

Summer Complaints

The Quick, Sure

Cholera Cure is JAYNE'S CARMINATIVE BALSAM

A sovereign and almost infallible remedy for Cramps, Diarrhoea, Dysentery, Cholera Morbus, Cholera Infantum, and Cholera. It acts almost immediately.

PERSONAL AND LOCAL

From Sunday's Daily.

T. L. Parker of Roseburg was in town yesterday.

Levi Snyder of Coquille was seen on our streets yesterday.

S. P. Stewart of Roseburg was a business visitor in Marshfield yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jake Matson were in town Saturday shopping.

J. L. Bounds who started a barber shop at North Bend has sold out.

When you want a physic that is mild and gentle, easy to take and certain to act, always use Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Laxative. For sale by Jno. Preuss.

Ralph Williams and family left yesterday for a camping trip up Coos river.

The Casrina leaves this morning for San Francisco with her cargo of coal.

The O. R. & N. agent at Baker City is short in his accounts and has skipped out.

The Acme sailed yesterday morning from the stove mill with a cargo of lumber for San Francisco.

O. L. Williams, publisher and proprietor of the Gardiner Gazette stopped off at Marshfield for several days on his return from San Francisco.

Jessie Farrin is in receipt of a letter from the president of the State Board of Barber Examiners, stating that he will call on the Coos county barbers in the near future.

Yesterday morning carpenters began tarring down the old shed over the shipyard at North Bend. The ways will be planked over to make room for the lumber output of the mill.

Rusty Mike's Diary, July 26, 1903—When you feel all run down, you take tonic—when your business gets run down, give it a good dose of advertising and hustle.

Joe H. Youkam was down from Coos river yesterday, bringing some fine blooded White Leghorn chickens which he exchanged for some of the same kind with Mr. Matheson, of Flagstaff.

Men and teams are at work on a street grading about 8 inches, the portion that is to be planked to a level where the stringers and plank will bring it up to the original grade.

Al Owens' is having his cigar shop painted. This makes the building appear new and no doubt the Coos Bay Belle will taste better to the many smokers of that favorite cigar.

E. C. Whitley, who recently sold the ranch on the north fork of the Coquille on which he has lived for many years, is in town to take passage for Portland on his way to Thurston county, Wash-ton, to visit a brother, Wm. Whitley, whom he has not seen for 36 years. He may also take a trip east before returning to Coos.

The Daily Oregon Statesman has changed its head and enlarged a 7 column quarto and now is one of the biggest and most valued of our exchanges.

The Statesman, the twice-a-week Statesman, the Pacific Homestead, Oregon Teachers' Monthly, Oregon Poultry Journal, and various other publications are all up-to-date mechanically and otherwise.

with the muzzle of the gun and fumbling over the hammers. "Say, brother, asked the minister, "how do you let these things down?"

Mrs. Dr. Owen, St Louis, Mo., arrived on the Alliance. She went to Coquille where she will visit her father and mother Mr. and Mrs. Kronenberg.

An editor once took the local preacher out hunting. They had but one gun between them and the preacher carried it. After they had been out half an hour the man felt something poking him in the side. Turning around quickly he found the preacher poking him

The ladies of the O'Connell fishing party which were camped at Tenmile lake returned last evening. Mrs. Minott has the distinction of having landed the largest trout caught there this season, even several inches longer than the one which Mr. Magnee caught there recently. The gentlemen of the party will remain at the lakes several days longer.

Sad Accident

The stove-pipe of Flanagan's sausage factory, at the rear of the COAST MAIL office, fell over at 2:44 p. m. yesterday, and at this writing lies prone upon the metal roof, a victim of old age, with no prospect of recovery.

From Tuesday's Daily.

Mrs. L. H. Hanson went up Coos river yesterday.

The Arcata sails from San Francisco at 4 p. m. today.

Jno. Wickland of Empire spent Sunday in Marshfield.

Mr. Hibbard of Tenmile transacted business in Marshfield yesterday.

Another evening party will be pulled off this week for the young people.

F. S. Dow will make a business trip to San Francisco on the next Arcata.

The schooners Western Home and Repeat arrived yesterday, to load lumber.

Contractor A. W. Neal has the rebuilding of Mill Slough bridge nearly completed.

Special Policeman Ackerman impounded nine cows Sunday for running in the city limits.

