

PERSONAL AND LOCAL

From Sunday's Daily.

The Arcata leaves San Francisco Monday.

Jas. Stock, of Sumner, has gone down to the Alders to do some diking for H. Sengstacken.

Miss Mary Dixon, of Myrtle Point, is spending a few days visiting friends in town.

Wesley Newland starts Monday for Tenmile, Douglas county but says he is coming back again.

There will be services at the Episcopal this evening. Rev. Horsfall holds services at Empire in the morning.

Rusty Mike's Diary, March 15, 1903.—Dishonest advertising is the leprosy of trade—it's the other fellow who does it.

Captain Holland made a trip with a gasoline boat to South slough yesterday with supplies for Wasson Bros' camp.

Wm. Mast, of Lee, came over on Friday's train en route for San Francisco, where he will take a course in electrical engineering.

J. W. Bennett, John S. Coke Jr., E. B. Seabrook and W. A. Toye started for North slough yesterday afternoon on a hunting and fishing expedition.

E. W. Smith, who is employed in Jas. Cowan's camp on South slough, is in town. He contemplates moving his family down there for the summer.

H. Sengstacken is about to erect a residence in Ferndale for Henry Lingo who is employed in clearing off Mr. Sengstacken's lots in that part of the city.

P. F. Hope who recently bought the Beale place on North slough is in town to meet his brother who is expected on the Alliance to join him in running the place.

Capt. Bob Jones suspended dredging operations in the Porter boom yesterday, on account of threaten collapse of the bulkhead behind which the mud was being stowed.

Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Cutlip returned Friday from the Coquille, where they had been called by the death of Mrs. Cutlip's mother Mrs. S. E. Wilkins, which occurred at Halls Creek March 11th.

Mrs. Laura S. Webb, Vice-President Women's Democratic Club of Southern Ohio. "I dreaded the change of life which was fast approaching. I noticed Wine of Cardui, and decided to try a bottle. I experienced some relief the first month, so I kept on taking it for three months and now I menstruate with no pain and I shall take it off and on now until I have passed the climax." Female weakness, disordered menses, falling of the womb and ovarian troubles do not wear off. They follow a woman to the change of life. Do not wait but take Wine of Cardui now and avoid the trouble. Wine of Cardui never fails to benefit a suffering woman of any age. Wine of Cardui relieved Mrs. Webb when she was in danger. When you come to the change of life Mrs. Webb's letter will mean more to you than it does now. But you may now avoid the suffering she endured. Druggists sell $1 bottles of Wine of Cardui.

WINE OF CARDUI

D. McIntosh has returned from Prosper, on the lower Coquille, where he has been superintending the repairs on the Bennett dyke. A wide gap had been washed out, requiring a new dyke fifteen rods long to close the opening.

Departures by Homer for San Francisco, March 14: Miss E. Hastings, C. V. Malone, D. W. Hall, Rose Hall, Mina Hall, J. D. Welch, J. M. Welch, Leora Welch, Lillie Welch, W. L. Mast, D. J. Lowe, S. Jensen, K. J. L. Hartis, wife and three children.

B. L. Wright, who has been employed in the Red Cross Drug Store, has accepted a position as cabin boy on the Czarina. He makes the change on account of his health which has suffered from the close confinement, being advised to do so by his physician.

Roadway Completed

N. G. Ostrom has finished the work of throwing up a roadway across the marsh on the west side of Isthmus slough, to connect with the ferry at Coos City. The dyke is twelve feet wide on top, thrown up a foot or more above high water mark, and is 400 feet long. It does not extend to the bank of the slough, but piling has been driven to make the connection. Z. T. Sighin will proceed with the work of building the slip and connecting bridge work and the place will soon be ready for the establishment of the ferry.

Feeding a Million

Frank Smith, superintendent of the Coos river hatchery has been spending a few days in town. He reports that he is feeding something over a million young salmon, which are in fine condition, some of them being over two inches in length. They are fed on liver and always seem glad to see meal time come around.

Frank's experience in the restaurant business now proves of value to him, when he has to cater to the wants of such a number of regular boarders.

Juvenile Party

Mrs. E. B. Seabrook gave a birthday party for Master Dean Seabrook at their residence on C. Street, Saturday afternoon. The house was prettily decorated with violets. They served refreshments and after that many games were played.

Those present were: Miss Emma Erickson, Violet Erickson, Master Dewey Stutsman, Gertrude Kolts, Harold Stutsman, Charlton Lee, Martha Kolts, Guy Stutsman, Joe Cowan, Freta Holme, Francis Golden, and Ned Seabrook, Mrs. Small and Mrs. J. H. Kolts assisted in entertaining. Each guest received a small souvenir in the shape of a teapot and a top.

MORE FUN AT RAILROAD WHARF

Small Army Called Out to Hold Schooner Smale

There was some more excitement out around the railroad wharf yesterday morning.

