

PRESIDENT'S VISIT TO ILLINOIS

Dedicates Boulders and Things

Freeport, Ill., June 3.—President Roosevelt began an exceedingly busy day with a half-hour visit in Freeport this morning. The special train arrived from Dubuque over the Illinois Central on schedule time. The procession moved to the site of the boulder monument erected in commemoration of the famous Lincoln-Douglas debate of 1858, where the President delivered an address as the principal feature of the dedicatory exercises. When the ceremonies were concluded the Presidential party re-boarded the waiting train and departed from the city amid a storm of cheers.

Rockford, Ill., June 3.—An immense crowd was at the station to greet the President when he arrived over the Illinois Central today. After the distinguished visitor had been formally greeted by Mayor Van Alstyne and other members of the reception committee, the party entered carriages and moved in procession to Memorial Hall the dedication of which was the principal feature of the program. From a stand erected in front of the hall Mr. Roosevelt addressed a crowd of 20,000 people.

Joliet, Ill., June 3.—Hundreds of people from all over this and neighboring counties congregated in Joliet this afternoon to see the President, who pleased them with one of his characteristic short speeches. After a short drive through the city the President and party boarded the special train, which had been transferred to the Alton tracks, and the journey was resumed.

Bloomington, Ill., June 3.—What will probably prove to be the most notable demonstration by any inland city in honor of President Roosevelt during his present Western trip awaits him in this city when he arrives late this afternoon to attend the third annual encampment of the Spanish-American War veterans, department of Illinois. The military will be drawn up as escort when the Presidential special arrives. The parade will be a short one. President Roosevelt being accompanied by Governor Yates and staff. This evening a banquet will be given, and later the President will deliver an address in the Caliseum. The President will spend the night in Bloomington and review the military parade tomorrow morning.

CORNER STONE OF MISSISSIPPI'S NEW CAPITAL

Laid at Jackson with Impressive Ceremonies

Jackson, Miss., June 3.—Jackson entertained more guests today than ever before in her history. The whole city assisted in entertaining and every person took an interest in the success of the ceremonies attending the laying of the corner stone of the new million-dollar statehouse. The visitors came from all parts of Mississippi and Tennessee, Arkansas, Louisiana, and other states were also represented among the strangers.

Governor Longino presided over the exercises of the day and delivered the opening address. The corner stone laying ceremony was under the direction of the grand master and the grand lodge of Masons of Mississippi. In the stone, before it was laid, were deposited copies of the Jackson daily papers of this date, the Holy Bible, a list of the Capitol Commissioners and officers of the state, also the members of the Legislature and the architect and builders of the structure, a variety of coins and other articles of interest. Judge A. H. Whitfield delivered one of the orations of the day and the concluding address was made by Bishop Charles B. Galloway.

WELTER WEIGHTS FIGHT

Bradford, Pa., June 5.—Considerable interest is manifested in sporting circles in the meeting here to night between Joe Youngs, the Buffalo welterweight, and Jack Carris, of Boston. The fight is scheduled for ten rounds; at catchweights. Both men have been training faithfully and appear to be in shape to put up a lively bout.

Some men's respect for themselves seems to be based largely on a lack of unbiased information.—Puck.

Great hearts are full of sympathy, and what man does not need the sympathy and support of his fellow men?—Schoolmaster.

Vast Damage Expected at St. Louis.

Kansas Governor to Call Extra Session.

St. Louis, June 3.—The river stood two feet above danger mark at 10 o'clock this morning, having reached the 32 foot mark. As the crest of the flood is two days distant, it is now certain that vast damage will be done. Carondelet is already suffering and many families were removed from their homes this morning in boats. The great cradle used in transferring cars to the ferry boats was swept away this morning.

Topeka, June 3.—The Kaw river fell 40 inches in the 24 hours preceding six o'clock this morning. Governor Bailey is now contemplating calling a special session of the Legislature to provide emergency appropriations.

Buildings continue to collapse. Two persons were rescued from the second floor of an outlying brick residence where they had been for three days with their food supply gone.

