The Way Plans are Developing for Coos Bay Road

(Oregonian)

Work is progressing in a most satisfactory manner, said Major L. D. Kinney, of the Great Central Railroad, who is in the city for a few days...

Immigration into that section is something phenomenal. People are coming from every section of the country down that way is good enough...

When will work begin on the new road? It is now being carried on as fast as the winter months will permit...

Coos Bay is showing great signs of improvement. Mills are being constructed and those that have been shut down are now running full blast...

Major Kinney has been in the city for a few days in conference with the local men interested in the project. He is pleased at the way matters are moving...

A Severe Accident

Last Sunday evening while returning from Bandon Mrs. E. Boyd, of this city, met with quite a severe accident. In company with several others she was sitting on the after deck, when a gust of wind blew over a piece of scenery used by the Star Comedy Co. The falling piece struck Mrs. Boyd on the back of the head and although the piece was very light the shock rendered her unconscious to cause unconsciousness, which lasted about an hour and a half.

We are now more than pleased to state that the lady is progressing nicely and will soon be herself again.

SHORT STORIES.

There are about 5,000,000 farms in the United States, of which 3,000,000 produce corn. The average cost of producing an acre of corn is $5.73.

A movement is on foot in St. Louis to erect a monument to the memory of B. Grutz Brown, a former governor of Missouri and a candidate for vice president on the Greeley ticket in 1872.
