Fine Stationery at Norton's.

Word reached here yesterday of the death of Jerome Black at Pocatella, Idaho, on Christmas day.

Wm. Stauff, one of the prosperous young farmers of Arago is in town on his way to Corvallis, where he will take the two months course of lectures at the State Agricultural College.

Mrs. J. L. Brown will start overland Friday for San Francisco, to join her husband who went down on the last steamer to finish his course at the pharmaceutical college.

Dr. O. E. Smith, having closed up his business affairs on the Bay, will go north on the Alliance to join his family at Eugene, their future home. He takes his entire dental office outfit with him.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Milner are enjoying a short visit from Mrs. Milner's brother, John Barnum, whom she had not seen for about ten years until he arrived on the Alliance from Portland. Mr. Barnum is a mining prospector and just come from Idaho.

Coquille Herald—There was a hotly contested football game played at this place on Sunday between the teams of Coquille and North Bend. It was an exceedingly clean and fair game and good work done on both sides. The results stood Coquille 12 to the North Bend team's 0. There is talk of other games in the near future.

A Eureka paper of Dec. 24th states that at that time the footballers there had concluded that they could raise money enough to have the Marshfield boys come down for that game of football. If they had mustered their resources a few weeks sooner they might have had the game.

A Mix-Up.

Some transient interest was aroused on Front Street yesterday afternoon by a fracas in the course of which a gambler, a newspaper man a hotel porter and a landlady took exercises, the two first named playing the star parts. Perhaps the most interesting feature of the affair developed when the porter got to chewing the landlady's thumb, under the impression that it belonged to the gambler. No one seems to have been badly damaged.

She Came Down

A story of a pathetic incident comes by Marconi telegraph from Hillsboro. On Thanksgiving morning, a young man who had been away at school arrived at his town and hastened from the train to the residence of his star of hope. Her mother answered his nervous ring, and invited him in. Yes, Jennie was at home, up stairs. She would call her. Stepping to the foot of the stairs she called, "Jennie, Will is here and wants to see you." A voice from above answered, "I can't come down, mother; I'm just taking a bath. The young man was impatient, and stepping to the foot of the stairs, he called, "I must see you just a minute, Jennie. Slip on anything and come down." She slipped on the top step and came down, and he saw her, but for much less than a minute.—Forest Grove Times.

MAJOR L. D. KINNEY KNOCKS A KNOCKER

At Roseburg, Monday, a local knocker took occasion to try to give Major Kinney a tongue lashing, with the result that the Major knocked him down and out.

The fellow then had the Major arrested, but when his case came into court the officers of the court remitted their fees and the citizens of Roseburg afterward got together presented the Major with a gold-headed cane, as a token of their appreciation of his method of dealing with an offensive knocker.

PORTER MILL AGAIN IN FULL OPERATION

First Run Shows Firstclass Condition And Regular Work Commences Today

At 3:15 p. m. yesterday the first log for several years was started through the saws at the Porter mill, which has been leased for a term of 20 years by the Simpson Lumber Co., and which has just been repaired and put in condition for work by a crew of men according to directions of L. J. Simpson. Two logs were sawed up to try the machinery and everything worked with the greatest smoothness, not even a hot box giving indication of undue friction.

The mill whistle blew several blasts which were taken up and echoed by the North Bend mill and all the steam whistles within hearing, giving some indication of the gratification which is felt at seeing this splendid mill put again operation, and under the present management, insuring a steady run and a liberal and progressive policy.

Today the mill will begin to run regularly, working first on lumber for repairs and new buildings about Porter itself, and then for the regular shipping trade.

Long may it be before the saws are again idle.

New Years Oregonian at Norton's

Geo. Thomson has leased the old Dr. Smith place on North Coos river, of Beattie Bros., for a term of five years.

R. A. Church will soon move with his family to Marshfield, to send his children to school.

Coquille Herald—The new steamer to take the place of the Dispatch is to be commenced as soon as the weather will permit and will be built at Parkersburg.

F. L. Lowe returned yesterday from a short visit to Bandon.

Capt. Bob Jones' dredger is lying at the foandry wharf. Her machinery will be here on the Homer, and Captain Bob expects to have her ready for work by Feb. 1st.

Mrs. Rumdaugh, of Lebanon who has been in search of her husband, who disappeared a week ago has received a letter from him dated at Port Townsend Wash. He informed her that he was on his way to Alaska.

Coquille Herald—A recent letter from B. F. Lawrence at Phoenix, Arizona to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Lawrence, of this city, states that he is getting along nicely, and is gaining strength rapidly.

As the New Year came in at 12 p. m. Wednesday it was greeted by all the steam whistles in this vicinity which were fixed to make a noise, and the siren of the Casarina added to the din with the unearthly wails which are its specialty, curdling the blood of a number of people who had not heard it before. The editor's wife was lifted out of bed by the noise, and she was about to open the window and request the request an imaginary crowd across the street to stop that noise, when it ceased.

Nearly every one in town seems to have taken part in a watch party, of which there were a great many, large and small, at the churches and private residences.