Lawrence, June 3.—The river fell three feet last night.

Kansas City, June 3.—The river fell six tenths of a foot during last night, though light rain continues to fall.

Part of the street car system is in operation this morning. No further loss of life from the flood in this section is expected. Boats are running to Kansas City, Kansas, conveying food and necessities. The only boats in the flooded district are in charge of the police.

There are more than two and a quarter million dollars under water in sales and smaller banks, express companies and railway offices.

HONOR GERMAN KAISER

American Warships at Kiel

Washington, D. C., June 5.—In pursuance of orders from the Navy Department the battleship Alabama is to sail for Europe today to join the European squadron which is to pay a visit to Kiel. The visit of the warships to Kiel is made as a special mark of friendship to the German Emperor and in appreciation of the many courtesies he recently has shown the American people. The favor is all the more marked as it will be the first occasion on which any number of American warships have visited a German port. In addition to the Alabama, the squadron will consist of the Chicago, Machias and San Francisco.

GIANT STEAMER ACROUND

New York, June 5.—Efforts to float the giant steamship Deutschland which grounded in a haze off Godoy channel last evening, were made early today, but failed. Another attempt was made at high tide this afternoon. The bow is embedded in soft mud and she is in no danger.

RESOLUTION

Whereas: It has pleased the Supreme Ruler of the Universe to remove from our midst our late Brother A. Lawrence Johnson, and whereas, it is but just and fitting that we recognize his many virtues, and therefore be it resolved, BY MYRTLE LODGE NO. 3 KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS, that in the death of Brother A. Lawrence Johnson, the order has sustained a great loss, his family a loving and kind husband and father, the community a good and enterprising citizen.

Resolved, that we extend our fraternal sympathy to the family and relatives, of the deceased Brother, in this their season of sad bereavement, and we painfully realize how inadequate are any words that we can utter to convey comfort to their stricken hearts, we would refer them to the promises of our heavenly Father, whose all seeing eye watches over all his creatures with more than human care, and tenderness.

SHIPPING SUFFERS AGAIN

Terrible Philippine Hurricane

London, June 5.—Lloyd's Manila correspondent wires that a terrible hurricane swept over the Philippines, doing great damage to shipping. The American steamer Pearl Devisayas was lost off Camotes. Part of the crew were saved. The American steamer San Rafael and schooner Mayflower sunk off Ormoc. All hands were saved.

The correspondent adds that the United States transport is among the vessels reported wrecked.

AFTER NINE WEEKS

President Again on the Quarter Deck

Family Will Soon go to Oyster Bay

Washington, D. C., June 5.—After an absence of over nine weeks, during which time he has traveled thousands of miles and visited the most remote points of the far West and Northwest, President Roosevelt is due to reach the national capital at an early hour this evening.

Just how long the President will spend in Washington upon his return is not known at the White House. The supposition is that he will not tarry many weeks at his offices, and that he and his family will be installed at their summer home in Oyster Bay early in July, probably by the first of the month. There is nothing in official affairs to detain the President here later than that time, it is stated. With the exception of some rather important appointments, which may be quickly disposed of, there has not developed much of importance to hold him here during the hot months of summer.

It is not thought to be likely that the President will take up for the present the appointment of an isthmian canal commission. The appointments involved in this commission are the best that will be open to the President in many years. At least the politicians and former office holders think so. The President has said that the question of the route for the canal would have to be settled and other arrangements made before he will appoint a commission. The settlement of the question of the route appears to be as far away an event, it is pointed out, and there is not much probability of the President's departing something, in the delay which he might make a mistake in the appointment of canal commission. It will be a long way off, it is pointed out, and there is not much probability of the President's departing something, in the delay which he might make a mistake in the appointment of canal commission.

It was Different. "I dare say," she remarked acridly, "in bed when he stumbled in this morning, 'that you have been with a sick friend, or something.'" great that the proposition may never go through with the sanction of the Colombian congress.

