sticking his hand into it isn't to be grunted at. But did you hear him holler?

Royal Arch Masons

A great degree of enthusiasm has been manifest of late in Royal Arch Masonry in Marshfield. Whilst this is the highest degree of Masonry established in this City and the only Chapter west of the S. P. R. B. There seems to be an earnest desire on the part of a great number of Masons to receive the additional light that opens its beams thro the darkened recesses of the Temple. It is not long ago we recorded the magnificent banquet given by Arago Chapter to all R. A. Masons. Since this time it has been work, work, work. This culminated Wednesday and Thursday with a session that opened at 1 p. m. Wednesday and did not close until long after midnight Thursday. We haven't the list present at hand, but understand that a great number were present. Thursday night the members of the Chapter from Myrtle Point tendered a bountiful repast to the home members of Marshfield. For three hours carol was cast aside and full vent given to social enjoyment—several were conspicuous for wit, story and repartee, keeping those present in perfect humor and laughing enjoyment. Among those from Myrtle Point were S. B. Hermann, Landy, Gasrin, Johnson, Perkins, Hartle, Roberts, Adams and Lehmonowsky. To judge from the praises these gentlemen sounded on their return home we judge a most enthusiastic and enjoyable time was spent. From what we are able to gather, Arago Chapter will have another big time next week. To be a Royal Arch Mason now—a-days seems to be IT with a vengeance—if one is to judge by the work that is being done.

To improve the appetite and strengthen the digestion, try a few doses of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. Mr. J. H. Seitz, of Detroit, Mich. says, "They restored my appetite when impaired, relieved me of a bloated feeling and caused a pleasant and satisfactory movement of the bowels." We will suggest to the Enterprise that mis-spelling a few names, shifting quotation marks to the wrong place, and changing "walked" to "ran" an untruth, is a very small way to get around the necessity of giving the Mail credit for its account of the shooting.

Every bargain has a customer whose wants would just fit the article. The only way to get the two together is to place a statement of what the article is where the customer will stand a chance of seeing it. In that way there will be little doubt of the two getting together.

BETTER THAN A PLASTER
A piece of flannel dampened with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and bound on the affected parts, is better than a plaster for a lame back and for pains in the side or chest. Pain Balm has no superior as a liniment for the relief of deep seated, muscular and rheumatic pains. For sale by John Preuss.

Long Beach, Cal. Press—J. R. Robertson has just returned from a visit to Coos county, Oregon and gives glowing accounts of that region. He says that nature has been especially prodigal in bestowing riches on that particular county, giving it all kinds of timber and coal and a fine harbor. It is also an especially fine dairy country. Mr. Robertson has decided to sell everything he owns in the peatlands and has so instructed his agents in this city, Walker & Co., W. W. Lowe & Co., and the Townsend, Robinson Investment Co.

She will be forty feet in length and eight feet beam and will have power enough to make her speedy. Mr. Timmerman is not a pessimist, and he realizes that next season is going to witness wonderful activity on the Bay.

Sunday's Game.

The football game Sunday, between the Marshfield and North Bend teams resulted in a victory for Marshfield by a score of 15 to 0. The game was played on the public square in South Marshfield.

The North Bend team put up a good game, for inexperienced players, but the better team work and better interference of the Marshfield boys left the former no chance to score.

The officials of the game were, Umpire, Frank Hague, Referee, J. O. Langworthy, Linemen Watt Short, and Lowry Owen.

Good feeling prevailed, and another game will probably be arranged. The Marshfield team is preparing to meet the Coquille City team in a game on Christmas.

Much to Mr. Stauff's regret, the athletic exhibition, for which he had arranged, could not be given, as one of the performers had sprained his wrist. The affair, however, was a great success, and was enjoyed by all.

This is the season of the year when the prudent and careful housewife replenishes her supply of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is certain to be needed before the winter is over, and results are much more prompt and satisfactory when it is kept at hand and given as soon as the cold is contracted and before it has become settled in the system. In almost every instance a severe cold may be warded off by taking this remedy freely as soon as the first indication of the cold appears. There is no danger in giving it to children for it contains no harmful substance. It is pleasant to take—both adults and children like it. Buy it and you will get the best. It always cures.
