

TWO SPEECHMAKERS Air Their Eloquence in Joint Session

TWO MORE VOTES GO TO GEER AND TWO OTHERS BREAK AWAY

Hume's Name Appears Among the Also Rans, and Scott May Bob Up Today

Salem, Feb. 19—Today, joint session was marked by the throwing of numerous bouquets and some speechmaking.

Geer gained two votes, in Hodson and Smith of Multnomah, and lost Nottingham and Paulsen so that his vote was practically the same as yesterday.

Nottingham placed the name of Hume before the convention in one of the most clever speeches of the session. Paulsen voted for Binger Hermann. Otherwise there was no change in the balloting.

The taking of the ballot proceeded without event until the name of Nottingham was reached. That gentleman arose, and after addressing the chair said:

"Since the beginning of this session until a few days ago I have been voting for the same candidate for senator. I have been guided in doing so by what I considered my best inclination. I wish now to change my vote and ballot for a Republican who is a stalwart among stalwarts and who I am sorry to say is not from Multnomah county. He comes from near the sounding sea. He has great fishing and timber interests and will hold the best interests of state near at heart. I may be censured by some for my action here today, but I will be fully capable of assuming all the blame on my own shoulders. I wish to be re-recorded as voting for Hon. R. D. Hume."

The announcement was received with great applause in the attempting to restore order President Brownell broke the house gavel. This served as the occasion for a fresh outburst of laughter.

The rollcall was concluded without further incident but before the result could be announced Representative Hodson asked his name be changed from Williams to Geer. A demonstration attended this announcement, which had hardly subsided when Senator Smith, of Multnomah addressed the assembly in the following language:

"I am tempted to yield to the influence of my friends in voting for senator. I do not believe in flippantly voting for the candidates for senator. I have been voting regularly for a single candidate for this position until within the past few days. There seems to be no possibility of the election of Mr. Williams as senator, and I feel it is my duty to add my quota of strength to the election of a senator. I wish to cast my ballot for the man who appears to be gaining in favor. I wish, therefore, to change my vote from Hon. G. H. Williams to T. T. Geer."

Then there was more applause. Friday there is to be a break for Harvey Scott or Congressman Moody.

There was not an objecting vote in the Senate when the item of $14,500 for the purchase of the E. N. Cook residence as a home for the governor. Senator Farrar had the committee on engrossing rush the bill to the House for concurrence.

The House this afternoon concurred in the Senate amendment to the bill authorizing the purchase of an executive mansion.

ther is a young marry you. Do you think I would stand any chance?
She—No. Your case would be hopeless.
He—Do you think he would really say "No?"
She—Not that; but he would leave it to me.

A Double Barreled Joke.
The facetious boarder had the plot laid for a killing joke.
"It's a wonder," he said, "that you didn't serve up this hen, feathers and all."
"The next time," said the landlady, with marked emphasis, "I'll serve her, bill and all."

When Sandow poses and the muscles ridge his back and knot his arms, we think we have before us the very secret of strength in those magnificent muscles. But we haven't. Starve Sandow, or what is practically the same thing, let him be dyspeptic, and his muscle would soon fail. Strength is made from food properly digested and assimilated, and no man is stronger than his stomach, because when the stomach is diseased digestion and assimilation are imperfect.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. It enables the perfect digestion and assimilation of food so that the body is nourished into perfect health and strength.

"I had what my physician called indigestion. He gave me medicine for the trouble but it did me no good," writes Mr. W. B. Wells, of Willard, N. C. "I wrote to Dr. Pierce and stated my case. He sent me a descriptive list and hygienic rules. I carried out these as best I could, bought six bottles of his 'Golden Medical Discovery' and commenced taking it. A few days later I noticed a great change. Felt like a new man. Before I began the use of the 'Golden Medical Discovery' I suffered greatly with pain in stomach, my nerves seemed all run-down. I was very thin in flesh, but now can eat heartily and sleep peacefully at night."

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send twenty-one one-cent stamps for the paper-covered book, or thirty-one stamps for the cloth-bound volume. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

FULTON SENATOR

By a Bare Majority of One Vote

BREAK TO THE CLATSOP COUNTY MAN AT THE ELEVENTH HOUR

Balloting Continued From 8 P. M. Amid Great Excitement. Stampede Led by Portland Man.