President Roosevelt is scheduled to make three more presidential trips within the next few weeks. He has accepted the invitation of Senator Hanna, to attend the wedding of his daughter and Mr. McCormick of Chicago, and will go to Cleveland next Tuesday. Directly after getting back from Cleveland he is to go to Baltimore to take part in the festival of the Seangarites. The next day the President is to attend the commencement exercises of the University of Virginia at Charlottesville. The last two trips are to be short ones, but will prevent the President attending to business in office for several days. It is probable that President will have a meeting of his cabinet next Monday. He has seen a few of his cabinet advisers since leaving Washington, but the majority of them have not bothered him with business and will want to present some matters for his advice and decision at as early a date as is convenient.

Mrs. Roosevelt is already making preparations for the summer sojourn at Oyster Bay and will doubtless go there with the family before July 1, if the President is detained here. The children will be out of school a week hence and will want to get away from Washington as much as their parents. Oyster Bay is a delightful place to them. With the President they hunt and fish and swim and sail, and enjoy their summer vacation to the utmost.

BLAZING HOT IN 'FRISCO

San Francisco, June 5.—The thermometer registered 92 at 1 o'clock today, and it will be hotter tomorrow.

Churches in Mexico. One of the strange things about the churches of Mexico is, that none of them is finished. You may travel from one end of Mexico to the other and wherever you go you will find from one to a half dozen workmen doing something to every church. They may be putting on a spire there or a bit of decoration here, but as soon as one part of the building is apparently completed they go to work on another, and what is more, there is no likelihood that the churches will ever be finished until the laws are changed.

Since the present government came into power the church of Mexico has not been allowed to own property, and such property as it acquired must be held in the names of individuals and is subject to taxation. However, no taxes have to be paid on an unfinished building, and that is why the churches of Mexico are never completed.

A Whistling Oyster. The proprietor of a London chop-house some years ago made fame and fortune by the discovery of a musical oyster. A distinct whistling sound came from a newly opened barrel of oysters. With eagerness he hunted for the cause and found an oyster which seemed to amuse itself by whistling. The innkeeper advertised it, and hundreds came daily to his hostelry to listen to the musical oyster. In due time the oyster died, and its secret died with it. It is supposed that the sound was caused by the inspiration and expiration of air through a tiny hole in the shell. To this day the inn is known as "The Whistling Oyster."

The Art of Conversation. "Tell me," pleaded the artless maid, "wherein lies the secret of the art of conversation?" The sage affected the attitude he was wont to assume when in the act of imparting wisdom and said: "My child, listen." "I am listening," breathlessly she answered.

"Well, my child," he rejoined, "that is the art of conversing agreeably." It Was Different. "I dare say," she remarked acridly, "in bed when he stumbled in this morning, 'that you have been with a sick friend, or something.'"

Lost

The Use of Arm. Heart Trouble. Could Not Eat, Sleep or Walk. Dr. Miles' Heart Cure Cured Entirely.

"If it hadn't been for Dr. Miles' Remedies I would not be here to write this letter. Two years ago last June I lost the use of my left arm, could not use it and could only move it with the help of my right hand. My heart was so weak I could not sleep nights for smothering spells. I was out of sorts all over and could eat nothing. I grew so weak that I could not walk without staggering like a drunken man and my home doctor said he could do nothing for me. I was in so much pain I was almost wild. I could not take morphine nor opium as they made me worse. So I got to thinking about Dr. Miles' Heart Cure and Nervine and the more I thought about it the more I wanted to try them. I wrote to the Dr. Miles Medical Co. for advice which I followed to the letter. I can say today that I am glad I did as I am a well woman now; can work and can walk two or three miles and not mind it. I can also use my arm again as well as ever. You do not know how thankful I am for these grand medicines Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure and Nervine. I think Dr. Miles' Remedies are the best in the world, and if I should get sick again I should take the same course. The remedies also helped my daughter Vida so wonderfully that I should have written you before to thank you, but I wanted to be sure that the cure was permanent, which I now know to be the case."—Mrs. Frank Loomis, Allen, Mich.
