

WEEKLY COAST MAIL

VOL XXVI.

MARSHFIELD, COOS COUNTY, OREGON August 15, 1903

NO. 83

SACRED PALLIUM CONFERRED

Upon Archbishop Farley

(Special to the Coast Mail.)

New York, Aug. 13.—The impressive and beautiful ceremonies incident to the conferring of the sacred pallium upon Archbishop Farley by Mgr. Falconio, the papal delegate, took place in St. Patrick's Cathedral. The massive and spacious edifice, was crowded with persons of prominence in all walks of life.

At 10 o'clock the procession of prelates and priests formed at the archbishop's house and escorted Mgr. Falconio and Archbishop Farley to the cathedral. The procession was headed by censor, cross and banner bearers. The archbishops and bishops were all robed in vestments, and each was accompanied by two priests, walking on either side and followed by train bearers. The prelates included several archbishops and more than a score of bishops, besides a hundred priests from all parts of New York.

Upon arriving at the cathedral, the dignitaries and their attendants marched into the sacred edifice and up the middle aisle of the sanctuary, where they assumed their places, Mgr. Falconio and Archbishop Farley occupying the places of honor.

The beautiful and imposing services began with the votive mass of St. Francis, Bishop McQuaid, of Rochester, then delivered an earnest and eloquent sermon on the historical significance and sacred meaning of the pallium.

When Mgr. Falconio arose to confer the sacred pallium the eager interest of all was manifested by the profound silence that prevailed. After paying an eloquent tribute to the lamented Archbishop Corrigan, whom he pronounced one of the staunchest supports of the church in the New World, he addressed himself with evident affection and high personal regard to Archbishop Farley, upon whose broad shoulders he placed the sacred garment as an evidence of the high rank conferred upon him by the church. Archbishop Farley responded feelingly, touching briefly upon the ceremonies of the day.

Before he could give his apostolical benediction to the congregation, which would complete the ceremonial, the masters of ceremony, Fathers Lewis and Hayes, escorted a delegation of prominent citizens, representing the city and headed by Judge Morgan J. O'Brien, within the sanctuary to deliver an address of congratulation. Similar celebrations on behalf of the clergy were presented by the Rev. James H. McGan, interspersed at appropriate intervals throughout the exercises was sung by the large and carefully-trained choir. The exercises closed at 12:30 p. m. Then the procession of prelates and priests reformed and marched out of the Cathedral to the Archbishop's residence, where an informal reception was held.

Samuel Kimore, vice-president of the Columbia River Packers' Association, has sold the Morning Astorian, the oldest paper in Astoria, having been established in 1873, to Walter Lyon, of Salem ex-private secretary to Governor Geer, and Otis Patterson, of The Dalles, ex-Register of the United States Land Office at The Dalles. The transfer includes, besides the newspaper and job plant, the building in which it is located.

BIG FIGHT SOON TO COME OFF

A San Francisco dispatch says: As the time approaches for the contest between Jeffries and Corbett, who are to meet Friday night for heavyweight championship of the world, popular interest in the fight is rapidly increasing. The management of the club under whose auspices the mill takes place is in receipt of applications for tickets indicating a large attendance from out of town. Chicago, Denver, New Orleans and even New York and other cities farthest East will be represented at the ringside. The training quarters of Corbett were visited by many sporting men desirous of obtaining a first-hand opinion of his condition. The outlook is for a large amount of money to be wagered on the result of the contest. Jeffries will naturally rule a heavy favorite in the betting and the only question is one of odds. Corbett, however, has a large number of devoted followers and admirers in this his home city and the Jeffries money will find ready takers, particularly if tempting odds are offered.

A TEN DAY FAST

Boy Drifts to Sea in an Open Boat

Picked up by Atlantic Liner

(Special to the Mail.)

New York, Aug. 13.—On board the Morgan line steamer which arrived at Galveston today is a tiny Spanish boy, picked up at sea after floating many days in an open boat without food or water.

He is about 10 years old, and when found was nude, helpless and much exhausted. He with two others were fishing outside the harbor of Havana, when the boat broke adrift. His companions swam ashore, but he, being unable to swim, remained in the boat.

He was adrift five days, as near as he can remember, but the captain says it would be impossible for the boat to drift so far in five days as it was 536 miles. He thinks the boy was adrift at least 10 days without food or water.

The boy is too feeble to talk, being not much more than a skeleton. His skin peeled off and salt water boils covered his limbs, but he will survive.

A GREAT HURRICANE SWEEPING OVER THE WEST INDIA ISLAND

Martinique Devastated and Thousands Rendered Homeless--Cuba Also Suffers Heavily

(Special to the Mail.)

Washington, Aug. 11.—Consul Jewell of Fort DeFrance, Martinique, cables the state department under yesterday's date, the following:

A terrific cyclone visited this island at midnight Saturday, doing great damage to crops and fruits. Scores of houses at Fort DeFrance were demolished, trees two feet thick were uprooted. One person killed. The Consulate is intact.

Seven were killed at Trinite and many houses were destroyed in the new villages of Tivoli, Fond, Farnicals and Reineuse, rendering 5000 victims of last year's catastrophe again homeless.

Reports from the interior of the island are indefinite, but there is great discouragement.