Special to the MAIL by Phone, at 1 a. m.

Fulton was elected senator by 46 votes. The break was led by Nottingham, of Multnomah county, followed by Banks, Croisan, Hume, of Coos county, Hayden, and Mulkey. Total 46.

Everything was very exciting.

Salem, Feb. 20—The senatorial situation at the close of today's session was about a stand-off between Fulton, Geer, Scott, Bourne, or a dark horse, with the chances in favor of the first named.

Republican workers from many sections of the state are here by the hundreds and nearly all for Fulton, excepting those from Jackson county, which sent up a strong contingent for Geer. Individual Republicans from smaller places in the state who are here declare that the rank and file of Republicans while they may have voted for Geer on election day, are now for Fulton. Still a strong Republican contingent in the state at large demands Geer, and taking these Republicans with the Democrats, Socialists and Populists make a majority of all the people of the state but not of Republican party, and that seems to be what is determining the minds of most of the Republicans.

The Geer supporters are united in his behalf but no less earnestly are the Fulton men solidly lined up. No one expects them to make a break from their man.

This is a dispassionate statement of the situation as it appears to spectators standing out side the fence near the Absurdities of Lovers' Language.

Lovers have a language of their own. "I would I were thy bird," sighs Romeo.
"Sweet, so would I," returns Juliet, "yet I should kill thee with much cherishing."
From the sublime to the ridiculous: "Plumpetty itty partridge, who does 'oo love?'" demands a stricken aviator of his innamorata in one of Marion Crawford's novels.
"Zoo!" returns the fat little woman, with a smile which, in the author's graphic words, "went all around her head like the equator on a globe."

This sort of thing is all very well when the bride is a rosy little dumpling of a woman. The worst of it is that engaged couples of every age and of the most unromantic appearance adopt the same style.
"What shall I call you, my dearest own?" asks an Adonis of fifty, gazing with yearning tenderness on his bride. "Call me Birdie, nothing but Birdie!" chirps the lady whose weight might turn the scale at 200 pounds, as she nestles lovingly to his side.

And so on ad infinitum, we will not say ad nauseam, till the soul of the unregarded old curraudeon of a bachelor within hearing turns faint within him.—Exchange.

The regular list of petty larcenies have been perpetrated. All portable properties principally baskets, ink wells, etc., have disappeared. The lady clerks especially consider themselves entitled to these articles, and perhaps on account of the small salary received they need all they can get.

The joint ballot Friday noon was featureless. There was no speechmaking or changing of votes, nor anything to repay the large number of people who had gathered to witness the event. All attempts at oratory or demonstrations of this character are probably being reserved for the session tonight. When the vote had been announced the joint assembly on motion adjourned to 8 p. m., when the ballot for senator will be resumed.

The vote at noon was identical with that of Thursday. There was not a single change, Fulton and Geer retaining their relative positions in the race.
Early as 8:30 this morning the rush from the city began toward the capitol and continued at intervals all day. Some were lobbyists and the remainder comprised the crowd who wish to miss nothing that takes place.

Doubtless the man who proposes to cross the desert of Sahara in a balloon figures that he will have no difficulty in replenishing his supply of hot air.

The orchestras have ceased playing "The Good Old Summer Time." "A Little Lump of Coal" is pathetically popular just now.

State Mining Bureau Created

Newport Normal Pass- ed Over Veto

Salem, Feb. 30—The Senate passed the House bill appropriating $100,000 for the relief of Indian War Veterans.

After a sharp fight in the House this morning the bill creating a state mining bureau and carrying an appropriation of $20,000 was passed. There was a fierce fight made against the bill by Kay, who opposed the measure for economy reasons.

The House this afternoon took up Jones' Newport Summer Normal bill on motion to reconsider. Jones made one of the most telling speeches of session and was applauded by both his fellowmembers and the crowds in the galleries. He made a gallant fight and won, the bill passing over the Governor's veto.

The Senate concurred in the House appropriation of $1,000 each for Sylvia E. Ferrell, Edna Tiffany and Susan E. Jones, widows of the guards killed in the June outbreak at the state prison. There was no opposition to the measure.

Party at Kittyville

Miss Edna O'Connell entertained a number of her friends very pleasantly at the elegant O'Connell home at Kittyville Wednesday evening.
