NORTH BEND, OR

SPRING TROUBLES

Few feel well in the spring; the blood is out of order and liver is inactive. The usual symptoms are loss of appetite, debility, red, itching, skin eruptions, headache, coated tongue, constipation and pain in back or sides. You may not be sick, but it will be easy to get sick. The remedy that gives just the help needed is

Sengstacken's Active Blood Purifier

It makes the blood rich and pure, increases the activity of the liver, stimulates digestion and keeps you at your best. Price $1.00.

LIVE NORTH BEND

Building Activity in New Town

EVERYBODY ENTHUSIASTIC

IN PUSHING THE WORK

Progress on Planing Mill and Woolen mill—Many Business Houses Going Up

Street Grading and Clearing Work Being Steadily Prosecuted
—Watch It Grow.

That North Bend is not waiting for something to turn up is very noticeable. Its builders are at work at every turn doing something, if only to pile some rubbish or other preliminary work, preparatory for a general forward movement which will break loose ere long in no uncertain form. Building is progressing even now and at every point excavating and grading is being done and some new foundations are being prepared.

The writer was shown specifications for the new Sash & Door Factory, Monday, and the plans contemplate a much larger plant than was at first given out. Everything is in readiness for prompt action and as soon as it is possible to get the pile-drivers, work will be begun in earnest.

The building area for the whole plant will be 80x348 feet and the main building will be 80x176 feet. There will be two dry kilns 80x100 feet and warehouses enough to accommodate all the output until such time as shipments can be made. The main building will be two stories high, with a basement story for all shafting, pulleys and belts, thus disposing of this inconvenience and making the works far safer for the workmen.

Vice President and General Manager Loggie, is very much pleased with the prospect, in as much as the company has purchased the very latest up-to-date machinery for this plant. They have procured 40 different machines for manufacturing all kinds of mouldings and builders supplies. The new plant will be in a position to make 500 doors and 200 windows daily, besides all kinds of mouldings, trimmings, frames, etc., which any builder may require, and it will be one of the best equipped plants on the Pacific Coast.

The woolen mill is rapidly progressing and the workmen are pushing the work as fast as possible. The last story will be raised soon. The annex will be built before the roof is put on the main building. Mr. Fariss, the builder who has charge of the construction work, says that his structure is most substantially built in every detail, every pile being subjected to rigid inspection. The roofing will be the celebrated P. & B. Paraffine roofing and painted and sanded. Mr. Fariss expects to have the building completed by the time the new machinery arrives from the East, when installing it will be the work of but a few weeks.

On Monday thirteen lumber bills were considered by the Simpson Lumber Co., for houses to be erected as soon as arrangements could be made for the work.

Among them Robert Marsden will build two more buildings.

L. M. Noble expects to build a large neat, meat market and store building.

Another store building will be built for G. F. Varcher, 26x48 two stories high, to be occupied by a general store.

Another gentleman of means will build eight 9 and 10 room cottages for dwellings as soon as men can do it.

Martin Nystrom is cleaning up, preparing to build an 8 room house on his lot.

C. A. Painter is building a new cottage east of the Eckhoff residence.

Lyle Savage broke ground yesterday for a new house 24x30 on his lot and will complete it as soon as possible.

Mr. J. R. Robertson has about completed his house and will move down there next week, where he can be in better touch with his North Bend interests.

This is only a partial list of new work which is contemplated by people who do do things.

Albert Davis is painting the shelving and finishing the house which was built for a packing house and will install a complete stock of dry goods.

The hotel which has been run by G. W. Walker has changed hands and will hereafter be conducted by Mrs. Sargent, of Empire.

Arrangements have been made whereby the North Bend people can get their mail at Geo. Whitte's store every day. This will be a great convenience and accommodation to all.

W. W. Langworthy the plumber is having all kinds of work and will give the plumbing business his entire attention.

Fred Brendel the saloon man on Virginia Street is cleaning up and will have as neat a place as can be found in the town soon.

The keel for a new vessel is being laid at the new ship yard at Porter mill and this will increase the pay roll at the new town considerable.

A neat Tonsorial stall will be put in Brendel's saloon and a first-class barber has been engaged. This is a much needed want at the new town. A bath arrangement will be added and North Bend will not be lacking in any of the modern improvements.

A. H. Johnson's store building and lodging house is nearing completion and under the guidance of master carpenter E. B. Fish will be a credit to the new town. The new structure will be used for a furniture store and has a dining room and 28 large, airy, commodious rooms for roomers.

Grading and work on Washington street will begin within a week and J. J. Burns with his crew will soon paralyze the stumps and grade that street to the approach, for which the piling is already in.

To a casual observer it would seem that so gigantic an enterprise, emanating from one man progressing as rapidly as the most sanguine person could expect. Yes, could some of the Knockers get even half as good a move on, Coos Bay would be a paradise for all kinds of investors in a very short period.

A People's Palace

As many as 20,000 persons have been admitted on one day to the People's Palace of Nicholas at St. Petersburg. The cost of a ticket is only 5 cents, and it includes admission to the theater as well as to the grounds, libraries and lecture halls.

Hardy Poultry

When long, silvery hairs are found extending beyond the feathers on the thighs and lower body of the bird, it is almost a certain indication of health and hardiness.

Protruding Ears

Protruding ears may be coaxied to lie nearer the head by wearing a cap at night. This simple contrivance is made of bands, which are passed over the head, binding the ears. These should be narrow, so that the drum of the ear may not be injured by shutting out sounds.

Garden Manure

Manure for the garden should be well rotted and forked over several times in order to fine it thoroughly, so as to be as free from weed seeds as possible.

THE NEW YORK WORLD

THRICE-A-WEEK EDITION

Read wherever the English Language is Spoken

The Thrice-A-Week World was a brilliant success in the beginning and has been steadily growing ever since. Time is the test of all things, and has set its seal of approval on the Thrice-A-Week World, which is widely circulated in every State and Territory of the Union, and wherever there are people who can read our mother tongue.

This paper for the coming winter and the year 1903, will make its news service, if possible, more extensive than ever. All events of importance, no matter where they happen, are reported accurately and promptly.

The subscriber, for only one dollar a year, gets three papers every week and more news and general reading than most great dailies can furnish at five or six times the price.

The Thrice-A-Week-World is absolutely fair in its political news. Partisan bias is never allowed to affect its news columns, and Democrat and Republican alike can obtain in its pages truthful accounts of all the great political campaigns.

In addition to all the news, the Thrice-A-Week-World furnishes the best serial fiction, elaborate market reports and other features of interest.

The Thrice-A-Week-World's regular subscription price is only $1.00 per year and this pays for 135 papers. We offer this unequalled newspaper and Weekly COAST MAIL together one year for $2.00.

The regular subscription price of the two papers is $2.50.