Havana, Aug. 11.—The hurricane which has prevailed in the West Indies for the last few days struck Santiago last night, causing considerable damage. The storm is moving toward Havana. All wires in the eastern portion of Cuba are down. The last message was received from that locality at 11 o'clock this morning.

Washington, Aug. 11.—The Weather Bureau this morning sent out the following:

The hurricane that appeared at East Barbadoes August 8th., approaching Cuba from the Caribbean sea, will recurve northward over Florida. There will be dangerous storms within the next 48 hours in the gulf, South Atlantic and Cuba waters.

The Oldest Hospital. The Pennsylvania hospital in Philadelphia is the oldest hospital in the United States. It was built in 1755.

UNION VETERANS UNION

(Special to the Mail.)

Rochester, N. Y., Aug. 13.—The 18th national encampment of the Union Veterans' Union and the Woman's Veteran Relief Union convened here today for two days. After the regular routine of business of each day there will be campfires in the evening, at which speakers of national fame will address the veterans.

The encampment was called to order in the assembly hall of the Chamber of Commerce at 10 o'clock this morning by the commander-in-chief, General B. F. Hutchinson of this city. Simultaneously the woman's auxiliary assembled in annual session at the Osburn House.

The reports of the various officers showed the two organizations to be holding their own in regard to membership.

It is reported that 70,000 sheep, the product of Crook county, are being driven to the California market where they will be sold. The 70,000 sheep constitute the increase in Crook county where the range is said to be insufficient to keep them.

Coming on Alliance

(Special to the Coast Mail.)

Portland, Aug. 13.—The Alliance sailed today with the following passengers for Coos Bay: J. R. Martin, G. O. Colwell, Mrs. L. H. Pierce, L. H. Pierce, L. H. Leets, Mrs. A. R. Gauld, Mrs. Bench, F. X. Hall, Mildred Burnett, J. Meyers, Mrs. H. Culbertson, Mrs. Wilson, J. Fern, Miss Merchant, J. Morris, L. Perono, T. Thompson, W. Wilson, J. W. Liddle, Mrs. J. Korkan, Miss Campbell, C. M. Wickham, Mrs. L. Rivears, Mr. McFadden, Mrs. E. M. Hendrick, Miss Grissen, Mrs. Hanford, F. W. Barnett, G. Y. Harry, N. W. Leadbetter, Mrs. A. Culbertson, A. Steph, C. H. Merchant, M. Wallace, E. Gatesburg, W. Baird, W. Kernin, W. Karpes and son, S. Williams, F. Abernethy, Dr. A. R. Gauld, Mrs. J. H. Leets, Miss Hanford, Mrs. McFadden, Mrs. Chas. Grissen, Miss B. Demeles, Mrs. Burnett, Dr. Swensen, Miss Culbertson, Miss Wilson, P. Steph, Mrs. C. H. Merchant, A. J. Paul, D. A. McLeod, W. Hampton, W. Hutton, T. Lennon, W. Bowater and son.

The decomposed remains of a man have been found in the Willamette river several miles below Albany. It is thought to be the body of George Armstrong, the Benton County farmer, who disappeared mysteriously several weeks ago. Armstrong was last seen near the river. He was about 60 years of age.

FORBES NIELL FIGHT

(Special to the Mail.)

San Francisco, Aug. 13.—Harry Forbes and "Frankie" Neil, after finishing training this morning, are in fine shape for deciding their claims to the bantam-weight honors in their twenty-round contest in this city tonight.

Forbes expresses himself as confident winning under any rules, and that Neil is in good heart is evidenced by the manner in which Neil money is being freely offered about the resorts where sporting men congregate. It is finding takers, without odds, in a manner that makes it certain that a large sum will change hands on the result of the match.

The contest will take place under the auspices of the Yosemite Athletic Club in Mechanic's Pavilion, where the heavy weight championship battle between Jeffries and Corbett is to be pulled off tomorrow night, and delegations from many cities who are here for the big fight will help to swell the crowd at the ringside tonight.

Forbes and Neil will clash at 116 pounds, one pound above the bantam-weight limit. Tonight's encounter will be the second meeting between the two. Their first tilt was at Oakland, where Forbes won in the sixth, after Neil's seconds claimed their boy had been fouled. They were rematched, but went wrong the day preceding the fight and his brother Clarence, who was substituted, was defeated in the seventh round.

Every time a man comes across a lot of old clothes in the house he searches the pockets, though he never finds anything.

READY FOR BIG FIGHT

Odds Ten to Four on Jeffries

(Special to the Mail.)

Oakland, Cal., Aug. 13.—Jeffries arose late and ate breakfast in the kitchen of the hotel Metropole. Afterwards he held a reception on the sidewalk. He will do light work at the Reliance club this afternoon.

Alameda, Aug. 13.—Corbett's utter lack of nervousness is the main feature of his condition.

San Francisco, Aug. 13.—Referee Graney still insists that the decision will go to the man who has made the better fight at the end of the twentieth round, but hopes and expects a knockout.

Jeffries' appearance has forced the odds to 10 to 4.

MAY BE SERIOUS AFFAIR

(Special to the Mail.)

Washington, Aug. 13.—The State Department has not been officially informed of the Silverspray affair and declines to make a statement. Admitting that the vessel was in American waters, matters are serious, but officials are inclined to believe that if she was poaching on the Canadian side she should have stopped when hailed by the Petrol.

MAGNES & MATSON HEADQUARTERS FOR UNION MADE GOODS