The new schooner Annie Smale has been lying there in charge of A. G. Aiken and E. O. Hall, who had been deputized for that service by the sheriff who arrested the schooner a few days ago on complaint of a number of ship carpenters who had claims against her. These claimants were represented by Attorney Douglas, Seabrook and Hall & Hall.

Captain Colstrup had arrived from the city with the purpose of paying off the claims against the schooner, but a disagreement arose, it is now understood, over the costs which accumulated.

The story goes that Captain Colstrup endeavored to convince Deputies Aiken, and Hall that they had no business aboard the schooner, and when they declined to accept his view of the matter announced his intention of taking them for a sea trip and charging them board.

Word was sent down town and reinforcements were hustled out in the shape of five additional deputies sheriff,

George Herron, John Herron, Sell Ireland.—Blakeley and Frank Denning. Sheriff Gallier was also notified, and deputy E. M. Gallier started over on horseback.

With all these warlike preparations, however, no bloodshed came any where near ensuing. Captain Colstrup submitted gracefully to the inevitable, and about noon the claims were settled. Deputy Sheriff Gallier arrived and released the vessel and she went on her way down the bay.

The Smale is a very handsome vessel and is said to be as staunch and well-built as she is pretty.

The law provides for the registration of voters only for general elections once in two years and not for special elections like this coming one next June. For this the last registration is still in force, and those who have since become legal voters may exercise that right upon the affidavit of six free holders, as provided by registration blank "A."

Myrtle Point Enterprise.—The residents of West Myrtle Point held a meeting Monday night and decided to construct a telephone line from town to their neighborhood. Men are at work now getting out poles and it is expected that the line will be completed within a short time. The line will extend as far as the Matheny place.

Marshfield Hotel

The old Heisner boarding house has been entirely overhauled and papered and refitted by Mr. A. S. Dibble and is now opened to the public. Mr. Dibble fully understands the business and expects to keep a first-class place. Electric lights have been put in all over the house, making it a cozy convenient place for a hotel.

Young People's Masquerade

Arrangements have been made for a grand Young People's Masquerade, to take place in Marshfield on April 25th. The best of music will be provided by Stauff's Orchestra, and the steamer Blanco will make a special run from Empire. Specialties have been arranged for, and it will be the grandest affair of the season.

A Rough Trip Up

The steamer Alliance reports a stormy trip from Coos Bay to Portland. At times the vessel was tossed about like a mere shell. The wind was blowing a gale and the sea was running mountain high high, but the noble craft behaved well. Captain Hardwick is a careful man and the passengers are as safe at sea with him in charge as a human being can make it possible.

Coquille Ministers Organize

The ministers of Coquille meet and organized an association last Monday morning. Rev. H. C. Allen was elected Pres. and Rev. Adolph Haberly Secy. The time of evening service was changed to 8 o'clock for the summer months. This change goes into effect at once in all the churches. It was also decided to hold a quarterly gospel temperance meeting in co-operation with the W. C. T. U. The first meeting will be held at the M. E. Church, Sunday March 29, Rev. A. H. ### To Ship Frozen Clams

F. S. Dow will resume the shipment of frozen clams to the California market and the freezing will be commenced to day at the Coos Bay Ice and Cold Storage Plant. About 10,000 clams are already on hand and Mr. Dow proposes to put up about 150 cases, for the first shipment. These will be sent to Los Angeles and San Diego, and Mr. Dow will take a trip at the same time to see that they are properly placed on the market, and that the advantages of the luscious Coos Bay clam as a food product are brought to the attention of consumers in the southern part our neighboring state, where nothing of the kind is produced.

Found in The Newspaper

Here is an editor who has come close to hitting the nail on the head. He says: "The newspaper field is a wide field and full of roses and thorns. When you roast the preacher the ungodly smile; when you roast the un-godly the preacher smiles. If you roast the saloon man the teetotaler smiles; when you roast the teetotaler the saloon man sets 'm up. If you swear, you are a wicked man and if you pray you are a hypocrite. If you have an opinion you get cussed and if you don't have any you are nonentity. Most people know a great many things; the journalist is expect to know everything.—Ex.

COFFEE CLUB OPENING

To Take Place Next Saturday Evening

W. A. Crane is pushing preparations for the opening of the Coffee Club, and the rooms formerly occupied by the Y. M. C. A. are being fitted up. The woodwork has been painted and the walls are now being papered, and the rooms will be bright fresh and attractive.

The large room in front will be the reading room. A long table will extend down the center, on which will be found the latest papers, magazines and periodicals. Around the sides of the room will be smaller tables for checkers, chess and other games. A billiard table will be placed in the smaller room, and across the back end will extend the coffee counter, the kitchen being back of all. A piano will stand in one corner of the reading room, and the whole place will be as attractive as it can be made.

The rooms will be open for the inspection of the public on Saturday morning and in the evening the formal opening will take place. A fine program has been arranged, and ice cream, cake, tamales etc., will be served.

Any one having March magazines to spare are invited to contribute them for the reading room, and some pictures for the embellishment of the walls would be gratefully received by the management.