The tug Columbia brought in the two mast schooner Ivy, of San Francisco, with a cargo of freight Sunday.

Z. T. Siglin's launch took a load of campers up Isthmus slough yesterday. He was obliged to leave about 10 who wanted to go.

The Sash and door factory buildings at North Bend are nearly complete and it is expected that the machinery will be set in a few days.

Rusty Mike's Diary July 28, 1903—You don't feel good when you eat too much—I imagin an overloaded adv. feels just the same way.

Mrs. Mollie Allen, of South Fork, Ky., says she has prevented attacks of cholera by taking Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets when she felt an attack coming on. Such attacks are usually caused by indigestion and these Tablets are just what is needed to cleanse the stomach and ward off the approaching attack. Attacks of bilious colic may be prevented in the same way. For sale by Jno. Preuss.

Mrs. G. Gulverson accompanied by her little daughter Ruth and son Ivan went north on the Alliance to spend a few weeks visiting relatives in Portland.

Mrs. Chas. Nodstrom, of South Marshfield, who has been visiting her mother Mrs. P. Johnson, of Coquille, for the past week, returned home on yesterday's train.

Miss Mary Hague and Miss Peddie who have been visiting at the homes of Mr. and Mrs. E. O'Connell, Frank Hague and Mrs. Minot, started for Victor, B. C. today, via Drain Route.

Brick from the first kiln burned at the Catching slough Brick yard are now being delivered at North Bend to be used in the foundations for the boiler for the woolen mills and the sash and door factory.

Major Tower, Collector of Customs has notified the owners of gasoline launches large and small that they will have to carry side lights. This is a necessary precaution against collisions, and the law should be carried out.

Dr. and Mrs. J. G. Cook and son Leo leave Saturday on the Alliance for Los Angeles, Cal., where they will spend two or three months visiting their daughter, Mrs. Geo. Twombly, and may bring her her with them when they return.

Miss Edie Collier seems to be the first in this section to take advantage of the open season for deer, by killing a fine one on Saturday at her father's place a short distance down the river. The deer was discovered by her sister, Miss Ruby, near the garden, and the huntress arming herself with a shot-gun soon felled her game.—Coquille Herald.

Two girls from Coos river, Miss Farmer and another whose name we did not learn, have started out to see the world by the hobo route. They stopped at Lee Ray's place below town and got a feed informing Mrs. Ray that they were girl tramps. The pair started toward Roseburg Monday morning afoot. The next day Ira Tucker a brother-in-law of Miss Farmer arrived in town enroute to Roseburg hot on the track of the run-aways, and will bring them back—if he can.—Myrtle Point Enterprise.

Not overwise

There is an old allegorical picture of a girl scared at a grass hopper, but in the act of heedless treading on a snake. This is paralleled by the man who spends a large sum of money building a cyclone cellar, but neglects to provide his family with a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, as a safeguard against bowel complaints, whose victims outnumber those of the cyclone a hundred to one. This remedy is everywhere recognized as the most prompt and reliable medicine in use for these diseases. For sale by John Preuss.

Stakes Gave Way

Yesterday about one o'clock an accident occurred at the Summit, about ten miles from Marshfield on the C. B. R. & E. R. R. The stakes on a car load of lumber broke, letting the lumber loose, which was thrown through the passenger coach door and windows. Fortunately no one was injured. The coach has several broken windows and a smashed door. The wreck delayed the train one hour.

From Wednesday's Daily.

F. A. Minshall was over from Roseburg yesterday.

Good things are always in demand. What is necessary is to let people know you have the good things.

E. G. Flanagan's delivery horse has again been put on the wagon, her harness wire injuries having healed.

Jas. Rooke is putting down a new sidewalk and otherwise improving his residence property in South Marshfield.

The steamer Coos River is on the ways on Coos river, while a new shaft is being set. The Alma made the usual run yesterday.

Rusty Mike's Diary, July 29, 1903—The devil is generally pretty hard to put away from you, but he ain't no harder to get rid of than goods that are not advertised.

H. Songstacken will commence to move his entire stock of drug and groceries and dry goods at Empire to his store at this place, the steamer Flyer being chartered for that purpose.

They are talking about organizing a baseball club on Catching slough, and H. N. Black expects to be pitcher. He is working up his muscle, throwing brick bats at cats and things.

Curv County Recorder:—The efforts made by the underwriters to launch the Berwick into deep water has as yet proven unsuccessful, the Berwick still being in the same position as when first beset over three months ago.