A Watch Party

The young people of the Presbyterian Endeavor Society met at the Presbyterian Manse, by invitation of Rev. and Mrs. Strange, to watch out the old year and watch in the new. They came, a jolly crowd of them at eight o'clock and remained until after 12 o'clock. The time passed pleasantly and rapidly. Games were played, sweet music was discoursed. There was flow of soul and conversation. Refreshments were served, and at midnight prayer was offered, and then everybody wished everybody else a happy New Year, and all went home happy with the usual crop of good resolutions for the New Year.

Ladies Whist Club Entertain

Ladies of The Evergreen Whist club entertained their gentlemen friends on New Years' Eve, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Taylor.

Playing began at nine o'clock and stopped at eleven. The gentlemen's score, only was counted, as the ladies kept no tally. First honors were awarded to W. T. Merchant, the consolation prize was bestowed on Dr. J. T. McCormac. After which refreshments were served, and of a high order to which the party did ample justice in the midst of which the whistles and bells of the various churches and mills joined in one big chorus announcing that the new year was born. Everybody wished everybody a Happy New Year after which the guests departed for their homes, hoping to be fortunate enough to be in it at next evening session of the club.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs W J Balter, Mr and Mrs Is Lando, Dr & Mrs J T McCormac, Mr and Mrs J H Milner, Mr and Mrs F P Norton, Mr and Mrs F X Hoyer, Mr and Mrs J H Taylor, Mr and Mrs W T Merchant Mr and Mrs P M Wilbur, Meadames Tower, Minott, Friedberg, Noble, Kruse Paterson, Owen, Messrs Sengstacken, Bennett, Dr Smith.

Whist Club Watch Party

The Young Peoples Whist Club was entertained by Miss Maggie and Eva Anderson on New Years Eve. As royal entertainers these estimable young ladies merited the hearty appreciations of all. Everyone present voted it a "lovely" time and it certainly was. The decorations were a beautiful creation of green and red. The first honors were carried off by L. K. Nichols and Elsie Bennett the boobies were W. E. Dungan and Stella O'Connell. The refreshments were served at 11 o'clock and they were just too good to mention. A ten minutes intermission was then announced in which horns and bells were passed around and when the city clock struck the hour of 12, 1903 was given an oration that did her "proud." Thirteen young ladies then donned plug hats and gave an impromptu minstrel. Their jokes were witty and straight to the point. "The Good Old Summer Time" sung in parody by Eva Anderson was the hit of the performance and chances are favorable that all the young ladies will have escorts to as well as from their next meeting place. The "boys" were then asked to respond which they did and some of the low necks and short sleeves they displayed caused much green-eyed envy, but all in all it was a jolly ending to a jolly evening. Those present were: Messrs James Hutcheon, A Kruse, Wm Dungan, Jas Elanagan, E Wold, F E Hague, Dr. A Gross, Dr A E Straw, C F McKnight, W Short, A K Nicholds, A Sengstacken.

Misses: Agnes Hutcheson Susie Eickworth, Edna O'Connell, Stella O'Connell, Maud Reed, Anna Bleson, Alice Aiken, Alice Butler, Gertrude Engle, Maggie Anderson, Eva Anderson, Elsie Bennett, Carry Owen, Letitia Howard.

Dislocated Her Shoulder

Mrs. Johnson Soderholm, of Fergus Falls, Minn. fell and dislocated her shoulder. She had a surgeon get it back in place as soon as possible, but it was quite sore and pained her very much. Her son mentioned that he had seen Chamberlain's Pain Balm advertised for sprains and soreness, and she asked him to buy her a bottle of it, which he did. It quickly relieved her and enabled her to sleep which she had not done for several days. The son was so much pleased with the relief it gave his mother that he has since recommended it to many others. For sale by John Preuss.

Don't Worry

This is easier said than done, yet it may be of some help to consider the matter. If the cause is something over which you have no control it is obvious that worrying will not help the matter in the least. On the other hand, if within your control you have only to act. When you have a cold and fear an attack of pneumonia, buy a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and use it judiciously and all cause for worry as to the outcome will quickly disappear. There is no danger of pneumonia when it is used. For sale by John Preuss.

Some Garter Customs.

It was a common custom with our forefathers to wear the garters of a pretty maiden either on the hat or knee, says the New York Press. Brides usually wore on their legs a host of gay ribbons, to be distributed after the marriage ceremony among the bridegroom's intimate friends. The piper at the wedding dance never failed to tie a piece of the bride's garter around the stem of his bagpipe. The Lombard country girls used to wear daggers in their garters.

SHOE TALK

Buying shoes DON'T get plucked. If you buy a $3.50 or $4.00 shoe at a store where $5 to $8 shoes are sold you do get plucked nearly every time.

Satisfactory shoes for Winter—shoes that please the people—shoes in which the shape will hold—won't "squash" out, or sag in the shank, or get shabby-looking in a little while.

Shoes that hold out because they're rightly built—not a skimp anywhere, inside or out—THAT'S the Walk-Over Shoe.

Must be right or wrong—no middle ground—or we couldn't everlastingly preach Money-Back Shoes—good wear or a new pair.

Why pay $5 and $6 for let-well-enough-alone shoes—Tom, Dick and Harry makes—that have been foisted on a long suffering public with scarcely a change—in quality $3.50 and $4.00 nor in shape—for the last ten years. never less