On Sunday, J. J. Sullivan's launch took a pleasure party up South Coos river to E. R. Hodson's place, consisting of Mr. and Mrs. Robt. McCann, Mrs. J. M. Russell of Portland, Mr. Geo. Pratt, Lillian McCann and Edythe Gulverson.

On Sunday Max Timmerman gave an excursion to Charleston bay for his many friends at North Bend. A basket dinner and ice cream helped to pass the day, highly enjoyed by all. Max's friends say that he never does things by halves, and this treat will long be remembered by them.

A camping party composed of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Ferrey, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Nasburg, Mrs. P. M. Wilbur, Maggie and Eva Anderson, Dr. Straw, Chas. McKnight and Claud Nasburg, will camp near McKnight's landing on Coos river where they will stay for two or three weeks.

New Restaurant

A. H. Mulkey has leased the rooms recently occupied by the Coffee Club, and will open a restaurant therein, to be conducted by Mrs. Mulkey, who will also have charge of the reading room until other arrangements are made.

Travel by Sea

Departures via Alliance, July 31 '03—Fischer Co, Robt Koatzog and wife, Miss Loma Kratzeg, Mrs R Forsell, Mrs A W Kelley, Loan Gulverson, Richard Forsell, Frank Hobson, J W Chance R Kratzeg, Levi Snyder, E C Whitley, D C Gibson, Gangus, Mrs G R Gulverson, Mrs H A Depue, Mrs Mary Hobson, Mrs Morse, Mrs Banteh, Jas Patterson, F Kaiser, B Anderson, Miss Langus, Mrs W Lape, L Y Ehrlich, J B Davison, F V Davis, Martin Wallace, Al Runstodler, Guy Parmenter, J Donavoe.

Struck it Rich in Alaska

News comes from the far north from Wealy and Earnest Fox, two Coos bay boys who have cast their fortune in Alaska. These young men went to Alaska 5 years ago with the determination of staying there until they had made their fortune before returning. They have last accomplished what they set out to do. They have made a rich strike. Five

RAIN CAN'T TOUCH
the man who wears
SAWYER'S EXCELSIOR BRAND Slickers
SAWYER'S Excelsior Brand Slickers. Best in the world. Will not crack, peel or get sticky. Look for trade mark. It's not at dealer's. Write for catalogue. H. R. Sawyer & Son, 1212 N. East Cambridge, Mass.

years ago last June they left here. They expect to return this fall. Their find is yielding from $10 to $11 dollars to the pan. The boys are deserving of this success as they have undergone many hardships during their stay in the frozen north.

Dysentery Cured Without the Aid of a Doctor

"I am just up from a hard spell of the flux (dysentery) says Mr. T. A. Pinner, a well known merchant of Drummond, Tenn. "I used one small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and was cured without having a doctor. I consider it the best cholera medicine in the world." There is no need of employing a doctor when this is used, for no doctor can prescribe a better medicine for bowel complaint in any form either for children or adults. It never fails and is pleasant to take. For sale by John Preuss.

State and General

The output of the mines in the Sumner district for the past month was $350,000. All employes of the S. P. R. R. are now paid off in checks by the agent.

Eastern capitalists are in Portland negotiating for the bonds of the Portland Nehalem & Tillamook road.

Roseburg has again been lighted up after a month of darkness owing to a breakdown in the light plant.

A log drive of 8,000,000 feet is on its way down the Willamette river to Oregon City.

The Magnolia mills at Albany have been sold to the Albany Canal and Water Co.

The friends of Lee Welch of Roseburg are asking for his pardon.

People at Astoria are looking forward to one of the biggest days on Regatta day.

Some of the citizens of Sumpter, Oregon are mad at the result of the recent election which voted $15,000 for a sewer system for the town. 14 votes was the majority in favor and an attempt will be made to nullify the election.

There is an extreme scarcity of water in and around Pendleton owing the protracted hot and dry spell.

The Southern Oregon Chatanqua is now out of debt the last $2100 were paid last Friday.

William Shafer who lives near Independence Ore had his foot in a halter last Saturday and it was badly crushed.

At Grants Pass, by microscopic analysis, it has been found that the city water is impure, even though it is Rogue river water which ought to be as pure as mountain water can be. Filters have been recommended.

Eastern Oregon horses are being shipped to Canada. Alberta is the destination of about 60 carloads, shipped by W H Babb of Echo.

MARRIED MEN WILL PLAY

Marshfield to Meet North Bend For a Good Cause.

At the instance of L. J. Simpson, a ball game has been arranged between the married men of Marshfield, to take place on the North Bend grounds tomorrow, the proceeds to go to the Presbyterian church at North Bend. The challenge was issued from North Bend and was at once taken up by the doughy Benedicts of this town.

The following gentlemen have been elected to uphold the glory of Marshfield on the diamond: Ferrey Geo, Snyder, Dungan W E Boyton, Sealbrook, McCloud Mac, Lu'ee, Shorf W H Pratt, V O Schroeder.

North Bend's lineup will be as follows: Flanagan P, Lyons G, Lawler R, Simpson L B, McGinnis S, Byler Ab, Big Hansen C, Langworthy B, Vaughn H. This is sure to be an interesting game and should not be missed by any lover of sport or of fun; not that it will be a burlesque, for it will be played for all there is in it. The lineup will show that some of the best players available are represented, and both sides will play to win.

The weather clerk seems to be on his good behavior, and every one who can should turn out, and see a good game, have a good time and help build a new church in our sister town.

TIMBER LAND, ACT JUNE 3, 1878.

NOTICE FOR PUBLICATION.

United States Land Office, Roseburg, Oregon. Notice is hereby given that in compliance with the provisions of the act of Congress of June 3, 1878, entitled "An act for the sale of timber lands in the States of California, Oregon, Nevada, and Washington Territory," as extended to all the Public Land States by act of August 4, 1894.

WILLIAM STINER of Roseburg, county of Douglas, State of Oregon, has this day filed in this office his sworn statement No. 5727, for the purchase of the Northeast quarter of Section No. 30, Township 26 South, Range No. 10 West, and will offer proof to show that the land sought is more valuable for its timber or stone than for agricultural purposes, and to establish his claim to said land before the Register and Receiver of this office at Roseburg, Oregon, on Saturday, the 12th day of September, 1903.

He names as witnesses: Charles Thom and John Thum, of Roseburg, Oregon; William Long and Frank Long, of Cleveland, Oregon. Any and all persons claiming adversely the above-described lands are requested to file their claims in this office on or before said 12th day of September, 1903. J. T. BRIDGES, Register.

THE NEW WORLD

THRICE-A-WEEK EDITION
Read wherever the English Language is Spoken

The Thrice-A-Week World was a brilliant success in the beginning and has been steadily growing ever since. Time is the test of all things, and has set its seal of approval on the Thrice-A-Week World, which is widely circulated in every State and Territory of the Union, and wherever there are people who can read our mother tongue.

This paper for the coming winter and the year 1903, will make its news service, if possible, more extensive than ever. All events of importance, no matter where they happen, are reported accurately and promptly.

The subscriber, for only one dollar a year, gets three papers every week and more news and general reading than most great dailies can furnish at five or six times the price.

The Thrice-a-Week-World is absolutely fair in its political news. Par-tisan bias is never allowed to affect its news columns, and Democrat and Republican alike can obtain in its pages truthful accounts of all the great political campaigns.

In addition to all the news, the Thrice-a-Week-World furnishes the best serial fiction, elaborate market reports and other features of interest.

The Thrice-a-Week-World's regular subscription price is only $1.00 per year and this pays for 155 papers. We offer this unequalled newspaper and Weekly COAST MAIL together one year for $2.00

The regular subscription price of the two papers is $2.50

R-I-P-A-N-S Tabules Doctors find A good prescription For mankind

The 5-cent packet is enough for usual occasions. The family bottle (50 cents) contains a supply for a year. All drug-gists sell them.

WANTED—SEVERAL INDUSTRI-ous persons in each state to travel for house established eleven years and with a large capital, to call upon merchants and agents for successful and profitable line. Permanent engagement. Weekly cash salary of $18 and all travelling expenses and hotel bills advanced. In cash each week. Experience not essential. Mention reference and enclose self-addressed envelope. THE NATIONAL, 334 Dearborn St., Chicago.

Flanagan & Bennett Bank

DIRECTORS—T. R. Sheridan, J. W. Bennett; PRES.; and H. Flanagan, VICE PRES.; R. F. Williams, CASHIER.

Capital, $50,000.

MARSHFIELD, OREGON